Three Good Pictures At Deerpath Theatre

The latest in motion picture teams is made up of two of the day's leading celebrities, Charles Laughton and Vivien Leigh, currently co-starring in "Sidewalks of London," Paramount's comedy drama about life in the stage door world of a great metropolis. Others in the cast of "Sidewalks of London," which plays Thursday and Friday, May 9 and 10, at the Deerpath theatre, are Rex Harrison, Tyrone Guthrie and Larry Adler.

With Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour and Bob Hope topping the cast, aided by Charles Coburn, Judith Barrett, Anthony Quinn and Jerry Colonna, "Road to Singapore," Paramount's new comedy with a heavy accent on music, comes to the Deerpath Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, May 11, 12, 13 and 14.

"Three Cheers for the Irish," a warm-hearted, captivating story of the ups and downs in the lives of a typical Irish-American family, will be presented Wednesday and Thursday, May 15 and 16. Heading the cast are such folk as Priscilla Lane, Thomas Mitchell, Dennis Morgan, and Alan Hale—all of whom trace their lineage back to old Erin.

Charming Belles Of Deerfield Show New Spring Styles

Pretty girls modeled perky cottons and silks to charm the women of Holy Cross church, Deerfield, at the Altar and Rosary society luncheon and card party given Thursday. They were led by Betty Clavey and Marilyn Gooder, co-chairmen of the fashion show.

Miss Clavey wore a gray and yellow "square dance" street dress, typical of next summer's gay, washable fashions. The long-sleeved shirt-waist blouse was in canary yellow, the full skirt gay with canary stripes. Perfect for dress, resort wear or business, it drew applause from the 250 women who attended the party.

Villa pajamas, another name for the new soft slacks and shirt, were modeled by Ta Meister. The South American red and yellow combination was used to design a yellow blouse, red paisley print slacks, with a teal blue cummerbund.

A new idea in collar and cuff sets appeared on a navy blue dress, trimmed with gay eyelet embroidery at throat and wrist. Fun to wear were the promotion dresses, printed with Greyhound bus and Planters Peanuts emblems.

Tops in practicality was a blue striped chambray pinafore, buttoned down the back, with a sash and wide skirt of unpressed pleats. A variety of pretty blouses might be worn to vary the outfit.

Other attractive garments modeled by the young women were a summer wool suit in yellow with gold buttons, a pale coral and white sweater and turban set, a long-torso blue polka dot silk suit, and a quaint flower striped cotton dress.

Mrs. Irving Brand was stunning in a navy blue with dainty white V-neck collar, and white buttons down the front.

The mannequins were Marian Bjork, Mrs. E. F. Nelson, Mrs. Pat Harrington, Miss Muriel Hilborn, Miss Meister, Miss Gooder and Miss Clavey.

Mrs. Alex Willman was the general chairman of the party.

Display Dahlia Which Bloomed In McDougall Home

Mrs. John McDougall of 522 N. Green Bay road is displaying a miniature red dahlia which has bloomed in her basement without soil, at the Community Service Grocery on Central avenue, this week.

Last Fall after the close of the blooming season, Mrs. McDougall had her gardener, Eddie Novak, place her dahlia bulbs in a basket to be stored for the winter.

A few weeks ago it was discovered that one of the bulbs had developed roots and within a short time a stem measuring 10 inches grew from the bulb bearing a blossom and two leaves. There are also two smaller shoots coming from the bottom.

This is a very rare coincidence according to local florists, and quite an unusual sight to see at this time of the year.
