Sam Campbell, familiarly known as "The Philosopher of the Forest," will be in Highland Park, Sunday evening, April 14th, and will present an interesting new picture lecture at the Elm Place school auditorium. The lecture is being sponsored by a group of interested citizens, the proceeds of which will go to Highland Park Community Center.

In his only appearance in Highland Park this season, Sam Campbell will interpret "The Human Side of Nature," by means of a lecture and new motion pictures in natural color.

Many of these pictures were taken in Canada last summer where scenery of unsurpassed loveliness is to be found. Other pictures, including many beautiful snow scenes, are from Sam Campbell's forest home, The Sanctuary of Wegimind, in northern Wisconsin. In these pictures are many of our forest and Sanctuary friends — birds, chipmunks, deer, bears and others.

At the Sanctuary of Wegimind, where natural beauty, tranquility and peace abound, "the philosopher of the forest" has devoted many years to the study of the woods and woodland creatures. This study has enabled him to become an interpreter of the secrets of nature and to find in the forest and in the world a predominating atmosphere of friendliness.

Don't miss seeing Sam Campbell's beautiful pictures and hearing his inspiring message, a message which sparkles with humor as well as inspiration.

Time: Sunday, April 14, 8:15. Place: Elm Place school auditorium.

Tickets may be purchased at Gaell's or from any member of the ticket committee as follows: Mrs. E. B. Elmore, Mrs. Walter Owens, Mrs. Guy Whitcomb, Mrs. Joe Kral, Mrs. Wm. Goodreds, Mrs. T. J. Zabel, Mrs. Eugene Boyer, Mrs. Harold Schimmelfeng, Mrs. E. R. Phelps, Mrs. Chandler Hatcher, Mrs. Richard Mansell, Mrs. W. C. Pohrte.

Mrs. Ramsey Will Talk on "Political Parties" Wednesday

"Political Parties" is the subject of a talk by Mrs. W. W. Ramsey, which will be presented by the Highland Park League of Women Voters, Wednesday, March 20 at the Y.W.C.A. at 1:15 p.m.

Politics, always an absorbing subject, reaches its peak in a presidential election year, and the speaker is well qualified to discuss it.

Mrs. Ramsey, vice-president of the Illinois League of Women Voters, in addition to an intensive study of political parties and how they function, has had much practical experience in dealing with the legislators themselves. She has spent much time lobbying for legislation which the league supports. It was largely through her untiring efforts that Illinois obtained permanent registration.

An interesting and competent speaker, Mrs. Ramsey's talk is looked forward to with the greatest of interest.
