VETTER-PIEPENBROK WEDDING

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Vetter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Vetter, and Helmut Piepenbrok, son of Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Piepenbrok, all of Deerfield, was solemnized on Saturday afternoon in St. Paul's Evangelical church, with the groom's father officiating. The bride wore a frock of tulle blue velvet and her corsage was of gardenias. Her hat and accessories were of dubonnet. She was given in marriage by her father in a candle light service with the church beautifully decorated in garden flowers. Mrs. Arthur Ward (Edith Sherman), the matron of honor wore dubonnet velvet and matching hat and accessories and corsage of gardenias. Frederick Piepenbrok Jr. served his brother as best man and Arthur Le Feuvre of Chicago acted as usher. David Stryker sang "Speak to Me of Love" and "I Love You Truly," with Mrs. Mary E. DeDitt at the organ. Following the ceremony a reception for 150 guests was held in the church parlors. The young couple will live in Lake Forest.

FOOD LECTURE

A colorful food lecture with new and appetizing autumn recipes will be featured on Thursday, October 10, at 2 p.m. in the Deerfield Presbyterian church, under the auspices of the Presbyterian Woman's association. The lecture and demonstration will be given by Miss Jean Metcalf through the courtesy of the Maggi Co., Inc., distributors for Swiss Food Products, seasonings and bouillon cubes. Four family-size dishes will be prepared and given away as door prizes — ham, timbales and buttered peas, liver and bacon on baked potatoes and lamb pie and vitamin slaw. The lecture is as colorful as the recipes sound. True and entertaining stories on the history and use of food will be related. Helpful hints on cooking and getting peak flavor and perfection in food will also be told. Reservations may be obtained from Mrs. David Derby, or tickets may be purchased at the door.

NELSON-JOHNSON WEDDING

The wedding of Miss Audrey E. Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson of Spooner, Wis., and John Arthur Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Johnson of Deerfield, was solemnized on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Gloria Dei Lutheran church in Duluth, Minn., with the Rev. Paul Noren, classmate of the groom, officiating. Mrs. Henry A. Kruse was her sister's matron of honor and Robert E. Johnson served as best man for his brother. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore violet blue velveteen and finger tip blue veil and carried roses and small chrysanthemums. Her attendant wore dubonnet and matching accessories. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hillengass in Duluth. ### Deerfield P.-T.A. Thursday Evening

The October meeting of the Deerfield Grammar school P.T.A. will be held on Thursday, October 10, at 8 o'clock. It will feature a program planned and carried out by the School Board of Education. Several features are being planned for the program. In general the Board plans not only entertainment but also plans to report to the fathers and mothers on the present status of the school. Among the entertainment that is planned is a small band under the direction of George Harder, a short meeting of the Deerfield Grammar school Student Council, and a movie to illustrate the visual educational program of the school at the present time.

Exceptional door prizes are to be given away at this meeting of the P.T.A. as an added inducement to parents to attend this meeting. It is rumored that a model home and an automobile will be given as door prizes at the P.T.A. meeting. According to all plans tickets on these prizes will be sent to all parents in advance of the meeting. Further announcement of this feature of the program will appear in the paper next week and letters are being sent to the parents giving the exact details.

As a serious part of the program, reports on various phases of the school activities will be made by the members of the Board. Mrs. William A. Tennerman will report on the educational program. George Harder will report on the building program. Henry Hawes will report on the financial situation. Mr. Burton B. McRoy, president of the Board, will make a general report.

As a closing part of the meeting refreshments will be served. This will be for the purpose of giving patrons a chance to discuss matters with the Board of Education.

The Board of Education and the P.T.A. issue jointly a general invitation to all parents and to the friends of education in Deerfield to attend this meeting.

Deerfield Recreation Project Classes at School & Dorcas Home

Varied craft activities are being planned for the different winter sports activities. Lanterns are being started for the lantern parade on Halloween for all the children and plans are under way for the bigger children to make skis for the winter.

The girls' soccer league played their first game this last week. The fifth graders were defeated by the sixth by a score of 4 to 0, while the seventh graders won over the eighth by a score of 3 to 2. Both games were very exciting and the players are looking forward to playing their second game this week. Soccer teams are also being organized for the larger boys.

Classes have been started at the Dorcas Home in the afternoon and the children are showing a great deal of interest in the different activities.

Rotary Club Plans Halloween Program

The Deerfield-Northbrook Rotary Club this year is planning a Halloween program for both Deerfield and Northbrook designed for entertainment for older children to give them something to do on Halloween eve. Among the features being planned are a costume parade, group sings, and other entertainment. The Deerfield committee for this Rotary project includes Arthur Wolter, Marshall Pottenger, Edward Reagan, Harold Vant, and Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok. Northbrook's committee is Thomas Adams, Sam Campbell, Harold Bucher, Henry Wattson and Robert Howard. Merchants and citizens of the two communities are to be asked to participate in this program. More detailed announcements will be made later.

Maternal Group Plans Series of Newspaper Articles

The Lake County Lay Maternal Welfare committee members will complete the sending out of the last 400 questionnaires to mothers who have had a child during the past year. To date about 55% of the questionnaires have been answered and their facts are being compiled on a chart by Dr. L. F. Bushnell, consulting obstetrician for the committee. The September meeting was held at the Lake Forest Public library with Mrs. A. J. Risinger presiding.

For the winter program a series of articles will be written by members of the committee. Mrs. A. E. Vollum of Lake Bluff will take the subject of Pre-natal Physical Examinations; Mrs. A. E. Johnson of Libertyville, Emergencies; Mrs. A. C. Schroeder of Waukegan, General Habits; Mrs. Ben Robbins of Zion, Exercise for the Expectant Mother; and other subjects will be assigned later to the various other members. The first article to appear in the local papers is to be a resume of the entire series and will be written by Mrs. Risinger, followed by the above mentioned subjects and many more. It is hoped that through this series of articles on Maternal Welfare that all young mothers may be reached.
