WHEN YOU PRAY

by Dr. Charles Stelzel
This is a very practical subject, because everybody prays—but most of us anxiously wonder why many of our prayers are not answered.

Notice the way it begins: "Our Father"—not "my Father." There isn't a single "I" or "my" in the entire prayer.

Amateur Craftsmen's Guild
On Tuesday evening, October 29 in the Rotary Craft shop of the Community Center an enthusiastic group met to organize an amateur craftsmen's guild.

Many engaging possibilities were suggested for the guild's activities. The feeling was that the shop, which is available five nights weekly and on Saturday afternoons, should be used to its fullest capacity. Members feel that a guild will be of great benefit to all craftsmen, who can compare notes and talk over problems, and also enlist the assistance and advice of experts.

Such a guild might also help to sponsor junior crafts classes and develop a ladies' section specializing in such things as metalwork, leather, and jewelry. It might render Community Service by helping promote craft classes throughout the town, by repairing Christmas toys, and by helping to rebuild the old fire station.

All adults interested in belonging to such a group are welcome, and should plan to attend the next meeting.

Stamp Club Organized
For the purposes of trading, auctions, talks, and fun, a new junior Stamp club has been organized for the boys and girls of Highland Park. The club, organized on Monday, October 28, will meet weekly hereafter, on Mondays at 4:00. At the first meeting a constitu-

Take Transient in Custody, Saturday

Paul Thomas McNabb, a transient who gave his address as Port Wayne, Ind., was taken in custody by Highland Park police Saturday evening. The man's queer actions when he called at the Jerome Goodman home at 770 S. Green Bay road after his car had run out of gas, prompted Mr. Goodman to call the police. McNabb was taken to Waukegan for observation and a sanity test.

All stamp fans of grammar school age who would like to meet with others like themselves have a chance now to get in on the beginnings of this club and help develop it. Those who are interested should come to the Community House next Monday at 4:00.

Halloween Party
On Thursday evening, October 31, at the Community Center a big Halloween party and table tennis exhibition match will promote good will and harmless fun.

Top flight table tennis players will give an exhibition of expert play at 8:30, followed by a short clinic and instruction.

Refreshments contributed generously by local merchants will be served, and games and contests before and after the match will add to the evening's fun. All who want a good social evening are invited to the community party.

Group Organizes To Promote Care Of St. Mary's Cemetery

A committee of Highland Park, Deerfield and Highwood people has been organized for the purpose of forming an association to promote the care and upkeep of St. Mary's, sometimes known as Mooney's cemetery.

The aim of the association is to lay in water and sewers which are now totally lacking and to provide a fund for a whole or part time caretaker.

Attempts have been made to notify as many lot holders and single grave holders as possible, but in the event that any have been missed, the committee would like to have them communicate with one of the following: John Picchietti, Silvio Pasquesi, Mrs. Mary Somenzi or Nancy Santi.

BLAINE-STEVENS NUPTIALS

On Tuesday evening, November 5, Miss Joan Blaine of 204 Lewellyn avenue will become the bride of Sgt. John Stevens of Fort Sheridan. The ceremony will take place at the Episcopal church, Highland Park, at 8 o'clock, with the Rev. Christoph Keller reading the vows. The young couple will be attended by Mr. and Mrs. Felix Lapello of Highwood, and invitations have already been sent out to their many friends to attend the reception at the Lapello home at 204 Lewellyn avenue.

Little Ernest Santi Jr. was host to a group of children and their mothers last Sunday in honor of his second birthday. The children were entertained by the showing of several movies by Mr. Santi, including one of Brookfield zoo.

Mrs. Oreste Baldi entertained eight friends at her home on Saturday evening at a card party.

While walking east of the North Shore Line station in Highwood, Ozzie Mazetti, Jack Eustace and Robert Massini found 26 empty cartridge belts. The boys turned the belts over to Chief of Police John DeSmidt of Highwood, who in turn gave them to Fort Sheridan authorities.

Michele Lomorro has announced that Highwood now has a local lodge of the Order of the Sons of Italy and America, following the inauguration ceremonies which took place at 7 p.m. Sunday at the Labor Temple. Mr. Lomorro is the first president, while Attorney George J. Spatuzze of Chicago, grand venerable of Illinois grand lodge, delivered the principal address.

This fraternal organization, composed of American citizens of Italian descent, is one of the largest in the country, boasting 1906 chapters, as well as a membership of 500,000.

The purpose of the order is "to promote the civic and social education of its own members in duties as citizens of this great nation and to promote fundamental conceptions of Americanism based upon respect for the Constitution, obedience to its laws, devotion to the government of the republic, and the defense of its institutions."

The F. C. Howes have moved from 145 Highwood avenue into the John C. Willman home on Chestnut street.

Friends of Mrs. Sante Pasquesi will be glad to know that she has returned home from the Highland Park hospital and is doing very nicely.

Among the many Hallowe'en parties being given tonight (Thursday) is that being given at the Spano home, 231 North avenue. Co-hostesses at the party will be Josephine Spano, Genevieve Bailey, Betty Calzia, Betty Jane Sandberg, Geneva Plumlee, Antoinette Gotti, Dolores Raffi and Laurine Costo.

The Adult Education class celebrated a costume Halloween party on Tuesday evening in the Cuore Arte club rooms. There were games, dancing and refreshments. Prize for the best costume went to Mrs. Evelyn Dinelli.

The Oak Terrace PTA will sponsor a Book Fair at the school on the evening of November 12 and all day November 13. A representative from one of the large Chicago stores will be on hand to take orders for books for all grades, as well as orders for Christmas gifts.
