Chief Andrews Speaks To Troop 324 Tuesday

Chief of Police Rex R. Andrews was guest speaker at Troop 324's Scout meeting Tuesday evening at an open house session in the Scout rooms of the Highland Park Presbyterian church.

Mr. Andrews discussed in plain language the problem of crime participation by the 'teen age boy, and stated that no record has been disclosed of a Boy Scout of reasonable rank ever having been sentenced to a penal institution. He encouraged the Scouts to take their places in building a stronger democracy and better citizenship by continuing to adhere closely to the Scout oath and law.

Scout Executive Clifton G. Speer and Troop Committeeman Dr. Louis W. Sherwin gave brief talks.

Mr. W. A. Mann, chairman of the Troop Committee, introduced his associates and outlined the improved program and facilities of the troop.

Scoutmaster Dr. Baker M. Hamilton welcomed the following new Scouts to the Troop: Marco Santi, Bob Klemp, Bob Berg, Jack Kuhn, Harold Allen, Andy Andrews, Rog-
