

H. P. Woman's Club To Hang Pictures Of Illinois Artists

The Art department of the Highland Park Woman's club is again to present an exhibit of paintings from the All-Illinois Society of Fine Arts for its opening display. This exhibit has long been an annual affair with the club and represents the best efforts of many talented contemporary artists. Of course this exhibit is limited to a small number of paintings but in bringing these, the committee hope to stimulate interest in the work of Illinois artists. The complete exhibit of their paintings may be seen on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays in their own gallery on the fourth floor of the Stevens hotel in Chicago. Mrs. Edwin N. Johnson, the president has been the head of this association for several years and it is through her cooperation that we are able to give our community a glimpse of these paintings. She is the hostess in charge at the gallery in Chicago. Of especial interest in the Highland Park club is the portrait of San Gabriel by Allbright and Arno Bretsnyder's conception of "October in the Dunes"—a soft colorful landscape; as well as two modern productions, one "A Studio Corner" by Dolly Hellwig; the other, Nina Griffin's Chinese Horse. A painting of the birthplace of the Quintuplets by Loe Weeks interests everyone as well as many more paintings by well known Illinois artists.

The Art committee will hang a different display in the club house each month and are planning several Sundays when the displays will be open to friends of club members. Mrs. C. J. Bassler is the chairman of the committee with Mrs. Robert Martin as vice-chairman. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Wilson L. Kline, Mrs. John Van Bergen, Mrs. George Boveroux and Mrs. Irving W. Barnett.

Bethany Brotherhood Meets Next Tuesday

The men of the Bethany Evangelical church will meet at the home of Mr. George F. Glader of 816 Ridgewood drive on Tuesday evening at 7:45. A very interesting program has been planned. All men not affiliated with a similar organization are invited to attend.

Firemen Respond To Several Calls

The Highland Park Fire department responded to several calls during the past week.

Last Wednesday evening they answered a call to the P. McFarland residence, 606 Eastwood Ave., where a clogged chimney sent smoke into the residence. A screen which was clogged was removed from the chimney. No damage was done.

A one story garage owned by Mrs. Franks at 618 Onwentsia Ave., was damaged by fire Thursday caused by sparks from a paper burner. The damage amounted to $15.

Ten dollars damage resulted from a fire in a playhouse on the H. Mills property at 942 Green Bay road, Sunday evening about 9:42 p.m. Fire resulting from the back firing of the carburetor brought firemen to 118 Green Bay road where wiring in a car owned by Ray Olson, 120 High street, Highwood, was ablaze. Damage was $25.

Mrs. J. R. Carter, a tenant in the Witty building in Ravinia, locked herself out of her apartment Monday, and was forced to call the Fire department in order to gain entrance.

John Russell Is Taken by Death

John Russell, 70, a resident of this city for the past 20 years, died Wednesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Bletsch, 366 Ravine drive, following a lingering illness.

He had been an accountant with Carsen Pirie Scott and Co., for 43 years, prior to his retirement 10 years ago.

Besides his daughter, Mr. Russell is survived by a son, James G. Russell of Deerfield and six grandchildren. Bella Grant Russell preceded her husband in death, six years ago.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Kelley funeral chapel. The Rev. Louis W. Sherwin, pastor of Highland Park Presbyterian church and the Rev. William F. Weir, of Deerfield officiated. Burial was in Lake Forest cemetery.

Katherine Hunter To Address Jewish Women, Tuesday

"Propaganda: Good, Bad—can we afford to be indifferent?" will be the subject of the National Council of Jewish Women's North Shore International Relations class of which Mrs. David H. Cahn is chairman, to be held at the temple, Tuesday, Oct. 22, 10 a.m. Miss Katherine Hunter, director of the International Relations Speakers Bureau, will analyze the techniques that play their forces on the public opinion which is our national lifeblood, and will probe the extent to which world cultural differences remove us from the threats and persuasions that have produced such disastrous dislocations.

Miss Hunter brings to her audience a wealth of experience stemming from life and study throughout Europe, especially significant being her association with the International Labor Organization and league attendance, at Geneva—invaluable background for her subsequent work in attitudes and trends of thought in America. Her timely and vital subject will stimulate fruitful discussion among Council's members and interested friends fortunate to hear her presentation.

Club Entertains Community Choral Veterans at Downey

The Community Choral Club presented a varied program to the Veterans at Downey on Monday evening of this week. Solos were rendered by Marie Santi, Daniel Cobb Jr. and Frank Ronan Jr., all members of the club.

Miss Puckett with her ballet dancing and Raymond Crocetti's accordion solos were particularly pleasing and well received by an audience of about 500 veterans.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our many friends and relatives for their kind expressions of sympathy in our recent bereavement.—Mrs. John Simnett and Family.

Poetically Inclined Invited to Attend "Poetry Studio" Oct. 22

"Calling All Poets"—this invitation to the open house inaugurating the "Poetry Studio" on Tuesday evening, Oct. 22, includes those who like to listen to poetry as well as those who like to scribble poetically. It also includes men as well as women, high school students as well as retired business men who will admit the hobby. And the hobby doesn't even need to be admitted for manuscripts can be turned in to Rowena Bennett, group leader, for anonymous reading and discussion.

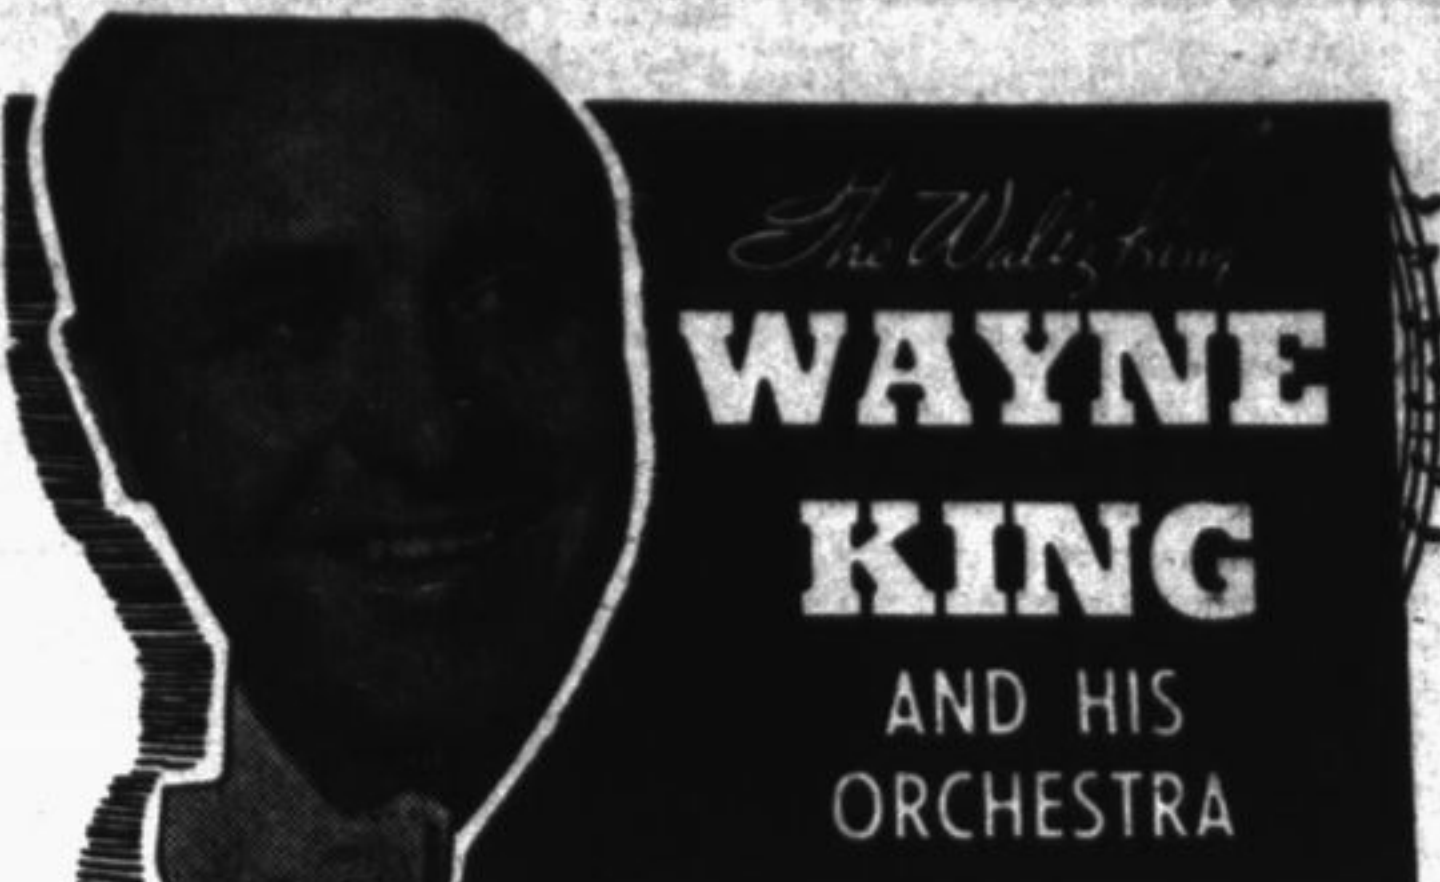

Among the Northshore poets who are expected to read their own verse at this informal gathering are Mrs. Raymond Watts, of Ravinia, whose nature poems have been outstanding, Dr. George Lake of Highland Park, the medical-editor who has had contributions in various anthologies, Mrs. Fowler Barker of Winnetka who writes clever light verse, Miss Elizabeth Bredin, sponsor of the Potpourri club, Mrs. Donald McGibeny of Lake Forest, wife of the radio commentator, Mrs. Eugene Hotchkiss whose verse appears in many columns will be the chairman of the evening and of the study project growing out of it under the leadership of Rowena Bennett. Mrs. Bennett is not only the author of the verse volume "Around the Toadstool Table," editor of "Jack and Jill," but also has had poetry for adults appearing in such national publications as "The Saturday Review of Literature," and "The Christian Science Monitor."

Those who wish to mail in two poems for anonymous reading on the evening program are invited to send their contributions to Mrs. Eugene Hotchkiss, 213 Bronson Ave., Highland Park. Manuscripts will be accepted only from those who can attend the October 22 meeting.

"The Poetry Studio" is a new hobby group starting under the auspices of the Education committee of the Highland Park Y.W.C.A. which has sponsored the Thursday morning classes in Creative Writing. The Tuesday evening group will meet every two weeks as an informal workshop at the request of business people, teachers, and others who cannot come to a day class and who wish special emphasis on poetic technique.
