MARY LISKE-FRED MEIERHOFF WED

On Tuesday, May 14, Mary Theresa Liske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Liske, became the bride of Fred Hugh Meierhoff, son of Mrs. Mae Meierhoff of Highwood. The wedding took place at 10:30 a.m. at a high mass in the St. James church, with Father Gleason officiating. He was assisted by Father Rothermel of St. Johns, Ind., who is a relative of Mr. Liske's. The bride was given away in marriage by her father. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was given at the home of the bride's parents with about 30 guests attending.

The bride wore a powder blue crepe redingote with white accessories, and a corsage of lilies of the valley and pink carnations. Frances Liske was bridesmaid, and she was attired in a dusty pink redingote with white accessories. Her corsage was composed of sweet peas and bachelor buttons.

Serving the groom as best man was Walter Meierhoff. A reception was held in the evening at the home of the Gorge Liske's for their many friends and relatives. Among those attending the wedding breakfast were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meierhoff Jr. and Sr., Father Rothermel, Father Ward, Father Gleason, the George Liskes of Barrington, Mr. and Mrs. Teutwiller of Evanston, Agnes Meierhoff, Marion Moon, Emmett Garrity, Mr. and Mrs. Umberhaun, Mrs. Johnson, who is Mrs. Liske's mother, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter O'Neill of Northbrook. Following a short honeymoon in Kentucky, the young couple will make their home in the Borchardt apartments in Highland Park.

Miss Grace Berndotti was feted at a miscellaneous shower Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Roy Russell. Hostesses at the shower were Mrs. George Liske, Mrs. Harry Burke, and Mrs. Roy Russell. Mis Berndotti is to be married this coming Saturday to Tom Russell of this city.

A group of friends entertained at a miscellaneous shower last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Frances Andrews, who is to be married on Saturday to Ted Benvenuti.

Dick Sals of Chicago spent his spring vacation last week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Sals of this city.

Mr. Joe Melchurri of Joliet is visiting his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Melchurri of Prairie avenue this week.

PROSPERITY CLUB MEETING CHANGED

Announcement has been made by President Mary Somenzi that the regular meeting of the Italian Women's Prosperity club has been changed to Tuesday evening, May 28. This is due to the fact that their regular meeting night would otherwise fall on May 30, which is Decoration Day.

Mrs. Alex DeBartoli was hostess to her bridge club on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Wysocky and Mrs. Reilly held winning scores.

The Neon Sign Bowling team of the Junior League, who have held first honors all season, closed the season last week still in first place. Members of the team are Ray Fini, Nello Campagni, Ed Cowgill, Cap Capitani, and Scotty Scowgton.

The baptism of little John Everett

Ugasti, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ugasti, took place Sunday afternoon at the St. James church. The godparents were Miss Joy Easterly and Mr. Charles Ugasti, both of Chicago. Father Ward officiated at the ceremony.

Louis Young, 400 Waukegan avenue, was a patient at the Victory Memorial hospital in Waukegan last week for a tonsillectomy.

May 20 to 24 inclusive are the dates designated as open house for the Adult Education class in Highwood, as well as in other cities in the county and state. The teachers and pupils will welcome all visitors.

Mayor Charles Portilia reappointed Patrolman Vincent Ghini to the Highwood police force last week. He rides the motorcycle in the daytime traffic detail. Ghini had been laid off last fall during an economy move.

Mrs. Diana Bosselli was guest of honor at a stork shower given on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Bernice Stipe.

Ambrose J. Wyrick, concert tenor, was the guest speaker at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Highwood Lions club held last Thursday in the Highwood Pagoda. His subject was "Relations of Music to Business," and included experiences gained in several globe-circling trips.

The junior members of the Italian Woman's Prosperity club will meet tonight (Thursday) at the Labor Temple.

BRUNO SOMENZI HEADLINES WITH TWO WINS

Turning in the first winning game of the season, and several days later being credited with another winner, Bruno Somenzi was headlined in the Grand Forks, South Dakota, Journal. After the team lost the first game of the season, Somenzi pitched the second game for a victory of 5 to 3. He was credited with 12 strikeouts in this game.

Several days later he was sent in as relief hurler in the last half of the sixth inning, when they were on the losing end. The team won this game with a final score of 14 to 9, and he was credited with the victory.

His double, which scored two runs, helped him chalk up his second victory in five games played by the team.

PLANS FOR HIGHWOOD MOVIE NEAR COMPLETION

Tryouts to choose a hero, heroine and about twenty supporting actors and actresses for the Highwood Lions club full-length, color film, "We're in the Movies," started this week.

A professional director from the Rogers Producing Company arrived on Sunday to confer with committee heads led by general chairman Otto F. Fisher. Cameramen and equipment will begin work as soon as the cast is selected.

Announcement has been made of the wedding of Miss Mary Dexter to Mr. Lencioni of this city on Tuesday, May 14. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents in Teutopolis.

Mrs. Raymond Roth was hostess to her card club last Thursday evening.
