

H. P. Choral Club Discusses Plans for Fall Term Wednesday

Wednesday, May 15, was a festive occasion for the Highland Park Choral club, who met at the Y. W. C. A. for supper and their final meeting of this term.

Adopt Resolution Of Creative Writer

"Resolves of a Creative Writing Student" evolved by Jeanette K. Hotchkiss (Mrs. Eugene Hotchkiss) were so approved by writing members of the group that they were adopted as a creed when she presented them at the final session of the class on Thursday morning.

ing on the "inspiration" theory which applies to only the very few. To learn the rules of the game, it only to be able to break them intelligently.

To develop a sense of drama. To cultivate habits of observation and note-taking. To continue the study of verse for the sake of ear training and vocabulary enrichment.

To seek guidance and discipline in a stimulating group. To serve a patient, hard-working apprenticeship before expecting remuneration.

To find in creative writing—creative living. Mrs. Hotchkiss is one of the members of the group producing both stories and verse.

NINE A.M. The vesper hour in a monastery Is no more peaceful in its holy mood Than is this hour when Mother, solitary,

But for this breathing spell that comes at nine She thanks the gods who plot her course diurnal, And serves herself, in quietude benign,

It has become an interesting game to recognize contributions of class members. The Milwaukee Journal of June 3rd is scheduled to carry a McClure syndicated story of Mrs. Lester Olson written under her pen name.

Defeat Waukegan In First Game 4-0

Harry Skidmore, former Big Ten pitching star held the Waukegan Merchants to six scattered hits and shut them out 4 to 0, last Sunday at the Highland Park High school field.

Stellar fielding was done by "Big John" Rogan, a new starter at the second base position. Rogan, a very versatile ball player, formerly played at first base and once was a pitching sensation at the Highland Park High school where he turned in a no hit performance.

Next Sunday the Y.M.C. faces Dack's K. of L., a very strong aggregation from Waukegan. The game is to be held at the High school field and is scheduled to start at 2:45 o'clock.

Plan Summer Play School at Y.W.C.A.

There has been interesting and successful Nursery School conducted at the Y.W.C.A. and as time is at hand for the season to close, plans are being formulated for a Summer Play School for children from 3 to 6 years of age.

dren and from 9 to 11:30 every morning except Saturday and Sunday there will be interesting and constructive activities carried on.

The first term will begin on June 17 and mothers are urged to register their children promptly, in order to be sure to secure a place for them.

Mrs. Kathryn Wiggins, who is a graduate of the National College of Education in Evanston, will conduct the Play School and be in charge of it.

Two Weeks Remain To Purchase Series Season Tickets

With the closing date for season subscription sale to the North Shore Series only two weeks off, North Shore residents are urged to mail in reservations immediately to Box 584, Highland Park.

Although the series opens with Miss Anderson's appearance on October 27, the sponsors of the programs are anxious to close the complete season subscription sale by June 1.

The price for season reservations represent a substantial saving for those wishing to attend more than one of the programs on the series.

Give History of Poppy—Urge One For Every Coat

How a simple little wild flower became a symbol of exalted sacrifice was described by Mrs. Inez Hamlin, American Legion Auxiliary chairman at Highland.

"The wild poppy of France and Flanders was the one touch of nature's beauty which survived amid the death and destruction of the battle front," said Mrs. Hamlin.

"Colonel John McCrae, of the Canadian forces, saw the brave little flowers and wrote: 'In Flanders fields the poppies blow, between the crosses row on row—,' giving immortal expression to the idea.

"Poppies were first worn in America in tribute to the war dead on November 9, 1918, two days before the Armistice, when Miss Loina Michael, of Athens, Georgia, distributing poppies at the Y.M.C.A. headquarters in New York City.

H.P. High School Approved by North Center Association

For the 32nd consecutive year, the North Central association has placed the Highland Park High school on the list of approved secondary schools.

This means that our graduates will be accepted without examination by all colleges except those that require college entrance board examinations of everyone.

To be approved by the North Central association, a school must conform to certain standards and rules formulated in the interest of better education.

Before a school is placed on the approved list it is inspected by a group of special examiners. These men check on such things as the quality of the teaching, equipment, variety of subjects offered, size of the classes, length of the periods, and the size of the library.
