

Only 200 Reserved Seats Available for Educational Revue

Only 200 reserved seats will be available in Highland Park for the educational revue, "On Our Way," which is to be given in the Waukegan Township High school gymnasium on November 13 and November 14 at 8 o'clock by the eight public high schools of Lake county. The reserved seats for each performance have been apportioned among the cooperating schools so that the citizens of each community will have an opportunity to attend this pageant which dramatizes the work of the high schools in commemoration of American Education Week. The tickets will be on sale at the box office of the local high school on November 5 and 6 from 8:00 to 8:40 in the morning and from 3:30 until 4:00 in the afternoon, and on November 7 at the annual P-T.A. visiting night.

Highland Park High school will present the Christmas scene and will furnish the principal actors for the Patriotic Finale under the direction of Miss Elyse Rinkenberger of the local faculty; the Highland Park High school Choir under the direction of Mr. Walter Aschenbrenner will sing several selections. The public speaking choir consists of the following students: Alice Adanson, Betty Blough, Fern Bolish, Connie Bruce, Lucille Eaton, Sheldon Fell, Gloria Golden, Janet Hansen, Nellie Hayes, Grace Laing, Marion Maurizi, Constance Meyers, Helen Moroney, Jim Muzik, Agnes Naughton, Shirley Nelson, Dominic Panerli, Romano Portilia, George Ralph, June Schlung, James Segneri, Fred Shelton, Tom Stein, Dick Van Arsdale, Bruce Van Guilder, Betty Varner, Harold Weiler, and Elsie Werhnaik. On November 13, in the first performance, the reader in the Christmas scene will be William Karger, and the soloist will be Clifford Nall. In the finale the chronicler will be Jean Moroney. On November 14 the reader will be Roland Hoermann, the soloist, George Bickler, and the chronicler, Joan Johnson.

The personnel of the singing chorus from Highland Park High school is as follows:

First soprano — Marion Berg, Gloria Ligari, Natalie Olson, Audrey Weasling.
 First tenor — Robert Schroeder.
 Second tenor — Jane Meyerhoff, Alice Rossiter, Bertha Thompson.

 Second Alto — Suzanne Howe, Jane Krause, Mary Jane McFadden.
 Second bass — Salvatore Belmonti, Paul Gerhardt, Charles Lichtwilt, Mike Pesola, John Pagliani.

"I Want a Divorce" Feature Next Week On Deerpath Screen

"Dr Kildare Goes Home," in which Lew Ayres, Lionel Barrymore and John Shepton join hands to establish a clinic in a country town and "live again and like it," will be presented at the Deerpath theatre Friday and Saturday, November 1 and 2. Comedy high spots include the planned elopement of Ayres and Lorraine Day, who suddenly discover that the whole town knows their secret. Other players include Alma Kruger, Samuel S. Hinds, Emma Dunn, Walter Kingsford, Nat Penelton, and Marie Blake.

The adventure, romance and crackling action of the Old Southwest come to the screen in "Rangers of Fortune," playing at the Deerpath theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, November 3, 4 and 5, and stars Fred MacMurray and Patricia Morison. Prominently cast in supporting roles are Albert Dekker, Gilbert Roland, Joseph Schildkraut, Dick Foran and Betty Brewer.

A picture slated to rank as one of the most delightful comedy-dramas of the season, one in which Joan Blondell and Dick Powell are seen together as man and wife, will be presented Wednesday and Thursday, November 6 and 7, at the Deerpath theatre. It's Paramount's "I Want a Divorce," which features Gloria Dickson, Frank Fay, Jessie Ralph, and Conrad Nagel in supporting roles.
