Official Opening Of Local Golf Clubs Is Held This Week

The majority of golf clubs in this vicinity will hold their official opening over the coming week end, although golfers have been enjoying the facilities offered by the various courses for several weeks.

Sunset Valley club, the community course, will stage an 18 hole medal play handicap and an approaching and putting contest as the opening events on Thursday, Decoration day. The course is in excellent shape and many Highland Park golfers have availed themselves of early season golfing. Tom Kelly, professional, announces a class for young people Friday afternoons at 4 o'clock. Those youngsters between the ages of 7 and 14 are in-room for a larger number in the class.

The opening party at Exmoor Club will open the season Saturday evening with a dinner dance. The main golf season opens Thursday with the final 18 holes of the 54 hole Memorial Day Derby. Saturday the Army and Navy Cup Tournament will be held which is open to all members who served in either the Army or the Navy during the World War. Women's golf events began on Tuesday, May 16.

A dinner dance featuring Russ Morgan and his band will usher in the season's activities at Northmoor Country Club Saturday evening. Bob O'Link Golf Club held their spring opening on May 22, so that their golfing season is already under way.

Saturday Evening Club Dance at "Y"

The Saturday Evening club will hold their first dance since the club was formed at the "Y" on Saturday night, June 1, at 9 p. m. Young people in the community who would like to attend are very welcome, and tickets for either couples or single admission may be secured at the "Y" or from Mrs. Jim Lindsey, 4590, or Mrs. Bill Bjork 185. A fine time is anticipated and it is hoped there will be a good crowd on hand.

Play School Opens At Y.W.C.A. June 17

Mothers are reminded to register their little folks for the Summer Play school for children from 3 to 6 years old which will be conducted by a graduate of the National College of Education, Miss Kathryn Wiggins, at the Y.W.C.A. All types of creative and constructive work will be taught as well as nature study, and play periods will intersperse these activities. Monthly registration may be made now by calling the "Y".

Keep Fit and Modern With Dance at "Y"

On Monday night at 8 p. m., June 3, Miss Katherine Imig will start classes in keeping fit and also in modern dancing at the "Y" to which all who are interested are cordially invited. She has much experience in work of this kind and it is hoped many will take advantage of her expert instruction. There is to be a term of ten lessons at a very nominal charge, and registrations may be made now and any day hereafter at the "Y".

Mothers Club Will Hold Card Party Tuesday Evening

The Mothers' Club of the Y.W.C.A. will hold a card and bunco party Tuesday evening, June 4, at 8 p. m. at the Y.W. The proceeds of this party will go to the Juvenile Sunshine fund. There will be prizes and refreshments will be served. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The annual dinner of the Mothers' Club will be held June 11. Reservations must be made at the Y by Saturday, June 8. The election of officers will take place at the meeting after the dinner.

Santi Bros. Dairy Offers New Cash And Carry Service

Santi Brothers Dairy, who have served this community for the past thirty years, announces the opening of a cash and carry curb service at their plant located at 472 Deerfield avenue.

This new service offers the public a most convenient and economical service. It will also give their patrons an opportunity to inspect the new plant.

Under adverse conditions, this organization has been able to supply plenty of milk and cream so essential to the welfare of the sick and so necessary for children, during the recent wage dispute.

Rev. E. Frederickson Will Speak Sunday At Grace Methodist

Next Sunday, June 2, at Grace Methodist church, the sermon will be delivered by Rev. Eskil Frederickson of the Highwood Methodist church in the absence of Rev. Russell Carr. The morning worship will start at 10:30 with the sermon beginning at 11:45. Rev. Frederickson must finish in time to be at his own morning services.

Rev. Carr will be included with a class from Garratt Biblical Institute which will attend the Baccalaureate services at First church in Evanston.

Leaves Truck Here On Waukegan Jaunt

A truck belonging to James Hoyt, 36, 604 North Menard avenue, Chicago, was found parked on N. First street last Thursday morning after he had been reported missing from his home. Hoyt, who is a tree surgeon left his truck in Highland Park, while he went to Waukegan on a spree, where he was later arraigned in police court on a charge of drunkenness, disorderly conduct and destroying porperty.

It seems that James met some very convivial friends in a tavern in the neighboring city, and in trying to explain his interesting work to them, found it hard to describe without demonstrating. Consequently he produced a pocket knife and using a bar for his model, made several incisions, to the consternation and anger of the owner, who called the police to remove his patron.

Ray Shupe's Car Is Hit by Truck

Ray F. Brow, 904 S. Tenth street, Milwaukee, escaped injury Sunday evening when his trailer truck overturned at Routes 41 and 20, after hitting the rear of a car driven by Ray A. Shupe, 447 Glencoe avenue. Shupe, according to the sheriff's report, was driving south and was struck when he halted for the traffic signal at Route 20. After striking Shupe's car a glancing blow, Brow, who was also headed south continued across the intersection where his truck and trailer overturned.

Excellent Features At Deerpath Theatre

"I Take This Woman", a dramatic romance of New York life and society, brings Spencer Tracy and the glamorous Hedy Lamarr together as Hollywood's most unusual and interesting romantic team. The picture will be presented Wednesday and Thursday, May 29 and 30, at the Deerpath theatre. "Virginia City" starring Errol Flynn, Miriam Hopkins and Randolph Scott will be presented Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, May 31, June 1, 2 and 3. The cast includes Humphrey Bogart, Frank McHugh, Alan Hale, Guinn "Big Boy" Williams, and John Litel. The story of "Dr. Ehrlich's Magic Bullet", a film constructed along the same lines as "The Story of Louis Pasteur" comes to the Deerpath Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, June 4, 5 and 6. The pictures have a great deal in common in that they represent a new trend in the motion picture field, entertainment and service, but beyond this lies a highly interesting fact.
