

Highwood Highlights

LENA GLANDT, Representative Telephone H. P. 53

PASQUESI-PRETI NUPTIALS

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Preti of Highwood announce the marriage of their daughter Della to Mario Pasquesi, of Highland Park, which took place Saturday morning at St. James church in Highwood. The Rev. John A. Ward heard the exchange of marriage vows.

The bride wore a soldier blue gown with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Her bridesmaid, Esther Minorini, was dressed in plum crepe, and her flowers were tea roses and lilies of the valley. Caesar Pasquesi attended his cousin as best man.

A dinner for about 30 guests followed. After a honeymoon trip to Wisconsin, the couple will live at 296 Western avenue, Highland Park.

ANNE ROSALINI BECOMES BRIDE

Father James Gleason heard the exchange of nuptial vows between Anne Rosalini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rosalini of High street, and Armando Turchi of Nokomis, Illinois, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The bride's dress was of soldier blue and she wore a corsage of white gardenias. She had burgundy red accessories. Her maid of honor, Miss Edith Lavinti, wore a dark brown dress with burgundy accessories and a corsage of red gardenias.

A 6 o'clock dinner was given at the home of the bride's parents for members of the families and a few close friends. After the dinner the young couple left immediately for their new home in Nokomis, where Mr. Turchi is employed.

EMMA GRIALTIES-GEORGE SCHULER WED

Emma Marie Grialties, daughter of Mrs. Angeline Cappi, 522 Waukegan avenue, became the bride of George Schuler, 331 North avenue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene P. Schuler Sr. of 6521 South Marshfield avenue, Chicago, on Saturday at the St. James church in Highwood. Father John Ward officiated.

The bride wore a blue afternoon dress and a corsage of tea roses. She was attended by Emily Schuler, while Eugene P. Schuler Jr. acted as best man for his brother.

The bride's mother also wore blue and a corsage of tea roses. Following the ceremony the young couple received 14 guests at the Hearstone Tea room in Hubbard Woods.

NATTA-LEMME WEDDING

Among the many weddings performed Saturday at St. James church was that of Mary Natta of Cherry, Illinois, to Harry Lemme, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lemme of 1324 Burton avenue, Ravinia. The wedding was performed by Father Ward at 4:30 in the afternoon. Miss Catherine Natta attended her sister, while Neil Lorimer acted as best man for the groom. Following a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Lemme will reside in Highland Park.

Miss Helen Minorini was the surprised honor guest at a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening, given by a group of her friends in the St. James Parish hall. She was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Miss Minorini will be married to Rudy Notogiacomo on November 9th.

Mrs. Mary Pelegrin and Mrs. Jennie Castelli of Rockford, Illinois, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Muzzarelli.

Mayor Charles Portilla announced Saturday in a written order that all bootblacks will be forbidden to ply their trade in the city taverns from that day on. The mayor states that the shoe shiners are not local boys, but drifters from Chicago. But the main reasons for the order were that the hours are bad for the youthful bootblacks, that they shouldn't be in taverns, and that they bother the customers.

Mrs. A. DeBartolo, Mrs. Anthony Wysocky, and Mrs. James Reilly were among the members of a party who attended the performance of "Life With Father" at the Blackstone theater on Friday evening.

Wednesday evening the Highwood American Legion sponsored a public party at the city hall. Games were played and refreshments were served.

At a meeting Wednesday evening at the office of Otto Fisher, boy scout executive, plans were made for the formation of a Highwood Big Brother unit. After Police Magistrate Clarence L. Brown of Waukegan told of the youth-helping organization in Waukegan, it was decided to form a Highwood unit of Big Brothers at a meeting in Fisher's office on Waukegan avenue next Tuesday evening.

The Highwood Merchants football team made their debut Sunday afternoon at the Booster field against the Kenosha Booster eleven. Cooney Zaccanti, of the Village Inn, sponsor of the team, announced that a full schedule will be played this year. Players on the team are composed of mostly all former high school alumni.

Joyce Crombi left last week for Washington, D. C., where she has found employment, and later will be married there.

Reports of steady progress in the condition of Charles Fiore, who has been a medical patient in the Highland Park hospital for the past two weeks, has been made. However, Mr. Fiore will be confined there for another month.

Margaret Quinn, daughter of Mrs. George Quinn, 330 North avenue, last week attended the Catholic Youth Congress in Chicago as a delegate from the Mallinckrodt high school in Wilmette. Miss Quinn's high honors at the school for the past three years have also won her the privilege of attending the School for Catholic Action, which meets for a week's session each year.

Allan Harder of Highwood and Arthur Nicholson of Deerfield left Saturday for South Dakota for ten days of duck and pheasant hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Flannigan of Railway avenue entertained at a buffet supper Tuesday in honor of their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary.

The Highwood Social Service committee met last Friday evening in the city hall and appointed David Pasquesi, Egidio Mocogni, Terzo Benvenuti and Joseph Ariano to canvass the business houses in their annual finance drive. As stated before by the committee, instead of personal solicitation, a dance will be held instead at the Labor Temple. The date for the dance has been set for November 30. At their next meeting on November 4, the matter of having three unpaid case workers instead of one investigator receiving $10 a month, will come up for discussion and probably a vote.

Chairman Robert Saielli presided at the meeting, with 16 representatives present.

Highwood police received a report from Joseph Lensini, operator of a service station on Waukegan and Walker avenue, that his place had been burglarized sometime Saturday night. Twenty dollars in cash was taken from the register. Police believe entry was made by jimmying the window in the men's room.

Mr. and Mrs. Nello Campagni are the proud parents of a baby girl born at the Alice Home hospital last Wednesday. They have named their daughter Beverly Ann.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Ronchetto had as their week-end guests the Tony Bowers of Chicago.

Mrs. Matt Weiner of Boston has been the house guest of her mother for the past week.

Mrs. Mary Bernardini was hostess at a dinner Saturday evening for a group of her friends.

Friends of Mrs. Silvie Muzzarelli will be glad to hear that she expects to be home the latter part of this week, after having been confined in the St. Augustine hospital in Chicago for the past two weeks.

Members of the Ladies' Aid and Dorcas societies of the Zion Lutheran church in Highwood will sponsor a smorgasbord in the church parlors today (Thursday) from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. The committee in charge of this supper is composed of Mrs. Thomas Marks and Mrs. John Crowley of the Ladies' Aid and Mrs. Ruth McClure and Mrs. Ellen Carlson of the Dorcas society.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Poettker of Peoria were the house guests of their parents, the Sam Somenzis from Thursday until Sunday. When they returned home on Sunday they were accompanied by Mrs. Somenzi who visited them until Monday.

The E. Florianos have purchased a home on Pleasant street. This was formerly the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Leonardi, who have taken up residence in their new home on Hickory street in Highland Park. Mrs. Leonardi has also returned to her position as money order clerk in the Highwood postoffice.

Miss Mabel McCann of Waukegan was chosen as Miss Columbia with Lucille Mancini as runner-up at the Columbus Day dance given at the Labor Temple Saturday evening. Mr. Wayne A. Thomas crowned the queen, who had been selected by Mr. and Mrs. Bob O'Farrell and Jack Russell.

The dance was a big success, with music furnished by Al Sheridan's orchestra. Proceeds will be used for charitable purposes. Later in the evening refreshments were served.

The Penelope club of Highland Park and Highwood will sponsor a public party on October 24 at 8 p.m. at the Y.W.C.A. The party will include games and refreshments. The proceeds will be given to one of the needy families in the community.

The club is composed of the following officers: Mrs. Peter Carani, president; Mrs. Louis Zagalia, vice president; Mrs. John Picchetti, recording secretary, and Mrs. Constantine Scallelati, treasurer.

The Oak Terrace Beverage scored another victory in the Northwest Bowling league, when they defeated the Northwest Cleaners three games Sunday afternoon at the Waukegan Recreation alleys. Peter Carani was high scorer with a score of 614.

Fire Chief Arthur Englund has announced the winners in the essay contest on Highwood Fire Prevention. Contestants were children in the Oak Terrace and St. James schools.

Those who wrote the best fifty words on "How to Prevent Fires in Highwood" were: Oak Terrace school—2nd grade, Patricia Kronchi; 4th grade, Dolores Saielli; 5th grade, Eugene Belmonti; 6th grade, Enzo Nannini; 7th grade, Eileen Risjord; 8th grade, Genevieve Bailey.

Prize-winners at the St. James school were: Nello Nordini, 3rd grade, Milly Grecco; 6th grade, Nancy Ann Cantagallo; 7th grade, Marietta Mocogni; 8th grade, Josephine Serafini. The essays were judged by J. E. Engquist and Adam Bernardi.

At fire drills held Friday under the supervision of Fire Chief Arthur Englund, 250 children in the St. James school left the building in 1 minute, 20 seconds, while Oak Terrace students, numbering 400, cleared classrooms and corridors in 47 seconds.

As advertised in LIFE

No. 569
$750
Scott Hunting Tartan

A GENUINE
PENDLETON Shirt

What a shirt for the outdoors man! It's tops in distinction and style. It will bring a glint in your eye to see this soft, wool shirt expressed in ten authentic Glen designs. And it will be hard to choose the one you want—for all are handsome and perfectly tailored for action freedom. The pure virgin wool fabrics assure you of protection from heat and cold. A Pendleton Shirt will add to your enjoyment of outdoor sports—and there's nothing so comfortable for dressed-up relaxing. Our stocks are now complete for your selection.

$5.00 to $9.50

ART OLSON & CO.
Complete Store for Men
534 CENTRAL AVE • HIGHLAND PARK

HARVEST DAYS

Time to get the Basement Game rooms ready and look over Drapery Rods and Window Shades.

BRAND BROTHERS

Everything In Paint
TELEPHONE: HIGHLAND PARK 949

BRAUCH'S SLUMBER SHOP
1127 Westgate, Oak Park, Illinois

DON'T MISS THESE BEDDING BUYS!

ALL WOOL BLANKETS, $6.95 ea.
All virgin wool, soft blending, preshrunk and individually boxed
Special for this Sale

2 Blankets, or one pair.....$12

Holland Blankets, 27.50 value 19.95 ea.
Part Wool Blankets 25% wool 3.25 ea.
Cotton Blankets 5% wool 1.95 ea.
Cotton Comforters 3.75 ea.
Down Comforters
Cheerese Tulle Covering, $15.00 value..... 7.95 ea.

PONTIAC PRESENTS A NEW Low-Priced "Torpedo" Six

*Only $25 more for an Eight in any model!

Model Illustrated: De Luxe "Torpedo" Six Two-Door Sedan $874* (White sidewall tires optional at extra cost)

Just arrived—and now on Special Display—the Value Leader of Three Great New Lines of "Torpedo" Sixes and Eights

JUST ARRIVED! Pontiac's new 1941 De Luxe "Torpedo" Six that any new car buyer can afford!

Not only is it longer, lower, wider, and bigger in every way, but it offers Pontiac's daringly different "Torpedo" styling, heretofore available only on Pontiac's higher-priced cars!

And you can take your choice of a Six or an Eight engine in any model for a difference of only twenty-five dollars! Both engines are more powerful, smoother, more responsive, yet both offer the same record economy which made this year's Pontiacs such sensational sales successes. It will pay you to be among the first to see this new, low-priced Pontiac "Torpedo."

*Delivered in Pontiac, Mich. State tax, optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice. A General Motors Value.

It's Another Big Year For Pontiac!

MARCHI BROS. GARAGE
136 North First Street HIGHLAND PARK Phone H. P. 910

THIS IS WHAT YOU GET WHEN YOU BUY A 1941 PONTIAC!

1. NEW BEAUTY AND LUXURY
2. ENCLOSED RUBBER BOARDS (On Two Seater)
3. GREATER OVER-ALL LENGTH
4. INCREASED POWER
5. RECORD GAS AND OIL ECONOMY
6. LARGER, SAFER SEATS
7. NEW, TILTING SAFETY STEERING
8. NEW INTERIOR LUXURY
9. PERFECTED "TRIPLE-CUSHIONED" SEAT
10. CHOICE OF A SIX OR EIGHT IN ANY MODEL

(Only $25 more for an Eight)

Plus 29 other features, standard and extra, that make Pontiac even better than "America's Finest Low-Priced Car."