ANZOLA-EARLY ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Anzola of North avenue announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Clara, to Robert Early, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Early of N. Second street. The marriage will take place Saturday, October 12, at the home of the bride's parents.

GLADER-COBURN MARRIAGE

Saturday evening at 8 o'clock Miss Naomi White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer White of Libertyville, became the bride of Clifford E. Glader, son of Mrs. Winifred Glader of Laurel avenue. The ceremony was read by the Rev. Winfield Johansen at the Zion Lutheran church in Highwood. The bride wore a bridal gown of white satin, fashioned princess style and with a long train. Lace insets in the sleeves matched the lace in her train and her long tulle veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried gardenias and white asters. Miss Catherine Conant of Chicago, maid of honor, was attired in a rose moire taffeta gown whose matching blusher was held in place by a blue tiara. Her flowers combined gladioli, button asters and daisies in a colonial bouquet. Alvin Larsen served as best man and a cousin of the bridegroom, Wallace Glader, ushered.

A reception for sixty relatives and friends was held at the Open House Tea room. Mr. and Mrs. Glader will make their home in Chicago upon their return from Kingston, Tenn.

CANRIGHT-DAVIS WEDDING ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Garfield S. Canright of S. Linden avenue announce the marriage of their daughter, Cecelia Jeannette, to Raymond Heath Davis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Davis of Winnetka. The nuptials were read at five o'clock Saturday afternoon with a reception following at the Shawnee Country Club. The young couple had as their attendants Miss Elaine Rosness of Des Moines, Iowa, and Mr. Robert Davis of Milwaukee, brother of the groom.

After a short wedding trip Mr. Davis and his bride will make their home in Syracuse, N. Y.

RHEA ZUR WELLE'S WEDDING SOLEMNIZED

Miss Rhea Zur Welle, daughter of Mrs. Marie Zur Welle, of Cary avenue, became the bride of Robert Van Sickle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Judd DeWitt Van Sickle of Durand, Ill., last Saturday at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The nuptials were read by Dr. Paul Burt of Champaign, Ill., in the Roy O. Nereim garden on Central avenue. The bride was gowned in a white bengaline gown, and a finger tip length veil fastened to a pearl crown. She carried a white prayer book with satin streamers and pom-poms. Her bridesmaid, Miss Jean Smith of Evanston, was attired in an aqua bengaline gown and Juliette cap. She carried peach gladioli. Mr. Orville Morgan of Rockford was the best man. The bride's brother, Mr. Richard W. Zur Welle, gave his sister in marriage. The young couple left on their two weeks wedding trip after the reception at the Nereim home. They will make their home in Rockford.

DOROTHY PURDY'S WEDDING SATURDAY

On Saturday morning, Sept. 28, at 9:30, Miss Dorothy Purdy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Purdy, 338 Central avenue, will become the bride of Mr. John Andrew Ronan Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Andrew Ronan of Chicago. The ceremony will take place at St. Marys Parish House in Evanston and will be followed by a wedding breakfast at the Georgian hotel in Evanston.

Mrs. Ronald W. Parkinson, the bride's sister, will serve as matron of honor, and Miss Isabelle Denzel of Highland Park will act as bridesmaid. Mr. Ronan will have as his best man Dr. George Riley Crane of Elmhurst and Mr. Thomas V. Conroy of Irving Park will usher.

After a motor trip through the Smoky Mountains, the young couple will reside in Elmhurst.

CORRECTION

Through a clerical error in the announcement of the British War Relief Society Committee in last week's edition of this paper the name of Mrs. Augustus G. de Clercq was inadvertently written as Mrs. R. LeClerq, and the name of Mrs. Neil H. Bowles was omitted. Anyone wishing to assist the society with work or contributions, and desiring further information, kindly call Mrs. George Childs, Highland Park 677, or Miss Helen Bergstrom, Highland Park 3147.

Mrs. Mary McCarthy Is Buried Today

Mrs. Mary C. McCarthy, a resident of Highland Park for nearly twenty years, died Monday at the Highland Park hospital, where she had undergone a major operation two weeks ago. Mrs. McCarthy resided at 121 N. Green Bay road.

A member of the American Legion Auxiliary, she served as president of this organization for two terms. It was during this service that she made a wide circle of friends, who hold the highest regard for her. She was also a member of the Royal Neighbors and Catholic Daughters of America.

James J. McCarthy, her husband, who was a warrant officer in Chicago, having served with the army for many years, died in 1922 following a major operation.

Besides her son, Jack, Mrs. McCarthy is survived by a half sister, Mrs. Helen Praxler of this city, and other relatives in New Jersey. Funeral services were held this (Thursday) morning at 9 o'clock in St. James church, Highwood. Burial was in Ft. Sheridan cemetery.
