Raymond Molendi Invites Public to Visit Alycon Plant

Raymond Molendi, who last week announced a change in names from the Unique Cleaners to Alycon Cleaners, is this week inviting the citizens of Highland Park to visit his newly equipped and modernized cleaning plant at 24 N. Sheridan road.

RAYMOND MOLENDI

Mr. Molendi, owner of the Alycon Cleaners, was formerly president and manager of John Zengler, Inc., from which position he resigned in 1936 to establish a cleaning and pressing establishment at Great Lakes. In 1937 he purchased the Unique Cleaners (now Alycon Cleaners) and since that time has expanded, installing complete and modern cleaning equipment.

The office of the Alycon Cleaners has been remodeled and streamlined fixtures and furniture installed, creating a "salon" effect in the reception room.

The public will be welcomed at any time to inspect the plant and Mr. Molendi extends a special invitation to his many patrons to visit the newly equipped plant at their earliest convenience. Special prices will prevail for a specified period, details of which may be found in an advertisement appearing in this paper.

Son Is Born to Ruben H. Price's Elm Place school can be assured of the enrollment of at least one kindergartner on their school roles, perhaps not this year, but in the very near future. Mr. and Mrs. Ruben H. Price became the proud parents of a son, born Saturday, April 20th at the Highland Park hospital. Mr. Price is superintendent of Elm Place school and he and his wife reside on Sunset road.

Frank J. Conrad Dies Suddenly at Sisters Home Here

Frank J. Conrad, son of the late Matthias and Francis Conrad, died suddenly last Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of his sister Mrs. Helen Golden, 122 McGovern street. Mr. Conrad whose home was in Rogers Park had been ill with heart trouble for the past four years. He had come to Highland Park earlier in the week to spend a few days with his sister.

Born in Northbrook, he came to Highland Park with his family in 1895, where he received his early training and education. He was a member of the first graduating class from Deerfield-Shields High school (now Highland Park High school). He attended law school, and for many years has been engaged in the investment brokerage business. He married Miss Vera Voss of Chicago.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Ed. Sullivan's mortuary in Chicago. Burial was in Memorial Park cemetery.

Mr. Conrad is survived by his wife Vera Voss, two daughters, Laverne of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Arlene Davidson of Chicago, one grandson, Holly Dale, a sister, Mrs. Helen Golden of this city and two brothers, Matthias H. of Highland Park and George F. of Lake Worth, Fla.

"June Mad" Will Be Presented May 11th At H. P. High School

June! The fellas home from college! Parties! That's enough to make any 15 year old girl want to spout poetry, even a girl who has always been a confirmed tom-boy. At least that's how it is in "June Mad," the spring play in rehearsal at Highland Park High school. The play, a comedy which shows several days in a girl's life, when she passes from childhood into womanhood, will be given in the high school auditorium Saturday, May 11.

Those in the cast are Dorothy Wright, David Johnson, Beverly Frisbie, Edwin Gilroy, Fred Bangs, June Schlung, Alice Adamson, Arthur Flint, Ted Peters, Robert Johnson, Betty Wedell, Milan Cobble, Beverly Date who find some of the situations in the play identical to some they have encountered in their own high school years.

The backstage crews have been selected from the Drama class and construction on the set has started. Written by Student.

Judge C. L. Brown Is Guest Speaker Of Highwood Lions

Judge Clarence L. Brown of Waukegan will be the guest speaker at the regular weekly luncheon-meeting of the Highwood Lions club on Thursday (today) at noon at the Pagoda. He will speak on the subject of "Delinquency."

An open meeting of the Highwood Lions club will be held on Wednesday evening, May 1, at 6:30 p.m. at the Pagoda. At 8 o'clock a movie "Know Your Money" will be shown through the courtesy of Mr. Thomas J. Callaghan, supervising agent of the Chicago office of the United States Secret Service to which the public is invited. The Treasury Department has authorized the United States Secret Service to show this educational film throughout the country as an aid to crime prevention. The picture is intended to instruct citizens against the dangers of counterfeit money and government check forgery.
