The Highwood council met again last week and agreed to keep Albert Bernardi and Peter Andreotti on the police force for another two weeks.

Due to a lack of funds to meet the payroll, Cowgill suggested that $1,000 be taken from the water fund to meet the payroll. Alderman Gene Fioechi of the Fourth ward announced that tavern licenses would be due Nov. 1 and the money could then be replaced.

Police Magistrate Joseph Ariano read his monthly report for September showing a total for fines of $265.

Mayor Portilla was authorized to express the gratitude of the city to Sheriff Thomas E. Kennedy and Lieut. Charles Stanton of the state police for assigning men to Highwood during the military show at Ft. Sheridan. Also three Highwood firemen were paid $5 for acting as traffic policemen during the show.

City Engineer James Anderson III of Lake Forest advised the council that the state has approved the plans for widening Highwood avenue, the work to be completed in 30 days. The contract will be let October 18. There was some discussion about attempting to establish a parking space on the parkway on Waukegan avenue south of Highwood avenue, but nothing definite was planned. Albert De Santo was also advised by the mayor that Western avenue could be improved only when the residents of that street agreed to finance the project.

Absent from the meeting were Joseph Farnetti, who is on the night shift for Public Service, and Alderman Simpson who is enjoying a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Miller left Tuesday for Clifton, Ill., where they will make their future home. The Millers have purchased a small farm there. Mr. and Mrs. Alec Stupple have moved into the Miller home on Elm avenue.

A group of friends entertained at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Anne Rosalini on Tuesday evening at the St. James Parish hall. Mrs. Rosalini will be married on Saturday to Mr. Turkey.

Finance Chairman Otto F. Fisher has announced that all three troops must begin work in earnest for their campaign to raise $600 by Nov. 1 for the Highwood Boy Scouts.

At a meeting last week in the home of Troop Chairman Roy Russell, it was decided to send letters asking the cooperation of the various local organizations such as: American Legion post, Prosperity club, St. James parish, Legion auxiliary, Lions club, and the Boosters.
