the Zion Lutheran church, was pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening by the members of his congregation who came to help celebrate his birthday anniversary. There was a large attendance, and a very delightful program was given. Three pastors from Evanston, Chicago and Waukegan. Rev. C. W. Sodergrin, Rev. Carl Lundquist and Rev. E. E. Enquist, extended greetings. A gift of money was presented Mr. Johanson. At the conclusion of the program refreshments and a social hour were enjoyed.

Miss Joan Pier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Pier of 555 S. Linden avenue, has been elected recording secretary of her sorority, Alpha Omicron Pi, at DePauw university, Greencastle, Indiana, where she is a junior.

Robert Lundin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Lundin, 937 Lincoln Ave., presented a piano recital Saturday afternoon at DePauw university. Mr. Lundin is a sophomore in the DePauw liberal arts school and a piano student of Mr. Henry Tolling.

Lundin's program consisted of Beethoven's Sonata opus 14, No. 2; Bach's "Gavotte" and "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," arranged by Hess; two Bagatelles by Tcherenpnie; and Grieg's Sonata opus 7. His interpretation was sensitive and well-controlled and showed evidence of an amazing amount of practice for a student carrying a full liberal arts schedule.

Mrs. Carl T. Anderson of South Sheridan road entertained at a tea on Friday afternoon at her home in compliment to Mrs. R. H. Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Sandwick have returned from the West Coast where they spent the winter on a combined business and pleasure trip. Their itinerary included a few days at Phoenix, San Diego, Los Angeles, Berkeley and San Francisco, a month at Pacific Grove where Mr. Sandwick was former school superintendent and several weeks spent at Palo Alto his old college town.
