Bruno Somenzi, who spent the summer with the Grand Forks northern league Chiefs, next year will join the St. Paul club of the American Association. He, along with four other players from the team, were picked by President J. C. Holte of the St. Paul club. The Chiefs have been in the lead practically all summer.

Somenzi, who won 17 and lost 7, was the only one on the team with such a high percentage. He received the extra bonus awarded by the club to any pitcher winning more than 15 games, and also a candid camera donated by the merchants of Grand Forks in appreciation for his part in putting the team in the lead. Bruno plans to come home about Sept. 25.

The Highwood civic and social clubs have engaged Al Sheridan's orchestra to play for their Columbus day dance October 12 at the Labor Temple. The band consists of Dario Bonetti, Speed Carani, Earl Carani, Raymond Aho and Mr. Sheridan.

The committee, headed by Joseph Calzia, have planned to meet again in the city hall chambers on Sept. 16. Part of the proceeds from this dance will go to the social service of Highwood.

Friends of Miss Alice Antonetti honored her at a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening. Miss Antonetti is to marry Guido Azzi, also of this city.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Magnani and children, Joseph and Roberta, spent the week of Labor Day visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Ianitti of Gary, Ind. On Sunday they were joined by her husband, James, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tomei and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Magnani, who spent the Labor Day week-end there. They motored home together on Monday evening.

The Highwood Boosters Sunday afternoon took the championship of the Illinois-Wisconsin Semi-pro league by defeating the Racine Elks, 9 to 8, at the Highwood field.

Tommy Russell, Booster outfielder, was chosen as batting champion of the Illinois-Wisconsin Semi-pro league with a .519 average. Russell got 14 hits in 27 appearances at the plate.
