Memorial Day will be observed in both church and Sunday school. It may be just another holiday for a lot of people, but to the Christian citizens of America it is a day of great significance.

In the war of 1914 to 1918 we said that our boys fought to end all wars. That has been disproven, for today the world is engaged in another conflict. But might it not be true to this extent that our boys fought to keep America out of this present world war?

Go to your respective churches Sunday. Worship God and pray for peace. If you are home on Memorial Day, come out for the celebration sponsored by the Deerfield post of the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary.

Choir rehearsal Wednesday, 7:30 p.m.

Ahem...

Seen taking in the beauties of the Lake Forest Flower show were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Thomas . . . accompanied by one of the Laegelers . . . which one, don't ask. . . . The show was held on the former Albert D. Lasker estate, now the property of the University of Chicago. . . . John Guerini of Highwood is one of the crew in charge of the gardens there . . . the golf course there is reputed to be one of the best in the United States, if not the best.

In the French provincial manor, there is a relic taken from the grave of Lord Byron . . . given by the sexton to William Winter, the famous dramatic critic, when the burial place was opened to place the body of his daughter Ada there.

Speaking of an English author . . . Nello Ori was recently elected to join Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity, at Lake Forest college . . . several prose pieces won him the invitation . . . initiation will take place the latter part of May . . . the joke of it is that he
