

CHURCH NEWS

First Church of Christ, Scientist
Highland Park, Ill., 387 Hazel Ave., is a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The Sunday morning service is held at 11 o'clock, and the Wednesday evening meeting, which includes testimonies of Christian Science healing, is at 8 o'clock.

Sunday school is open to pupils up to the age of 20 years, and is held Sunday morning at 9:30.

The text of next Sunday's Lesson sermon, "Spirit."

A free public reading room is maintained by this church at 43 N. Sheridan road which is open daily from 9 o'clock in the morning to 6 in the evening. On Sunday the reading room is open from 2:30 to 5:30. Here the Bible and all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased. All are cordially invited to attend these services and make use of the reading room.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Love" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 4.

The Golden Text was, "O God, thou art my God . . . Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee" (Psalms 63:1, 3).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "And, behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David. And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, 'What will ye that I shall do unto you? They say unto him, Lord that our eyes may be opened. So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him" (Matthew 20:30, 32-34).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The divine Love, which made harmless the poisonous viper, which delivered men from the boiling oil, from the fiery furnace, from the jaws of the lion, can heal the sick in every age and triumph over sin and death. It crowned the demonstrations of Jesus with unsurpassed power and love" (p. 243).

Riverview Park Offers Many Thrills

More than one hundred thrilling rides, shows and attractions, miles of brilliantly lighted, gaily festooned midways, comfortable benches and cool shade trees are several reasons why Riverview has been acclaimed Chicago's permanent World's Fair of Fun.

Thrills and excitement in the forms of high coaster rides, speedy ground and aerial attractions jam-pack Riverview's gay midways afternoons and evenings.

Grand-daddy of all the park's amusement devices is the majestic "Chut - the - Chutes." Towering above the park's 144 acres, and second only in height to the giant "Pair-O-Chutes," the water chutes has never failed to thrill and entertain. Children and adults find the cool chutes the answer to sweltering heat problems.

Another popular park attraction with young and old is Riverview's new air-cooled roller rink. Park patrons can enjoy pleasant moments roller skating in Chicago's most beautiful rink at reduced rates.

Skates and checking are included in the rink's one admission price. Music for the skating sessions is played by Bob Rhodes on the Rink's new Hammond organ.

Heartaches of Robert Wadlow, boy giant, over at last. A real-life Gulliver in a world of seeming Lilliputians, he tried, unhappily, to make the best of it, but that little gland made him different from everybody else. Read this unusual story in The American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next week's Sunday Herald-American.

A Scotchman walked up to a friend at the bar and began telling about a hunting trip. "We shot a couple of bears," he said, "but the biggest thrill was tracking yures."
"What's yures?" asked the friend.
"I'll have a beer, thanks," replied the Scotchman.

Just as they reached the bottom of their glasses, the friend remarked, "Well, I'll have to be going. Got to get home and do my chores."
"What chores?" asked the Scotchman.

"Beer please," said the other.
