359 Register for Conscription in West Deerfield Twp.

There were 359 men between the ages of 21 and 35 who registered for conscription in West Deerfield Township at the Town Hall last Wednesday. Supervisor Ross R. Sherman was chief registrar and assisting registrars were Eugene Zahnle, William Pittenger, Mrs. Evelyn Sherman, Mrs. Alice Trute, Mrs. Ruth R. Pettis, Mrs. Laura B. Dietz, Mrs. Mary Welch, Miss Irene Rockenbach, Mrs. Frances Diebert, Mrs. Agnes Tennermann, William A. Tennermann, Mrs. Kathryn Frost, Mrs. Loretta Willman, Mrs. Irene Rose, Mrs. Stacia Duffy, and Charles Bickford. All three precincts of the township were united into one registration place and with from ten to twelve registrars on duty most of the time, there was little waiting and the registration was carried out in a most orderly manner. The biggest rush was from 7 to 9 a.m., when the majority of the men were getting their cards before going to work. In spite of the seriousness of the event all registrants answered the questions without protest and even joked about the color of the uniform they expected to get. For the question of describing any identifying characteristics or blemishes, the registrars were amused at the variety of tattoos.

Supervisor Sherman expressed his appreciation to the volunteer workers, as also did County Clerk Jay B. Morse, for donating their services, free, in following out the President's order.

The large registration cards were taken to the Court House where they are shuffled and numbered. After the drawing from the fish bowl in Washington, those in Lake County who have the same numbers as those drawn, will be sent the questionnaire.
