LENZINI-GRANDI NUPTIALS

At a high mass at the St. James church on Saturday morning, Eja Lenzini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Battista Lenzini of 86 Prairie avenue, became the bride of Elio Grandi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Grandi, 346 Ashland avenue. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and the ceremony was performed by Father Ward.

The bride was gowned in white satin and carried calla lilies. She was attended by Mary Pedrucci as maid of honor, Margaret Gribbin, bridesmaid, and Mrs. Savina Grandi served as matron of honor. White satin with lace and white snapdragons and white sweet peas formed the attire of the bride's attendants. Little Betty Lou Grandi was flower girl.

Serving the groom as best man was Armando Lenzini, and Arthur Grandi served as usher. A dinner and reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, with dancing following.

SAME STAFF TO RETAIN CITY JOBS

At the regular semi-monthly meeting of the city council all the old officials were reappointed by Mayor Charles Portilia for 1940-41, with the confirmation of the rest of the city council.

The list includes Chief of Police John DeSmidt, Superintendent of Waterworks Floyd Peterson, Superintendent of Streets Leo DiPalma, City Collector Thomas Russell, Jr., and City Attorney Bernard J. Juron. The council also approved the mayor's suggestion that Vince Ghini be added to the police department and Ray Unbehaun be named city health inspector "as soon as funds are available." Both men were discharged last fall in an economy drive.

All chairmen of the city council committees were retained except in one instance. Alderman Paul Pagliai was named chairman of the license committee to supplant alderman John M. Simpson.

Among those who underwent surgery at the Victory Memorial hospital in Waukegan last week were

LIONS CLUB AWARD SCOUT HEUSTIS

Last Wednesday evening at a special meeting of the Highwood Lions club, Jack Heustis of Scout Troop 36 of Highwood was presented with a combination hatchet and knife by Paul Gruber of the United States Secret Service department.

Scoutmaster Ernest Santi donated the award to the boy who was chosen as the outstanding scout in the troop. The choice was a difficult one to make, as all of the boys were working hard for the award. Taken into consideration were attendance, cleanliness, attention to uniform, equipment, winning of merit badges, and payment of dues. Also introduced to the club was the newly organized Scout Troop 34, which is being sponsored by the Lions.

The members and guests were entertained by a movie on how to detect counterfeit coins and bills entitled "Know Your Money," which was presented by Paul Gruber of the Secret Service division.

The dance given last Saturday evening by the Juniors of the Italian Women's Prosperity club was reported as a big success, by Miss Helen Minorini, social chairman of the organization. During intermission the attendants were entertained by the singing of Miss Helen Milano, and Miss Jasmine Sesso playing the accordion.
