Ahem...

A sign on the tomato stand at an outdoor market of fruits and vegetables, located out west, reads... "Don't squeeze me until I'm yours."
 Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Giangiorgi (former Jennie Corso) stopped in at Starved Rock State park on their honeymoon, en route back from Iowa... the former Eileen Krumbach has been visiting her parents, she came from Madison, Wis., with her baby.
 Mrs. Arnold Bremer comes from Indiana, Penn., and remembers movie star Jimmy Stewart's family, residents there... she went to high school with his sister Virginia... Adam Bernardi dates Mary Farini of Wilmette.
 Mr. and Mrs. "Red" Heinemann are living in Highwood now... on Highwood avenue... Helen Picchiotti of Highland Park, who ranked high in studies at the local high school, has received a scholarship, and will matriculate at Barat college in Lake Forest... according to present plans.
 The Celso Gentilini will be coming to Highwood, Celso's home town, for vacation leave soon... he is an electrical engineer in Ohio... Helen Gibertini and Marge Greene were guests of John Barbirolli, guest conductor at Ravinia park, at his Thursday performance... also seen there that night were Dante Bonetti and Grace Gail... Gale Bray, a veteran Ravinia-goer, is with the junior organization that prepares to enter the ranks of the Chicago Civic orchestra some day. She plays the bass viola.
 Virginia Wilson, who is courting musical fame herself, was in attendance at Ravinia Saturday to hear Kirsten Flagstad, great Norwegian soprano... Miss Wilson was clad in a striking white formal.

 Tina Vignocchi has accepted a diamond from the "one and only", Ransom Ori... Helen Doland and Joseph Castelli took the step by eloping... and Helen Minorini is waiting for Rudy Notagiaco to complete his year's compulsory military training... before she adds a second ring to her fingers.
 Gilda Dinelli is up and around after an appendectomy at Victory Memorial hospital... George Petty of Freeport, Ill., seen Thursday evening making the rounds in Highwood.
 John Brugioni is mighty proud of himself... he won a bet against heavy odds... that he could take Ione Gherardini away from her date... and proceeded to make his boast good... and walked Ione home that night.

Remove P. S. Poles From Business Area

Three Public Service poles at the Central avenue and Second street intersection were removed from the business district early this week. The revision work was accomplished through a hook-up with nearby poles, outside of the business area.

Youth Struck by Car Monday P. M.

Richard Eubanks, aged 11, residing at 26 S. Green Bay road, received a cut on his right leg when he was hit by a car operated by Mrs. Fred Greenslade, 134 S. Second street, Monday afternoon.
 The youth was crossing Central avenue, opposite the Highland Park Pharmacy, when he either walked into or was struck by the rear bumper of her car. He was attended by Dr. Lundstrom at his office.

Fort Sheridan Is In Need of Cook

The U. S. Civil Service Commission announces that it has a vacancy for an experienced cook at the Nurses' quarters at Fort Sheridan. Interested persons should call at the Highland Park or Highwood post offices for particulars.

Miss Mabel Helen Brewer, for the past twelve years, fourth grade teacher in the Oak Terrace school, died Monday morning at the Highland Park hospital from complications brought about following a general illness of six months. She was 32 years old and resided at 640 Michigan Ave.
 Miss Brewer is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Quentin R. Brewer of Charleston, Ill., three brothers and one sister.
 The body was shipped to Charleston where funeral services were held yesterday (Wednesday).
