

Heard in Deerfield

RUTH PETTIS, Representative

Telephone Deerfield 485

ALMON FROST AT ANNAPOLIS

Almon Frost, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Frost of 759 Osterman avenue, Deerfield, was called to Annapolis, Md., yesterday (July 3) to complete the examinations. Almon was appointed as an alternate for the appointment and as the others selected for that place had not passed the examination, he was called for his final tests this week. Almon completed his freshman year at Marquette U. in Milwaukee and received his number "43" in both football and basketball, and returned home several weeks ago. The many friends of the lad hope for his success.

SCOUTS AND FLAGS

The Deerfield Boy Scouts will have charge of the flags in the business district. They will see that they are put up and taken down on each holiday and for special local celebrations. There are twelve days in the year when the flag should be flown:

- Feb. 12—Lincoln's Birthday.
 - Feb. 22—Washington's Birthday.
 - April 19—Battle of Lexington.
 - May 30—Memorial Day.
 - June 14—Flag Day.
 - June 17—Battle of Bunker Hill.
 - July 4—Independence Day.
 - Oct. 12—Columbus Day.
 - Oct. 17—Battle of Saratoga.
 - Oct. 19—Surrender of York Town.
 - Nov. 11—Armistice Day.
 - Nov. 25—Evacuation Day.
- On Memorial Day the flag is flown at half-mast until noon and then at full mast until sunset.

ACCIDENT

V. A. Spaulding of Mayflower road, Lake Forest turned off of Waukegan road, at the north limits of Deerfield, early last Thursday morning and attempted to cross the railroad tracks where Telegraph road crosses to go into Bannockburn. His car missed the regular crossing and became locked between the rails. Mr. Spaulding got out of his car in time to avoid being struck by a freight train. The train removed the bumper and fenders from the auto. Mr. Spaulding was taking the Bannockburn route to avoid the narrow road on North Waukegan road. Trains on the Milwaukee Road were delayed for an hour until the automobile could be dislodged from the tracks.

CHURCH FESTIVAL

The Holy Cross Catholic church will hold its annual summer festival beginning Friday, July 12 and continuing until Sunday evening. The women of the church will serve chicken dinners on Sunday, an annual event for which they are noted and adept. All sorts of attractions are being planned to make the affair successful.

WEDDING

Friday, June 28, at 4 p.m. at St. Paul's church, Rev. F. G. Piepenbrock officiating, Mr. George S. Walter and Miss Antoinette C. Hahn, both of Chicago. Attended by Mr. Harry C. Wolcott Sr. of Niles Center and Miss Ellen Falkenberg of Chicago.

ST. PAUL'S CIRCLE PLANS CARD PARTY

A public luncheon-card party will be sponsored by Circle One of St. Paul's church, Deerfield, on Thursday, July 11, at 1 o'clock in the church recreation rooms. There will be tables for bridge, 500, pinochle and buncos, with table and door prizes. Mrs. Minnie Whitcomb is chairman of the party and will be assisted by all members of Circle One.

David Trute, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Trute of Wilmot road, had a most unlucky day last Wednesday. Just after his breakfast he discovered that a dog or dogs had killed all his rabbits during the night. He buried his pets and then went over to his cousin's home to play. In doing a Tarzan stunt from one of the trees he fell fifteen feet to the ground and fractured his wrist. His aunt, Mrs. Roy Clavey, took him to the Highland Park hospital where his left arm was set and put into a cast. Mrs. Trute reached the hospital shortly afterwards and remained with him until he returned home. David is 13 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tibbetts returned to their home on North Chestnut street the latter part of the week from Detroit, Mich., where they had been visiting Mrs. Tibbetts' parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Schoemaker. The Tibbetts attended the golden wedding anniversary party of Mr. Tibbetts' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Tibbetts on Sunday at the Paul Gorbey home in Evanston.

Mrs. Fred Siljstrom was hostess to members of her contract bridge club on Thursday at the Open House tearoom in Highland Park. Mrs. Anne Daniels will entertain the club next Thursday at the Indian Trail tearoom in Winnetka.

Mrs. Carl Olson was hostess to Presbyterian Circle Three on Friday at luncheon at her home on Greenwood avenue. The July meeting will be entertained by Dr. Dorothy Davis at the Davis cabin at Fox Lake.

The first of the union services of the three Deerfield Protestant churches is scheduled for August 18 at the Bethlehem church with Rev. F. G. Piepenbrock in the pulpit.

Mrs. Earl Kress of Rutherford, New Jersey, spent the past week at the home of Mr. Kress' sister, Mrs. Alex Willman.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Kress and two daughters, Mrs. Robert Green-slade and Mrs. Elmer L. Clavey, have returned from an automobile trip to Fargo, N. D.

Miss Rose O'Connor, daughter of the late James O'Connor, is staying at the home of Mrs. Catherine Pratt Green of North Waukegan road.

Mrs. W. M. Clark will entertain the Just Sew club on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Deerfield road.

Miss Vera Reichelt and her niece, Miss Winnifred Wright of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. H. A. Smith (Faith Reichelt) and little daughter, Martha Ann of Wilmette, Mrs. Robert E. Pettis and son, Bobby, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Anderson in Highland Park. Miss Reichelt and her niece, had just returned from a trip thru Canada and the East. Miss Wright will entertain her freshman year at Dennison university at Granville, O., this fall.

Deerfield will enjoy a safe and sane Fourth of July, as village ordinances prohibit the sale of fireworks. It is reported that several Chicago physicians are considering the former C. B. Easton house, now the home of Mrs. Margaret Warner on South Waukegan road, as a site for a small hospital. Mrs. Warner remodelled the house beautifully for the Open House tearoom after she bought it several years ago, but has closed her tearoom here when Highland Park beckoned her and induced her to move into the Green Tea Pot, this spring. The location would be ideal for a hospital.

Mrs. Charles V. Steiner was hostess to members of the Friday afternoon bridge club last week. Mrs. Earl Frost of Osterman avenue will be hostess to the club on July 12.

The Independent Social club is meeting on Wednesday, July 10, at the home of Mrs. William Hanner of County Line road.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peterson and daughter, Doris-Jean, are on a three weeks vacation trip to Yellowstone National Park and other western places of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peterson and children of Highland Park are staying at the Ward Gauntlett home while their home on Brierhill road is being built. The Gauntletts are at Saugatuck, Mich. Mrs. Peterson is Mrs. Arthur Goelitz' sister.

Andrew Timson, who attends Fountain Valley school at Colorado Springs, Colo., is home for his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Timson of Wilmot road.

Mrs. Marguerite Edison and daughter of Onaway, Mich., have been visiting at the Arthur Kaatz home on Warrington road.

Mrs. R. F. Grohe and son, Richard, have gone east for a month's visit with relatives in Fitchburg, Mass.

The Mutual club met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Margaret Plagge of Elm street.

Mrs. James A. Curtis of Osterman avenue, spent the past week visiting in Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huhn and children moved from Highland Park to the home of Mrs. Beardsley on Osterman avenue on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Schwab were hosts at a party on Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Schwab's birthday anniversary, at their home on Chestnut street.

Mrs. Arthur Johnson was hostess at three tables of bridge on Friday afternoon at her home on Hazel avenue. The Evangelical Daughters of St. Paul's church have divided their members into small groups and each group is asked to give a party for the benefit of the circle, so Mrs. Johnson's party was the beginning of a series of parties. A large birthday cake was cut at the party for Mrs. Oscar Schwab.

Another golf meet for men of the Holy Cross church was held on Monday evening at the Briergate Golf club. The men adjourned their golf playing at dark and had their business meeting and social hour at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norton and daughter, Elizabeth Lu, of Harvey, Ill., were Sunday guests at the Fred Meyer home.

The Altar and Rosary society of the Holy Cross church met on Tuesday evening preceding the usual weekly devotional service. Mrs. Alex Willman is president.

There will be no meeting of the Deerfield Townsend Club until Tuesday, July 16, as the National Townsend convention is convening this week in St. Louis.

Mrs. James Mailfald was hostess to members of Circle One of St. Paul's church on Thursday afternoon at her home in Wilmot road.

Mrs. Amanda Wilke of Wisconsin is visiting her sister, Mrs. Samuel Rockenbach of Springfield avenue.

Mrs. Ross Sherman and their two daughters and husbands, Mr. and Mrs. George Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ward and the George Ward's little daughter, Joyce, attended a farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. August Mueller of Foley, Ala., on Saturday evening at the Lincoln Mueller home in Wilmette.

Mrs. Sherman and Mrs. Mueller are sisters. The party also was in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mr. Lincoln Mueller.

Funeral services for Mrs. Edward Skrine Sr. of Chicago were held yesterday in Chicago. The Skrines are former Deerfield residents and their house is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dattilo. The Skrine family lived in the village about 35 years ago.

The Deerfield Grammar School Board of Education will hold its monthly meeting on Monday evening to which the public is invited. The board meets in the community room at the school.

The monthly meeting of the West Deerfield Town Board of Auditors will be held on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Thompson and son, Louis, are visiting Mr. Thompson's sister, Mrs. Nellie McNiece, in Seymour, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Antes are visiting at the Elmer Antes home in Seattle, Wash.

The Deerfield Volunteer Fire Department held its annual family picnic on Sunday at the grove on North Waukegan road. About fifty attended.

Jack Reppening of Chicago was the week-end guest of Gus Slimm of Deerfield road.

Miss Florence Ender of Chicago and Miss Henrietta Willing of Dubuque, Iowa, were guests at the Ender home on Sunday and Monday.

Miss Katherine Gonnermann of St. Joseph, Mich., and Miss Gwendolyn Dycert of Chicago were weekend guests of Mrs. Mildred Love Gunkel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Peterson of Wilmette were Sunday guests at the Carl E. Olson home on Greenwood avenue.

Miss Ruth Horenberger was hostess at a miscellaneous shower on Friday evening in compliment to Miss Florence Ott, who will become the bride of Melvin Potts of Long Grove on July 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Korenin were guests at the A. J. Collins home in Waukegan.

The Deerfield Camp of the Royal Neighbors gave a very successful party at the Town Hall on Thursday evening. Mrs. Otto Gieske is Oracle of the R.N.A.

Louis Dondanville of Moline, Ill., is visiting his aunts, Mrs. Eugene Ender and Miss Clara Ender, and his uncle, Arthur J. Ender of Waukegan road.

Four happy girls are Jane Gauntlett, Nancy Burnett, Peggy Jo George and Sue Nurdy, who left on Sunday on the "Mercury" for a two weeks' vacation at Camp O' the Hills at Brooklyn, Mich.

Mrs. Fred Meyer received a letter on Tuesday from Mrs. Frank Mayer of Harrisburg, Pa., telling of the death of her sister, Mrs. Julia Knecht Cowell, in a suburb of Philadelphia, on June 18. Mrs. Cowell was about 65 years of age. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Knecht, early residents of Deerfield, who owned the property now occupied by the Matt Hoffman family on Waukegan road. Mrs. Mayer and another sister, Mrs. Lily Warfield of Illinois, are the only remaining members of the Knecht family. Frank Mayer was superintendent of the Deerfield Presbyterian Sunday school in 1909.

Hit by Auto

Donald Grabo, aged 8, 1816 Deerfield road, suffered cuts and bruises about the head and limbs, Tuesday, when he was knocked from his bicycle in front of his home by a car driven by Mrs. Frank Kaplan, 618 Sheridan square, Evanston.

Honor Mrs. Plagge On 75th Birthday

Mrs. Ella Rockenbach Plagge was given a surprise lawn supper at her home on Sunday in honor of her 75th birthday anniversary. The thirtyone-guests who attended included her children, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Plagge of Maywood, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Plagge, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Jacobson (Vida Plagge), Irwin Plagge and Miss Margaret Plagge of Deerfield and her eleven grandchildren; also Edward Gagne and his mother, Mrs. Otto Fromm of Chicago. Mrs. Plagge's two brothers, Almon Rockenbach and his wife of Crystal Lake and Samuel Rockenbach and wife of Deerfield and her two sisters, Misses Viola and Irene Rockenbach of Deerfield were also guests. Two of her brothers, Preston of Los Angeles, Calif., and Ormon of Lake Zurich, were unable to attend. Mrs. Plagge is the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Rockenbach. She was born in Chicago, but moved to this vicinity when she was a year old. Her husband, Mr. William F. Plagge, passed away a number of years ago, also one daughter, the late Vera Plagge Gagne. The Plagges moved to Elm street in 1902 from North Northfield. June 30 was also the fifteenth wedding anniversary of the E. G. Jacobsens.

To celebrate the opening of the new hangar at the Waukegan airport, a dance was held Saturday in the new building. Both modern and old-time dance tunes were played by the Renegades orchestra.

The Rev. Samuel W. Vose, rector of St. Lawrence's Episcopal church, Libertyville for three years, has been elected rector of Christ church, River Forest. He will go to his new parish September 1.

The popular rector has added more than one third of the present membership during his stay. The entire church and parish house have been redecorated. On May 19 the parish celebrated its 13th anniversary.

Father Vose came to Libertyville from Evanston, where he was assistant to the late Bishop George Craig Stewart at the Pro-cathedral.

Elmer J. Green, 78, former sheriff of Lake county and warden of Joliet state penitentiary, was slightly injured Thursday when his automobile was struck by a city truck in Waukegan.

The collision occurred, the Accident Prevention bureau reported, when the truck, driven by Fred Schoknecht, 48, of 650 Pine st., went through the red light at the intersection and crashed into Green's automobile.

The impact threw Green's car against a power pole. Green was removed to the Emergency hospital where he was treated for head bruise and shock.

Highland Park and Deerfield friends will be interested to hear of the triple wedding anniversary of the Ewart family at Valdosta, Ga., where Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ewart celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on June 6 with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fuller (Helen Ewart) of Balboa, Canal Zone. It was the 25th anniversary of the Fullers' wedding. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fuller, Miss Fay Fuller, became the bride of John Miller on the same day, making three wedding anniversaries in the three generations, on June 6. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bletsch of Highland Park went to Georgia for the celebration. Mr. James Grant Russell and his family of Rosemary Terrace, Deerfield, were unable to go. Mr. Ewart is Mr. Russell's great-uncle. The senior Mr. Ewart was associated in business with the MacPhersons and had a blacksmith shop on North St. Johns ave., at Park ave., Highland Park, years ago during the "horse and buggy" days. John Ewart and his wife went down from New York to be with his parents for the anniversaries.

The Deerfield Legion team played the North Chicago Junior Legion team last Wednesday and lost to them with a score of 14 to 9. The battery for Deerfield: Knigge pitching; Jack Anderson catching first inning and Russell Mau catching the next six innings. Knigge allowed six hits and struck out nine. For North Chicago, Balin and Moores were pitchers and Schully, catcher. Deerfield was out-hit and had only nine players. The coach at Waukegan Township high school praised young Knigge for his fine sportsmanship. Knigge, who started in with the Junior Legion team at 12 years of age and is not yet 16, is six feet tall and a valuable player. Santucci, who usually catches for Knigge but could not be there that evening, is considered the best catcher in the league.

Letters are being sent out this week from the Red Cross headquarters signed by Mrs. Eleanor Altman, local chairman, and Clarence Wilson, president of the Deerfield Chamber of Commerce, and Everett F. Nelson, president of the Deerfield Civic Association, asking the two communities of Deerfield and Bannockburn for contributions to the second Red Cross drive. Contributions may be sent to the Deerfield State Bank.

That Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan, the Boy Scout camp of the North Shore Area Council, located at Spring Lake, Pearson, Wis., is popular is demonstrated by the number of Scouts registered to entrain on the Flambeau this coming Saturday.

Highland Park—Gilbert Anderson, Robert Blow, Bart Clinton, Tom Cristal, Roy Crossman, Bill Drake, James Fahey, Thomas Gilroy, David Heart, Robert Johnson, Bob Lundgren, Kenneth Margeson, Truman Metzler, Philip Minorini, Bob Moran, Lee Ostrander, Jack Ryan, Bob Shanley, Bill Wilbur, Robert Williams, John Wood, Clarke Church, David Dubin, Buddy Field, Michael Gutman, Donald Heintz, Lowell Komie, John Law, Albert Mathiesen, Bill Murphey, Billy Sihler, John Sihler, Peter Ullman, Warren Waggett, Calvin Bauer, John Bowden, Herbert Bowker, Geo. Crittenton, Tom Foster, Frank Frible, David Greenberg, Albert Hale, Robert Harvey, Norman Hirsch, Howard Jacobs, John Kidd, Jack Lanigan, Bob Newman, Bruce Robinson, Jack Scott, Arthur Supple, Brian Todes, Richard Turner, Arthur Vyse, Robert Will, Robert Winton, Wm. Flynn Jr.

Deerfield—Harry Baum, Philip Birkemeier, Jack Gilfillan.

Fishing Good at Scout Camp

From the youngest Scout in camp to the oldest camp staff member they are catching game fish at Spring Lake, Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan. The largest bass, four pounds, nine ounces, was caught by Ben Callaway, troop 22 of Glencoe. Dick Dunlap of troop 2, Wilmette, caught a 33 inch Great Northern Pike. Wall-eyed pike have been caught in great quantities. There is definitely the best fishing in eight years. The number of Scouts fishing for game fish in appearance is comparable to the opening day of the trout season so enthusiastic are these young fishermen. It looks like a good year for the Scouts who like this great sport.

Red Cross Drive For Deerfield And Bannockburn

Letters are being sent out this week from the Red Cross headquarters signed by Mrs. Eleanor Altman, local chairman, and Clarence Wilson, president of the Deerfield Chamber of Commerce, and Everett F. Nelson, president of the Deerfield Civic Association, asking the two communities of Deerfield and Bannockburn for contributions to the second Red Cross drive. Contributions may be sent to the Deerfield State Bank.

Deerfield Men Hurt In Crash Tuesday

Peter Kamminga, 55, Deerfield village blacksmith, and John Evers, 54, a WPA worker, were injured in an automobile crash on Tuesday (June 25) evening at a dead-end of Pfingsten road at the Lake-Cook County Line road, just west of the brickyards. Kamminga and Evers were riding in the blacksmith's truck about 10 p.m. when the headlights of the truck were snuffed out. Kamminga, driving the truck, failed to notice that they had reached the end of Pfingsten road, crashed over a culvert and into a ditch, bringing down on them an anvil, heavy tools, coal, etc.

John Beckman Sr., who had just reported for work at the North Shore gas-holder on County Line road, several blocks east of the accident, heard the crash and the screams for help. He rushed to the scene and found Kamminga on the ground, hurled from the driver's seat, and Evers, crumpled in the truck. Mr. Beckman hurried back to the gas-plant and phoned the police. Chief of Police Percy McLaughlin at first removed Kamminga and Evers to their home at 1319 West Deerfield road. Dr. Davis was out on a call and passing the Kamminga-Evers home saw the police car and others and stopped into see what was happening. They had been attempting to locate Dr. Davis, and just by luck he stopped before going on home. Both men were treated at home, but Kamminga was moved to the Highland Park hospital an hour later and the following noon was taken by ambulance to the Lake County General hospital in Waukegan, where he remained four days.

Mr. Kamminga had head injuries, a broken jaw and fractured ribs. He went back to the Lake County hospital on Wednesday (yesterday) to have the jaw set. Mr. Evers has several broken ribs and body bruises. Considering the accident both men were lucky to be alive.

Large Registration Proves Popularity of Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan

Former Residents Hold Triple Wedding Celebration June 6th

Deerfield Rotary Officers Inducted

Deerfield Community Calendar

Friday, June 5—

Sunday, July 7—

Monday, July 8—

Tuesday, July 9—

Wednesday, July 10—

Thursday, July 11—

Friday, July 12—