Birds

What bird is that? is a question many of us have asked and many of us can answer, but it is an ever popular subject for the nature lover. Birds of our own vicinity may be very different from those of the New England or Southern States, so if you wish information about birds, why not consult the books available for you at the Highland Park Public Library.

Here is a suggested list of books for you:

- Clark, E. B.—Birds of lakeside and prairie—contains illustrations in color.
- Henderson, J.—Practical value of birds—the birds as friends and as enemies.
- National Geographic Society — Book of birds—birds of town and country, the warblers and American game birds, with color portraits of North American birds.
- Peattie, D. C. — A gathering of birds—this is an anthology of the best ornithological prose, edited with biographical sketches by Peattie.
- Woodruff, F. M. — Birds of the Chicago Area—this is the bulletin of the Natural History Survey. Includes species and general climatic Allen, A. A.—American bird biographies—containing the complete life histories of familiar birds written in autobiographical form.

Chapman, F. M. — What bird is that?—A pocket museum of the land birds.

Nice, M. M.—The watchers at the nest—information about the sparrow family.

Saunders, A. A.—Guide to bird songs—descriptions and diagrams of the songs and singing habits of the land birds of Northeastern United States.

Blanchan, N.—Bird neighbors — an introductory acquaintance with birds commonly found in the gardens, meadows and woods about our homes. Other books by this author are: Birds with knowing and How to attract the birds.

Illinois Audubon society — check list of the birds of Illinois.

Reed, C. A. — North American birds eggs.—The book illustrates the eggs of nearly every species of North American birds.

Ford, E. R.—Birds of the Chicago region—by E. R. Ford, C. C. Sanborn and C. B. Coursen. Published by the Chicago Academy of Sciences.

Forbush, E. H.—Useful birds and their protection—containing description of more common and useful species of Massachusetts, with accounts of their food habits and means of attracting and protecting.

Barrows, W. B.—Michigan bird life—a list of all the bird species known to occur in the state, to include a classification of those birds and an account of the life history.

Pearson, T. G.—Bird study book —pen and ink drawings by Will Simmons. A book written for the "Americans who are interested in acquiring a greater familiarity with the habits and activities of wild birds."

HIGHWOOD PTA INSTALLS OFFICERS
Installation of officers took place on Tuesday evening, April 2, at the regular meeting of the Oak Terrace School P.T.A. Mrs. Sterling Williams, who is the district director, installed the new officers. The following positions were filled: Mrs. Edgar Benson, president; Mrs. Joseph Phillips, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Anderson, treasurer, and Miss Amdurski, secretary. The meeting was addressed by Mrs. Ralph Stoetzl of Glencoe, who spoke on Parent and Child Education. Mrs. Stoetzl is the fourth vice-president of the state of Illinois Congress of P.-T.A.

450 Attend Annual Girl Scout Dinner

Four hundred and fifty Girl Scouts and parents attended the annual Girl Scout dinner Friday, April 5, at the Ravinia Village hall. The invocation was given by Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok. Mrs. Roy O. Nereim then gave a word of welcome to the scouts and their parents.

Each troop represented one of the Girl Scout regions in their table decorations, costumes, and songs. Ravinia Troop 6 were dressed as Puritan maids and had spinning wheel decorations on their table to depict the New England region, which was the first region. The Hendrik Hudson region was portrayed by Braeside Troop 12 with a metallic River (The Hudson) running down the center of their table. Miniature sailboats were afloat on it. Ridge Troop 8 representing Region No. 3 had a log cabin for their centerpiece. Braeside Troop 3 wore bandannas to portray the Kenova region while they sang Kentucky Babe. The scouts of Elm Place Troop 10 were dressed in white raincoats and caps to sing El Capotin for the Cactus region. Cactus decorations and Mexican dolls were on their table. Colored dolls, cotton trees, and miniature bales of cotton decorated the table of Lincoln Troop 9 depicting Elm Place Troop 11 wore the Indian headdress and decorated their table with Indian objects. Lincoln Troop 7 used miniature canoes for the motif for the Great Lakes region. A covered wagon decorated the table of the Covered Wagon region interpreted by the girls of Braeside Troop 5 who were dressed as pioneer women. They had an accordion accompaniment to their song Oh! Susanna. The Big Tree region was portrayed by Ravinia Troop 2. The girls wore flowers in their hair. Lincoln Troop 1 wore cowboy hats and bandannas to depict the Rocky Mountain region. They had an Indian headdress for a table centerpiece. Tiny cradles filled with flowers were on the table of Ravinia Troop 4 representing the birthplace of girl scouting, The Juliette Low region. They also had a birthday cake with 28 candles because Girl Scouting recently celebrated its 28th birthday.

Miss Eleanor Schmitt, local director, awarded first class badges to 40 girls at the conclusion of the program.

The Girl Scouts want to thank the 50 Boy Scouts and Sea Scouts who helped serve the dinner. Phil Johnson again was the caterer.

Mrs. Roosevelt to Be Guest of Honor At Dinner Saturday

Northshore community leaders this week are making plans for the major fete of the Spring season—a dinner honoring Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, to be held Saturday, April 13, at the Hotel Sherman.

More than 40 Northshore citizens are joining with other Chicagoans in sponsoring the fete of Mrs. Roosevelt. More than 500 persons are expected to attend the dinner and reception for Mrs. Roosevelt, including a large delegation from Evanston, Winnetka and Highland Park.

Mrs. Roosevelt will address the dinner group informally and answer questions from the audience. Rex Wilkes, pastor of the Church of the Messiah, will be the only other speaker on the program.

The dinner-reception is open to all interested in hearing Mrs. Roosevelt, according to Mrs. Murray Gitlin, chairman of the arrangements committee of the Adult Advisory Council, American Youth Congress. Reservations may be made by telephoning Franklin 2100.

"Adults Responsibility to Youth in a Democracy" will be Mrs. Roosevelt's topic at the dinner-reception. As a vigorous champion of the American Youth Congress, Mrs.

est in the youth problem in America and has given it a thorough and comprehensive study.

Heading the Northshore sponsoring committee are: Dean E. O. Melby, N.U., Evanston; Mr. Ronald J. Gleason, Winnetka; Mrs. Andrew MacLeish, 459 Longwood, Glencoe; Paul J. Misner, Glencoe, Moritz J. Loeb, Winnetka, Miss Margot Atkin, 12 Indian Hill road, Winnetka; Armin Elmendorf, #523 Edgewood lane, Winnetka; Mrs. James F. Porter, Winnetka; Wilfred Reynolds, 1506 Lincoln, Evanston; Miss Wanda Greinelsen, Glencoe, Miss Lettie Johnstone, Glencoe; Prof. George Axtelle, N. U., Evanston; Mrs. Ivan Gould, 2316 Sherman avenue, Evanston; Arthur Meyerhoff, 1814 Sheridan, Highland Park; Mrs. Frank McCulloch, Evanston; Mrs. Carroll Binder, Highland Park; Ronald P. Boardman, 1100 N. Edgewood lane, Lake Forest; Milton J. Kresanky, 1040 Forest avenue, Glencoe; Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, 1271 Asbury, Winnetka; Mrs. E. Royce Armstrong, 2415 Pioneer road, Evanston; and Rev. Niel E. Hansen, 425 Hamilton, Evanston.
