H P LOCALS DRAKE-STRUB WEDDING

Miss Esther Drake of this city became the bride of Mr. Walter Strub in a beautiful church wedding at the Bethany Evangelical church last Saturday at 7:30 p.m. Rev. H. F. Siemsen, the pastor, officiated. Miss Drake is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Drake of Laurel avenue. Mr. Strub is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Strub of Prairie View, Ill.

Miss Drake was attended by her sister, Miss Sylvia Drake, as maid of honor. The bride wore a dress of white satin and lace. She also wore a long veil and carried a bouquet of white gladiolus. Miss Sylvia Drake wore a dress of peach taffeta trimmed with black. Miss Margaret Kuehne's dress was blue taffeta with black, and Miss Gladys Farmer's dress was pink taffeta with black. On the altar were arranged colonial bouquets of pink and white carnations. They also wore small hats to match their dresses. The bride's mother was dressed in pink taffeta, while the groom's mother wore blue chiffon.

The groom was attended by Mr. Gordon Strub, his brother, as best man. Mr. Harry Farmer, Mr. Kenneth Kightly and Mr. Francis Drake acted as ushers.

Mrs. Miles Dressler sang two solos, "I Love You Truly" and "Because." The church was decorated with calla lilies and snap dragons. Mr. William Drake gave his daughter in marriage. Following the ceremony the relatives and invited guests proceeded to the social rooms of the church, where a reception took place.

WHITE-PAULTON MARRIAGE

Frederic Ervin White of Florida, formerly of Chicago, took as his bride Mrs. Marion Chase Paulton of Sioux Falls, S. D., in All Saints' by the Sea, Monticello, last week. The bridegroom is the father of Earle White of Highland Park, prominent Chicago attorney and bank official. The bride is a sister of Harold G. Chase of Santa Barbara, owner and subdivider of the famous Hope ranch. She is an aunt of Miss Pearl Chase, who thru a current national magazine article becomes known to the world as "Santa Barbara's Pearl."
