CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Soul and Body" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 28.

The Golden Text was, "My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God" (Psalms 84:2).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard: Which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved" (Psalms 66:8, 9).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "As astronomy reverses the human perception of the movement of the solar system, so Christian Science reverses the seeming relation of Soul and body and makes body tributary to Mind. Thus it is with man, who is but the humble servant of the restful Mind, though it seems otherwise to finite sense. But we shall never understand this while we admit that soul is in body or mind in matter, and that man is included in non-intelligence. Soul, or Spirit, is God, unchangeable and eternal; and man coexists with and reflects Soul. God for man is God's Image" (p. 119).

The Altar and Rosary society will receive Holy Communion on Sunday at the 8:30 mass.

The Parish dinner is scheduled for July 14.

Former Resident And Her Book of Memoirs Honored

Many North Shore friends gathered for tea in honor of Mrs. Robert E. Gregory and her delightful memoirs that have just been published, Saturday afternoon in Winnetka. "A Great Grandmother Remembers" is the title of the book which is bound in gay chints, patterned after one of the author's favorite dresses. Mrs. Gregory who is a former Highland Park resident carried a pocketbook made from the remnants of that same cherished dress at the party held Saturday in the Chestnut Court Book Shop.

Although she has lived the greater part of her life in Chicago, it was this city that her late husband built their summer home, Legemere, which was located on the bluff, next to the old E. V. Price estate on S. Sheridan road. The old residence has since been torn down.

As a prominent member of Trinity Episcopal church, Mrs. Gregory presented an altar piece to that church, when it was newly built, in memory of her daughter Grace, who had met with a tragic death.

President Emeritus of Arden Shore camp, Mrs. Gregory was instrumental in its establishment, and has cherished an active interest in its activities, since.

Although over 80 years of age, Mrs. Gregory took a course in creative writing and then proceeded to produce a book of memoirs concerning a life of which more than 60 years had been spent in the same house, the once fashionable Prairie Ave., Chicago. She tells of her debut in 1878, and her wedding to Robert Gregory two years later and many other numerous and interesting events in her life.

To end her 230 pages of memories that cover 80 fascinating years in the life of Chicago and the lives and travels of one of its most interesting families, Mrs. Gregory quotes her contemporary, Daniel Burnham:

"Make no little plans; they have no magic to stir men's blood, and probably themselves will not be realized. Make big plans; aim high in hope and work, remembering that a noble, logical diagram once recorded will never die but long after we are gone will be a living thing, asserting itself with ever-growing insistency. Remember that our sons and grandsons are going to do things that would stagger us. Let your watchword be order, and your beacon beauty."

Oppose Trade Barrier As Great Menace To Internal Economy

The Illinois League of Women Voters at its Twentieth Anniversary Convention at the Shoreland hotel last week went on record as opposed to local and interstate trade barriers. In explaining this action, Mrs. Maurice A. Pollak, of Highland Park, chairman of the Department of Government and Economic Welfare, pointed out that since the depression an alarming number and variety of trade restrictions, such as the establishment of ports of entry, embargoes, discriminatory taxes, inspection laws, and motor vehicle regulations, have been adopted in many states. Mrs. Pollack called this "Balkanization" of what was formerly the largest free trade area in the world, as the greatest present menace to the internal economy of the United States. She said that this is of peculiar concern to the League of Women Voters because in the end the consuming public inevitably pays the bill.

Spring's Bestitudes

Spring's bestitudes: Blessed is the dog owner who keeps his dog at home; he shall enjoy the good will of his neighbors. Blessed is the dog owner who takes his pet inside at night, so that it may not disturb the sleep of his neighbors; he shall enjoy the gratitude of his neighbors. Blessed is the dog owner who refuses to tie his dog outside and go away for an evening of pleasure while his neighbors are in distress; he shall receive the plaudits of his neighbors. Blessed is the dog owner who realizes that his dog is for his own pleasure and that the neighbors do not have an all-enveloping love for the animal. He shall be proclaimed by his neighbors. Blessed is the dog owner who looks with dismay and genuine regret upon his neighbor's flowers broken and destroyed by his cherished pooch; eventually he shall see the light. Blessed is the dog owner who holds some conception of the amount of time, labor and money involved in the cultivation of flowers and shrubs by neighbors interested in the appearance of the neighborhood and either sends his dog to some place where it can have freedom without being destructive, or provides a fenced runway on his own premises. His neighbors shall rise up and call him blessed, and he shall inherit the kingdom of heaven.
