

League Program For October Lists Outstanding Events

To all members of the Highland Park League of Women Voters and to all prospective members, I suggest you hang on to your hats. We're off to a flying start. The board met on Wednesday, Sept. 18, at the home of its president, Mrs. Philip Ringer, at which time the reports of the officers and department heads left me breathless because of their planned events for the future.

If you're a calendar-marker, now is the time to start checking off the days in October. On the 16th of the month comes the regular Wednesday meeting, which will be an open meeting for the public—an all-day Voters School, with a buffet luncheon interspersed between speakers. On October 28, in the evening, comes a Town Meeting, with Mayor Ronan and the City Council members discussing past and future achievements.

Two study groups have their initial meetings in October, too, one on the 14th and the other on the 22nd. The study class of Mrs. Louis Haller's Department of Government and Foreign Policy will meet Monday afternoons from October 14 to December 2 to cope with Our New Foreign Policy in the Making. Meanwhile, Mrs. V. W. Briddle and Mrs. Douglas Boyd, chairmen of the Department of Government and Social Welfare, are planning to conduct a study group on Public Health in Highland Park on Tuesday mornings for six weeks, beginning October 22. A "Know Your Country" survey will be conducted on Wednesday morning, Oct. 23, under the direction of Mrs. Van Kirk, chairman of Department of Government and Operation.

Will you agree that the 1940-41 program of the League is going to keep you plenty busy?

—Mrs. G. K. Hardacre.

Grandson Receives Large Share of Mrs. Moore's Estate

The major portion of the $30,000 estate of the late Mrs. Jane Moore, who died Sept. 7 at her home in Highwood at the age of 96 years, will go to a grandnephew, Edwin W. Arnold, 30, of 1624 Broadview Ave. According to Attorney Paul C. Behanna, who filed the will before Probate Judge Martin C. Decker.

Mr. Arnold had lived with and cared for his grand-aunt for several years prior to her death.

Minor bequests included $500 each to Hattie Touhy, Chicago, a grand-niece, and William and Charles Kneen, non-relatives, who live on the Isle of Man, a small island off the coast of England, where the British now quarter German prisoners of war.

Another bequest was to Anthony J. Arnold, father of Edwin, who owed Mrs. Moore money on a mortgage on his home in Highland Park. The will gave him a paid-up mortgage but the record did not set up the amount of the unpaid balance.

A large part of the estate, $14,000, was found to be in cash in banks. A small sum, 213 pounds, is on deposit in a bank in the Isle of Man. This represents payments from tenants who live in property owned by Mrs. Moore there. She was born on the Isle of Man.

For more than a half a century prior to her death she made her home in Highwood.

Mrs. Moore had drawn her own will on a legal form she obtained March 15, 1938.

Inklings from Neighboring Towns

State's Attorney Charles E. Mason is writing President Roosevelt to ascertain just when Thanksgiving day will be celebrated this year. Not that it matters materially to Mr. Mason, but as Vice Noble Grand of Waukegan Odd Fellows lodge, which will celebrate its 50th anniversary November 20 and in as much as they would like to celebrate it with a celebration in Christ Episcopal church on November 21st, he is anxious to know when Thanksgiving is to be observed. The church will not be available on Thanksgiving day, hence the anguish over the date.

Robert G. Steele was installed as commander of the Winnetka post of the American Legion, last week in ceremonies held in the Legion room of Community House. Glen Fleshman, seventh district commander, was the installing officer. Other new officers are: Walter L. Backer, senior vice-commander; John M. Dougherty, junior vice-commander; Gordon Van Kirk, chaplain; Howard Hedges, adjutant; Ralph B. Kraetsch, finance officer; Joseph P. Colligan, service officer; Guildford R. Windes, judge advocate; Tom Brown, historian; Dr. Clarence Minnema, medical officer; and Jacob Horn, sergeant-at-arms.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has released, through local post offices, the figures on alien registration up to Wednesday of last week. The registration for the four New Trier township villages is as follows:

Wilmette 69; Winnetka (figures not available); Glencoe 65; Kenilworth 12.

The work of registration has not yet been completed, and slight additions to the above figures are expected.

The First Christian church will take the final preparatory step Sunday toward building a new church to replace the structure destroyed by an incendiary fire last Jan. 17.

This will be the granting by the congregation to the board of trustees of authority to transfer title to the old church property. Sanction for such a transfer was given the building committee some time ago, when it was finally accepted that no merger with either the First Congregational church or the Chapel St. Christian church was possible.

Illinois law, however, provides that church property can be alienated only by the board of trustees, so N. E. Bardonner, chairman of the board, has called a general meeting of the church for Sunday morning after the regular services.

Once the trustees are empowered to trade the old church property, they will decide on which of three properties the new church may be built. It is possible that the Rev. W. S. Hogevoel, pastor of the church, will announce the chosen site at the meeting.

In spite of an injunction suit filed against the library board in the Circuit court of Cook county on behalf of an unsuccessful bidder, ground was broken, Wednesday morning of this week, for Glencoe's new $93,000 public library building at the southwest corner of Park avenue and Glencoe road.

LIBRARY

After scanning the front pages of the average daily city newspaper, one may feel that the civilized world has completely forgotten all moral standards of living. To combat such depressing ideas, why not read some inspirational books:

"Conqueror of the Seas: Story of Magellan," Stephen Zweig.

"Benjamin Franklin," Carol Van Doren.

"Autobiography of a Bird Lover," John Jay Chapman.

"Madame Curie, a Biography," Eve Curie.

"Albert Einstein, Maker of Universes," Haig G. Garbedian.

"Unveiled: The Autobiography of a Turkish Girl," Selma Ekrem.

"Beyond Horizons," Lincoln Ellsworth.

"The World Was My Garden," David G. Fairchild.

"Abraham Lincoln, Prairie Years," Carl Sandburg.

"Recovery of Ideals," Georgia Harkness.

"Life, Art and Letters of George Innes," George Innes, Jr.

"Religion of a Healthy Mind," Charles Holman.

"Compensation," Ralph W. Emerson.

"Napoleon," Emil Ludwig.

These and many other books, which may fit particular needs may be found at the Highland Park Public Library.
