BEAN SUPPER

A bean supper for Scouts and their Dads of Troop 52, Deerfield, will be held Monday, Dec. 2, at 6:45 p.m. in the Presbyterian church. Philip Tennis Sr. is chairman of the troop committee planning the dinner and get-together. Great Lakes Navy Chaplain A. O. Martin will be the guest speaker. New boys will be inducted into the troop and tenderfoot badges will be awarded. John Derby is scoutmaster.

VESPER SERVICE

Hyman Mills and his choir of negro singers will present a program of Negro Spirituals on Sunday, at a vesper service at four o'clock, in St. Paul's Evangelical church. Mr. Mills and his choir have been in Deerfield on several previous occasions and their concerts are always enjoyed. Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok, pastor of St. Paul's church, extends an invitation to the community.

Children of the Deerfield Grammar school brought foods (not perishable) to school last Wednesday, which were removed to the Town Hall for distribution by Supervisor

Ross R. Sherman to the needy families in West Deerfield Township.

For the month of December the school will have its annual project of collecting used clothing and toys, to be repaired at the school, and distributed at Christmas to children of the less fortunate families. High school sessions will also fill Christmas baskets.

ROTARY CLUB

The following appeared in the "Ten Years Ago" column of a Waukegan paper on November 21:

Deerfield—The new Deerfield Rotary club, sponsored by the Highland Park club, last night was formally presented with its charter at a gathering attended by 300 Rotarians from all sections of the state and several prominent representatives of Rotary International. A party of about fifteen Waukegan club members were in attendance. Officers of the Deerfield club are: J. P. O'Connell, president; W. B. Metcalf, vice president; Carl E. Bates, C. W. Boyle, Harold E. Fisher, W. B. Metcalf, J. P. O'Connell, George J. Page and Harold R. Vant, are directors. Thirteen committees have already been appointed to carry on the various phases of work connected with the club's activities.

CONVENTION

The annual Sunday School convention of the Arlington Heights district was held on Sunday at St. Paul's Evangelical church, Deerfield. Seventy teachers, officers and pastors attended. Rev. T. W. Nenzel, professor of Religion at Elmhurst college, was the speaker. The next yearly meeting of the group will convene at St. Peter's church in Northbrook. Teachers and officers of the host church served tea at the close of the session.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS

The Deerfield Camp of Royal Neighbors of America will meet on Thursday evening, Dec. 12, at eight o'clock in the Town Hall on Deerfield road. The annual election of officers will be held. Mrs. Otto Gieske is Oracle.

Dr. William F. Weir is conducting a series of Coaching Conferences in Church Administration the first part of December in the Synod of New England. He and Mrs. Weir will be guests of Dr. John B. Weir's family in New York City. During Dr. Weir's absence the pulpit of the Deerfield Presbyterian church will have speakers who are leaders of marked ability in strategic positions. On December 1, Rev. Paul S. Johnson, D.D., executive secretary of the Church Extension Board of the Chicago Presbytery will occupy the pulpit; on December 8, Rev. Robert Lee Sawyer, D.D., president of the Presbyterian College of Christian Education; and on December 15, Rev. William Seath, superintendent of the Christian Industrial League, Chicago, will preach.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Henrickson of 720 Chestnut St., Deerfield, are having a new home built on Balsam road in Highland Park.

Mrs. Harry Clavey was hostess to members of her bridge club on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. James Kilroy will entertain the club on December 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Goodpasture had as their dinner guests on Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. George Chester Bradley of Auburn, Ill. and J. O. Williamson of Chicago. The Goodpastures were Thanksgiving Day guests of William Rose of Paterson, N. J., at the L'Aiglon in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Goodpasture will celebrate their 20th wedding anniversary at a party of
