BAKKE-BLATCHFORD WEDDING

Miss Maude Alethe Bakke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans T. Bakke became the bride of Dr. Frank W. Blatchford Jr., at a lovely wedding ceremony Saturday afternoon at four o'clock in the chapel of Christ church, Winnetka. Dr. Ashley Gerhard, long-time friend of the groom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Wickes Blatchford, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of cream satin with a bodice rosepoint, and her veil, too, was trimmed with rosepoint heirloom lace. Instead of a bridal bouquet, she carried her mother's white satin prayerbook.

Mildred Bakke, the bride's sister, and Joyce Berry, the bridegroom's niece, were the bridesmaids, wearing white chiffon gowns and little caps of bachelor buttons, tied to their heads with blue ribbons. They carried round bouquets of gardenias.

Lt. Walter Blatchford, here with his wife from his post at Norfolk, Va., was best man for his brother, and their brother-in-law, Charles D. Rudolph, and John Davis ushered at the small family wedding. Afterward the Bakkes gave the reception at the Georgian Hotel in Evanston. When Dr. and Mrs. Blatchford return from a three weeks' honeymoon in the East they will live in Winnetka.
