COLLEGE-PREP

CAVALCADE BEGINS

With summer practically gone, our attention is called to those students who will be going away to school this month. Entering Wellesley this fall as a freshman is Elizabeth Murray. Also at Wellesley will be Carol Marie Jones, a sophomore, Julia O. Schmidt, a sophomore, and Annette Jones a senior.

Those who will be among the "fresh" this fall are Phoebe Brooks, Northern Illinois State Teachers' college in DeKalb, Ill.; Shirley Lauridsen, Occidental college, Los Angeles, Calif.; Roy Nelson, Bradley Tech, Peoria, Ill.; Mary Dorick, Stout Institute, Menominee, Wis.; and George Aubrey, Exeter.

The latter's two brothers will enter Princeton. James as a senior and Steven as a sophomore. Barbara Bede will enroll for her last year at Principia college, Elmhurst, Ill., while her brother, Alan, is transferring from Dartmouth to Northwestern School of Commerce for his sophomore year. Eric Haessler will continue his college work at Dartmouth, where he is a junior preparing for a law career.

Gale Bray will study for a second year with the Chicago Civic orchestra. Those directing their steps toward Iowa are Ardis Martin, University of Iowa, Iowa City. Roland Bleimehl, senior, Iowa State college at Ames; and Lawrence Wygal, sophomore, University of Iowa.

Dorothy Einbecker will accept a scholarship in home economics at the University of Chicago. She was one of 324 winners this year.

Purdue university is Burton Wonnell's school, where he is to be a junior. Louise Shire, Elizabeth Low and Marjory Shay report that they're all ready for their senior year at Smith college. Keith Shay, Marjory's brother, will go to Amherst as a sophomore. Howell Murray is also Amherst-bound and is in his last year there.

William Childs is to be in his third year at Harvard law school. Campbell Mills will finish next year at Deerfield academy, Deerfield, Mass. William Ashley will conclude his four years at Kenyon college, Gambier, Ohio, where Morris Loving will be located, also a senior. Barbara Ashley, William's sister, is enrolled at Sweet Briar college, Sweet Briar, Va., for her sophomore year.

University of Washington—then to Harvard; Jean Morrissey, Pine Manor college; John Heath, Hill Prep school—then, to Dartmouth.

Adeline Ramond is to go to Colorado Springs, Col., to start her second year at Colorado college, and Paul W. Haskins will go in the opposite direction for his sophomore year at Cornell university, Ithaca, N. Y. Joan Pier is due for her senior year at DePauw university in Greencastle, Ind., while Arthur Pier of the same family will be a Purdue sophomore. Don Nichols will be in New York at Hamilton college as a sophomore.

At the University of Illinois there will be Julius Laeger, sophomore; Stewart Gail, senior; Marion Gail, his sister, second half of sophomore year; and Mildred Gail, junior. William Hamlin has won a scholarship to the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis., where his family has moved.

The Black brothers will leave for school, James, a junior at Carleton college, and Robert, senior at DePauw university. Jeanette Bryant is a sophomore at Carleton this year.

Jean Nichols, music student, will take up studies at Cosmopolitan School of Music, Kimball hall, Chicago. She will concentrate on voice as a major and work toward her bachelor's degree.

Registered at the University of Illinois this fall are: Dorcas Fitzgerald, sophomore; Bud Harvey, junior; Kurt Boehm, sophomore.

MILNE-IVINS WEDDING SATURDAY

The marriage of Miss Margaret Robbie Milne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Milne of Evanston, and James E. Ivins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ivins of South Linden Ave., will take place on Sept. 7 at 4 o'clock in the Lady chapel of St. Luke's church, the Rt. Rev. B. F. Ivins of Milwaukee, an uncle of the bridegroom, officiating. A reception will follow at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Fanchon Milne will be her sister's maid of honor. Robert Webster will serve as best man for Mr. Ivins. John Milne Jr. and John C. McKenzie will usher. After a week's motor trip through the Smoky mountains Mr. Ivins and his bride will be at home in St. Louis.

A graduate of Roycemore, Miss Milne received her college degree from Smith in 1934. Mr. Ivins, a University of Wisconsin man, was graduated from the university's law school in '38. He is a member of Kappa Sigma.

BARBARA BALKE IS MARRIED

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Balke of Deere Park announce the marriage of their daughter Barbara to Leon Hyzen of New York City. The ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace Henry Hanson, Sunday morning, September 1st.

Mr. Hyzen is a graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and won the Rotch scholarship which entitled him to two years study in Europe.

Following three years at the Cincinnati College of Music, the bride spent two years in Europe studying with Hugo Becker. They will reside in New York City.

Marie Hammer will return to her home this week after a trip to New York. Mrs. Hammer will resume her private and group teaching of music and piano on September 8th.

Marriage licenses issued the past week were for: Edward Wing of Highland Park and Myrtle Doland of Highwood; George Heinsman and Rosa Shepherd both of Highland Park; Robert Tromp of Highland Park and Jane Hahn of Evanston; Hawthorne Pettie of Highland Park and Della Padley of Evanston; George Klapak of Highland Park and Mary Sabath of North Chicago.

Two more parties on the calendar for Miss Barbara Gallup, before her marriage to Knox Booth September 14th, are those of two bridesmaids Miss Phyllis Durbahn and Miss Katy Lew Vail are giving. Miss Durbahn will entertain at a closet-shelf, dresser-drawer shower on Tuesday and on Thursday Miss Vail will give the spinster dinner.

Mrs. Mayme Balding returned Tuesday from a ten day visit with her father Matt Yager of Sauk Center, Minn.

Sewall Truax enjoyed the Labor Day week-end at the Indiana Dunes.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hammond of Evanston, formerly of Highland Park spent the week-end fishing at Stone Lake, Wis.

Miss Virginia Saathoff spent a few days at Paw Paw, Michigan last week.

Mrs. Charles I. Brook's sister, Miss Mildred Julian arrived in Highland Park Tuesday for a short visit. For the past 2 years Miss Julian has been teaching in Bei Rough, Syria and will take a position with the Winnetka Grammar school this fall. Because of conditions in Europe today Miss Julian has been en route since June 25th, having had to cross the desert instead of coming all the way by water as heretofore.

Mr. John Creigh of Minneapolis, Minn., will arrive here the latter part of the week for a few days visit with his family the Thomas Creighs.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Willison and daughter spent the week-end and early part of the week with relatives at Effingham, Ill.

Mrs. Thomas Creigh was hostess to the board members of the Highland Park hospital at luncheon Wednesday.

The Roderick Macphersons of N. St. Johns avenue returned home yesterday from their summer home at Phelps, Wis.

The Harold Bridges have returned from their summer home at Highland Lake. On Labor Day they were hosts to a group of Highland Parkers who enjoyed their picnic supper there.

Mrs. Thomas Creigh and daughter Virginia returned Saturday from their summer home at Battle Lake, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Metcalf and family of the Udell Building returned last week-end from Washington and Oregon where they spent the summer visiting relatives.

Mrs. Edward Strenger and Mrs. William J. Nelson have returned from their six weeks sojourn at Eagle River. Mr. Strenger and Mr. Nelson joined them at Eagle River over the Labor Day week-end.

Mrs. Viola Conrad is visiting her brother, Mr. Oscar Pansie in Fisk, Wis., for three weeks.
