

Ravinia School Annual Book Fair Opens Next Tuesday

The Ravinia Annual Book Fair, under the management this year of Mrs. Jules Ladany, opens in the gymnasium of the Ravinia school at 9 a.m. Tuesday, November 12. The fair will continue for four days, closing daily at 5 o'clock. Profits from the fair are used by the Ravinia P.T.A. for the purchase of additional books for the school library, for movie films for the school, and for other worthwhile investments.

The fair promises to be bigger and better than ever. Through cooperation with Kroch's Book Store of Chicago, fascinating books for readers of all are to be assembled. There will be countless new illustrated books for children, cultural books for the entire family, best sellers, and mystery books for Dad. An important and popular table is the re-sale stand, where used books are bought for a song.

Sales are managed this year by Mrs. Charles Grimes and Mrs. Ernest Loeb, with an impressive committee consisting of the following: Mesdames Arenberg, Gutman, Humphrey, Shambert, Jennings, Edwards, Harris, George, Makelin, Garrison, McMasters, Parry, White, Lowenthal, Hackler, Lautman, Law, Angster, Murphy, Barr, Livingston, Hartman, Brown, Landauer, Pollack, Waggett, Schoffner, Hotchkiss, Easton, Foreman, Date, Leopold, Redick, and Schimalfeny. Mrs. Charles DeLeuw is in charge of publicity.

Parents are urged to attend the P.T.A. meeting in the school Tuesday night, November 12 at 8 p.m. to see a program of the modern educational films which are available for use in our schools. There will be no business program, and doors are open for book browsing at the fair after 7 o'clock. Children are not invited!
