"Sissy Britches!" . . . Chauffet is the name of a firm with offices on 5th Avenue. They remain open all night, waiting for 'phone calls from night clubs who discover themselves with patrons on their hands too drunk to drive their own cars. Chauffet supplies a chauffeur to drive the over-imbibed guest home, puts him to bed and returns to his office for the next call. It's jobs like these that drive a man to drink! Have a new word describing a columnist who can't make up his mind whether he likes or dislikes something: "Marvellousy" . . . And for a last line we'd like to pass along Ina Over at the World's Fair one of Ray Hutton's suggested slogan for Red Cross Relief: "GIVE AND

On the plane the Ronson Exhibit at the World's were all the movie correspondents Fair or maybe they just made it and some of Warner stars. Our up: "She's more to be petted than playmate was Wayne Morris. "Give us the lowdown mister" we prodded, "is it true you and Bubbles are parting?" Wayne grinned, put his hand in his pocket, toyed around awhile with a bulky object in his pocket and denied everything. "See this" he said, removing the object from his pocket, "this is why we won't get divorced." The object was one of his baby's shoes. . . .

HOW TO MAKE ICED COFFEE

CRESH HOT COFFEE is the I first requisite for good iced coffee. Make it double-strength (two heaping tablespoons of coffee to each measuring cup of water) to allow for dilution by ice.

POUR FRESH COFFEE immediately into tall glasses filled with ice. To preserve full coffee flavor, iced coffee should be served immediately after hot fresh coffee is poured over the ice.

A FROSTY GLASS of delicious iced coffee is the result. Serve it plain; with ice cream; or top it with whipped cream into which has been folded oil of cloves, powdered ginger or almond flavoring.
