"Primrose Path" Is Featured at Deerpath Theatre

Again displaying her versatility on the screen, Ginger Rogers forsakes her dancing shoes and comedy proclivities to portray a starkly dramatic role in "Primrose Path," in which she co-stars with Joel McCrea. Marjorie Rambeau, Henry Travers, Miles Mander and Queenie Vassar appear in important supporting roles. The picture will be presented at the Deerpath theatre Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, July 3, 4, and 5.

For the first time in three years Clark Gable and Joan Crawford, who have co-starred with memorable success in five films in the past, team again in "Strange Cargo," which comes to the Deerpath Saturday and Sunday, July 6 and 7. In the supporting cast are a group of the most distinguished character actors in Hollywood: Ian Hunter, Peter Lorre, Paul Lukas, Albert Dekker, J. Edward Bromberg, Eduardo Ciannelli, and John Arledge.

The gay, romantic days of the turn of the century, when Victor Herbert ruled Broadway and the stars of his famed operettas were the toast of all New York, come back to life on film in "The Great Victor Herbert," Paramount's musical romance based on the private life of America's great composer, playing at the Deerpath theatre Monday and Tuesday, July 8 and 9.

Local Women Take Active Part in State League Work

Ever since its organization 20 years ago, the Illinois League of Women Voters has prepared for the mobilization of all citizens for the militant defense of democracy. At its June meeting the State board of directors announced its purpose to help more people understand our democracy and practice it.
It is interesting to know that Highland Park is extremely well and capably represented in the work of the State league, whose officers for this year are: Mrs. George G. Bogert of Chicago, president; Mrs. J. W. Albright of Urbana, Mrs. O. N. Foreman of Jacksonville, Mrs. E. W. McCreedy of Oak Park, Mrs. W. W. Ramsey of Chicago, Mrs. Raymond S. Simons of Highland Park, and Mrs. Clifton M. Utley of Chicago, vice presidents; Mrs. Joe Patterson Smith of Jacksonville, secretary; Mrs. Robert C. McNamara of Winnetka, treasurer. The following department chairmen whose appointments have just been ratified include Mrs. Maurice A. Pollak of Highland Park, government and economic welfare; Mrs. Gordon Fillingham of Pontiac, government and education; Mrs. Jasper King of Winnetka, government and its operation; Miss Ellen M. Yockey of Taylorville, government and the legal status of women; Mrs. Florence Fifer Bohrer of Bloomington, government and social welfare; and Mrs. Paul Douglas of Chicago, government and foreign policy.
Other chairmen recently appointed include: Mrs. Frank P. Hixon of Lake Forest, legislation; Mrs. Egbert Jacobson of Chicago, nominations and elections; Mrs. Raymond S. Knapp of Chicago, organization; Mrs. Ralph B. Treadway of Glen Ellyn, policy; Mrs. Philip Ringer of Highland Park, city manager petition; Mrs. David M. Cox of Chicago, radio; Mrs. C. J. Wiegman of Maywood, editor of The Illinois Voter; and Mrs. Raymond S. Simons of Highland Park, publicity.

Mrs. Daniel Murphy Resident Here Since 1866 Passes Away

Mrs. Honora Flynn Murphy, aged 76, of 444 Lincoln place, died Thursday in the Highland Park hospital, following a few day's illness.
Mrs. Murphy had been a resident of Highland Park since 1866. Her first home was a log cabin, located just south of the Fort Sheridan woods. She often told friends of being able to read her Bible by the light of the Chicago fire.

Wife of the late Daniel Murphy, she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Bessie Picchetti, and five sons, Martin, Edward, Lyman, Howard and James, all of this city.
Funeral services were held Saturday morning at 7 a.m. from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Picchetti, to St. James church. Burial was in Calvary cemetery.

Mrs. Cobb Again Wins Cash Prize

Mrs. Daniel Cobb, 284 E. Park ave., winner of several prize awards is again a winner. On Thursday evening, June 27th she learned that she had received a $50 cash prize in the Carune-O musical quiz game broadcast over station WGN every Thursday from 7:30 to 8:15 p.m.

Mrs. Cobb was awarded this prize for writing an original sentence describing National Food store, sponsors of the program. Previously she had received a bag of groceries for correctly identifying a number of tunes played on the program by Harold Stokes and his WGN dance orchestra.
