Deerfield Is Sued For Voucher Payment

The Village of Deerfield was named defendant in complaint by Herman Wise in circuit court on Monday for non-payment of a special assessment voucher for $2,089.48 issued in September, 1929, to Consoer, Older & Quinlan for engineering services in connection with street improvements of Longfellow and Whittier avenue, Hermitage drive and Byron court.

The complaint filed by the Chicago law firm of Markman, Donovan & Sullivan showed that the village had collected the first installment on special assessment docket 84. The engineers voucher was to be paid by the collection from the first installment. Wise has acquired the voucher and asks for an accounting by the village. Some of the first installment collections, the complaint charged, were used by the village to pay off bonds which were to wait until the second installment.

Deerfield Bank Files Suit Against Village For Bond Money

The Deerfield State bank last week filed suit to force payment of more than $2,000 owing on special assessment bonds by the Village of Deerfield, which is charged with using the funds for other municipal purposes.

According to the petition filed by Atty. Seago and Doolen, the village trustees ignored requests by the bank to restore money taken from the special assessment fund.

There are five bonds being held by the bank which total $1,912.20 plus interest of 6 percent. Three of them, for $622.80, $319.60 and $214, were signed by James J. Hood as village president and Alvin V. Knack as village clerk in 1928. The other two, for $550 and $205.80, were signed the following year when William W. Geary was president and C. E. Huehn was clerk.

Red Cross Makes Additional Appeal

The Deerfield-Bannockburn Red Cross War Relief committee headed by Everett F. Nelson, president of the Deerfield Civic association; Clarence S. Wilson, president of the Deerfield Chamber of Commerce; and Mrs. Frank J. Altman, Red Cross Roll call chairman of the Deerfield-Bannockburn district, have issued letters requesting additional funds. The letter:

Dear Neighbor:

You are of a generation that sees a world torn by wars of unprecedented horror. Incredible suffering is being inflicted upon millions of unfortunate and helpless men, women and children.

You are of a nation that is privileged to heal and not kill. To bring medical aid and supplies to military and civilian sick and wounded, to feed and clothe the helpless women and children fleeing from bombarded homes, to prevent terrifying epidemics in war ravished areas, the American Red Cross is asking the people of the United States to provide a minimum relief fund of $20,000,000.

We are confident that Deerfield and Bannockburn will join the other cities and towns of the nation that have responded generously to this appeal. Please mail your check in the enclosed envelope, or leave your contribution at the Deerfield State Bank.

Very sincerely yours,
E. F. Nelson
Clarence S. Wilson
Mrs. Frank J. Altman,
Red Cross War Relief Committee.

Deerfield Model Home Completed; Open to Public

Hundreds of people have been stopping, this week, at 868 Warrington Road, Deerfield, to inspect the Chamber of Commerce Model Home, which is now entirely complete.

The decorating is finished throughout the building, floors are all waxed, light fixtures are now in place. Among the many attractions are the wall-plate fixtures, recently installed by Hvale Forge. The several designs used throughout the building are unique, original, and attractive.

Many a housewife goes home wishing she could duplicate the Model Home kitchen. In addition to the modern double-sink, there are cabinets, equipped for work-a-day convenience, the circulating fan, handy electrical outlets, and a serviceable linoleum on the floor, laid by T. S. Duffy Furniture Co. of Highland Park. The Bendix Home Laundry, which will be given away, also, on September 2nd, is on display. A Norge refrigerator and electric stove complete the picture of a modern, ideal kitchen.

A trip through the home pays big dividends, both in the pleasure its loveliness affords and in the new ideas it offers.

The event which opens each Deerfield Legion Days is the children's parade. Mrs. Raymond Goodman invites all children to enter the parade. There will be awards for the cleverest impersonations, funniest boys and girls, best decorated doll buggies, bicycles and wagons, the cleverest dressed groups, and many other classifications. In addition to the special prizes there will be gifts for every parade entry. The children are asked to assemble at Hout's Drug Store at the corner of Waukegan and Deerfield Roads. The parade will begin at the corner and will march down Waukegan Road south to the Goldman subdivision.

The Program:

Friday at 7:00 p.m.: Opening Night. Children's parade with prizes for all entries and special awards. Mrs. Raymond Goodman in charge of parade. An evening of carnival events. Free dancing all three evenings.

Saturday at 5:00 p.m.: The fair will open with races and games and contests for children and adults. Prizes. A full evening of entertainment. Junior Legion ball game.

Sunday at 8:00 p.m.: Final night. Carnival attractions, dancing and awarding of prizes. Five big surprise gifts. Free dancing.

He Was So Crazy

The superintendent of the insane asylum noticed an inmate pushing a wheelbarrow upside down.

"Why do you keep that wheelbarrow upside down?" he inquired.

"You don't think I'm crazy, do you?" asked the man. "I pushed it right side up for a while, and every time I did they kept filling it with gravel."
