BERNDOTTI-RUSSELL WEDDING

On Saturday morning Miss Grace Berndotti became the bride of Tom Russell Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Russell of Highwood. Miss Berndotti is the sister of Mrs. George Yeary of Evolution avenue.

ANDREWS-BENVENUTI NUPTIALS

Miss Frances Andrews of Glen- coe and Ted Benvenuti of this city exchanged marriage vows on Satur- day morning before Justice of the Peace Sam Smith. The bride, who wore a blue suit and white acces- sories, was attended by Nettie Lar- son. The groom was attended by Roy Gherardini of Waukegan. After a short honeymoon in Centralia, the couple are making their home in Highwood.

Mrs. Mary Bernardini and daugh- ter-in-law, Dolores, spent the week- end visiting friends and relatives in Spring Valley, Ill.

Mrs. Amelia Juhrend left last week for an extended visit with her son in California.

Members of the Italian Women's Prosperity club are asked to please remember the change in date for their regular meeting. Due to Thurs- day being Decoration Day, the meet- ing has been advanced two days to Tuesday, May 28.

On Sunday afternoon little John Joseph Peradotti, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Peradotti of Morgan place, was christened at the St. James church. The godparents were Mr. and Mrs. Attilio Gandolfi.

The Highwood Lions club met Wednesday evening at the Pagoda for their regular weekly meeting.

Following the meeting they were entertained with several dance routines presented by pupils of Miss Agnes Daly. Those appearing in the program were: Arline Abernathy, Mary Casario, Ruth Hueckler, Mar- sha Williams, Lillian Dinelli, Le- nore Bernardi, Harriet Hulverson, Georgia Ann Glader, Barbara Perry, June Christenson, Barbara Tay- lor, Carol Sleeman, Sally Hawkins, Shirley Capitani, and Ruth Peddle. Several selections were also pre- sented by Miss Daly.

Little Jimmy Webster, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Webster, was con- fined to his home last week due to illness.

HIGHWOOD UNIT TO HOLD POPPY DAY

The Highwood Stupey Smith unit of the American Legion auxiliary will hold their annual poppy day on Wednesday, May 27. The money will be used to help children of dead and disabled veterans, and maintain the auxiliary child welfare activities during the coming year, announces Mrs. John Doull, child welfare chair- man. Much of it will go towards aid to families left dependent by the death or disability of a veteran, helping keep the home together until permanent means of support can be found, and keeping the children in school.

Also poppy poster contests were held in both St. James and Oak Ter- race schools. First and second prizes were awarded in each division. Win- ners in the first division were: first, Jerry Muzik, 6th grade, St. James; second, Rosa Larruso, 5th grade, Oak Terrace; and honorable men- tion went to Guy Viti Jr., St. James school, 4th grade. In the second di- vision first prize went to Ray West- gard, 7th grade, Oak Terrace, and second prize, Leonard Favelli, 8th grade, Oak Terrace school. Also honorable mention was given to Geo. Lindstrom, 8th, Oak Terrace school. The judges in the contest were Nick Frigo and Harvey Reber.

Wednesday and Thursday eve- nings of this week marks open house for the Adult Education class held at 117 Highwood avenue. Friends and those interested in its work are invited to visit the classes.

BELLARMINE CLUB SPONSOR DANCE

This Saturday evening, May 25, marks the fourth annual dance sponsored by the Bellarmine club at the Arlington Country club. Red Ed- wards gay band will furnish the music and dancing will start promptly at 9:00.

On the committee working hard to make the dance a success are Dor- othy Boylan, Jack Witten, Betty Schmidt, Doris Rafferty, Ambrose Cantagello, Ruth Moroney and Ed- ward Brown. Tickets may be pur- chased from any member or at the club entrance.

On Thursday morning Mr. and Mrs. P. Innocenzi renewed their marriage vows at a pretty ceremony at the St. James church, in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anni- versary. Following the ceremony open house was held for their many friends. On Sunday they entertained at a dinner party for close friends and relatives, followed by holding open house again.

This week marked the grand home coming for the Grand Forks, N. Dakota baseball team, with a huge parade and band display. Once again this city's home town lad, Bruno Somenzi, walked to the mound and pitched a 6-5 victory, this being his third win of the season. It also marked the sixth straight win for the baseball team.

Friends are keeping a watchful eye on Bruno, hoping that he will go places this year in the baseball game.

Approximately 500 boy scouts in- cluding troops from Highwood and the North Shore area met at their annual camporal at East Turnbull Woods in Glencoe on Saturday and Sunday. Camps were pitched in the preserve and various scout games presented. On Saturday evening the Order of the Arrow of the National Camp Fraternity put on its "Calling Out" ceremony, receiving 15 men as honor members. Among them was Lloyd Moon of Highwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Carmin Ziccarelli of High street are the happy parents of a son born Monday, May 20, at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Magnani of High street are the proud parents of a son born Monday, May 20, at the Highland Park hospital.

Ridgewood Group To Hear "Gang Buster" At Annual Dinner

One of the highlights of the eve- ning, according to Milton Souther, president of the Ridgewood Park as- sociation, at the annual dinner of the organization to be held Satur- day evening, May 25, at the Brier- gate Country Club, will be the per- sonal appearance of Eugene Callender, former member of the national- ly notorious Decon Gang, later member of an ace group of federal gang busters, and present prominent head of the Illinois Employment Depart- ment for released convicts.

Mr. Callender will tell some of his thrilling experiences during the years he lived by the gun, and was sought by local and federal author- ities throughout the nation. He will relate something of the inside of prison life, and the part he played later as a lone hand, in avenging the death of his brother, by breaking up one of the country's most firmly en- trenching gangs of criminals.

He will appear as speaker at the annual Ridgewood Dinner Party which concludes the bridge tourna- ment conducted during the winter months and at which Mrs. Jos. Web- ster, chairman in charge, will award the several prizes to the winners.

Following the dinner there will be progressive bridge in the club lounge and for those who prefer there will be music and dancing in the club annex. All of the members resid- ing in the Ridgewood district bound- ed by Greenbay road, Grey avenue, Ridgewood place on the south and the North Western tracks on the east are invited and may arrange to bring guests.

Mrs. Robt. F. Timm is in charge of reservations and is being assist- ed by Mrs. Jack O'Connell in ar- rangements for the dinner. Others on the general committee in charge of the program are: Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Morrissey, Dr. J. O'Connell, Jos. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bless- ing, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Curotto and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Aiston.

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my deep appreci- ation for the expression of sym- pathy shown by Father Ward and my friends and the many kindnes- ses extended to me by the Highland Park hospital, its nurses, and the Seguin and Logan Funeral Home during my recent bereavement. — Mrs. Catherine Driscoll.

Benefit Tea Party For Scholarships To Summer Schools

A benefit tea party to raise funds for scholarships to Workers' Sum- mer Schools is to be held in the garden of Mrs. J. M. Spiegel, 140 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, on the afternoon of June 5. Mrs. George Carr and Mrs. James Stannard Baker of Highland Park are on the committee to sell tickets in this area.

There are three summer schools being sponsored by the Chicago Committee on Workers' Summer Schools one in New York, called the Hudson Shore Labor School which succeeds the Bryn Mawr school for women industrial workers. The School for Workers at the Uni- versity of Wisconsin which caters to both men and women industrial workers and a certain number of office workers, and the School for Office Workers held in Chicago.

All three schools aim to train students to a more active partici- pation in social action by teaching economics, social legislation, Eng- lish, parliamentary law and public speaking. Candidates for the schools are recommended by settlements, the Y.W.C.A., individuals and uni- ons. The school at the University of Wisconsin will open for its six- teenth session this summer.
