DALY-HECTOR WEDDING

At solemn high nuptial mass Saturday morning at 9:30 Miss Agnes Mary Daly and William Hector exchanged vows before the Rev. James D. Gleason at the St. James church in Highland Park. The bride, lovely in a white satin gown with a deep lace yoke and long train, was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Edward P. Daly. A tiara of white rose-buds and lilies of the valley held her full length veil in place. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

Mary Casario, maid of honor, was attired in pink brocaded satin with matching net sweetheart hat. The bridesmaids, Ruth Heckler and Arlene Abernathy, wore aqua brocaded satin gowns and matching net hats. All had identical bouquets of white and yellow baby mums. The little flower girls, Mary Yates Fuller and Alice Joann Olson, wore dresses identical to the attendants' gowns on contrasting orchid satin.

Walter Leckie was best man and Joseph Daly, brother of the bride, and Eric Schock ushered.

The mother of the bride watched the ceremony in a black velvet dress, while the bridegroom's mother chose a dark silk print. Both wore gardenia corsages.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served the bridal party and immediate families at Mrs. Anderson's tea room. After a short wedding trip to Wisconsin, the young couple will make their home at 1745 Pleasant avenue, Highland Park.

Musart Club Will Meet Next Monday

The Musart club will meet next Monday afternoon, Oct. 28, 2:30, at the home of Mrs. Lisle R. Hawley. As it is the program meeting, each member is privileged to invite a guest, whom we trust will enjoy the program.

Some folks have inquired: "What is the Musart Club?" Musart is an abbreviation for Musical Art club of Highland Park.

The club was formed about four years ago by a group of women who enjoy good music. We meet once a week at the homes of the members for practice and once a month have a program meeting at which time the program committee have special music and other attractive features prepared for us. Last year we had readings on the lives of famous composers followed by the singing of their best known songs.

The latter part of 1938 and during 1939 we gave "The Village Choir" which our audiences seemed to enjoy. We are now working on a short operetta "The Middle-Maids," a topsy-turvy extravaganza in one act by Arthur A. Penn.

If any groups would like to have us sing at their meetings, we will gladly do so. Also we would be glad to contact any ladies who might be interested in joining our group. Call Mrs. George Hinn, Highland Park 11, or Mrs. Lisle R. Hawley, Highland Park 2828, or any member of the club.

Mrs. Hawley is director of the club and the accompanist, Mrs. George Hinn, president; Mrs. Arthur Vetter, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Myles Dressler, chairman of the program committee. Following are members: Mesdames Roland Bleimehl, Myles Dressler, John Erickson, Earl D. Fritsch, Frank E. Hartman, Lisle R. Hawley, George Hinn, Warren Hints, Oscar Iversen, Kenneth Kightly, Hans Lamz, Fred Okey, Edward Sherry, Harry Siemsen, F. J. Spalding, Arthur Vetter, A. Judson Wells, and Orville Westling.
