

Highwood Highlights

LENA CLANDT, Representative

Telephone H. P. 53

ROSE DISPARRI- EARL REYNOLDS TO WED

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Disparri announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Rose, to Earl Reynolds of Highwood, on Saturday morning, November 30, at the St. James church. Father Ward will hear the nuptial vows.

Miss Disparri has chosen her sister, Mrs. Phyllis Ronchetto, for her matron of honor, while Mrs. Josephine Quarta and Miss Erma DeBartolo will attend as bridesmaids. After a week's honeymoon, the couple will make their home on Highwood avenue, Highwood.

Friends of Miss Signe Lehto honored her at a miscellaneous shower at the St. James Parish hall on Monday evening. The evening was spent in playing bunco with first prize going to Mrs. Anna Malmquist; second, Mrs. Enis Lauridson, and booby, Mrs. Della Lucchi.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander DeBartolo had as their Thanksgiving dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. John Leonardi and children, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Leonardi and daughter, Louise, and Mr. and Mrs. James Louizzo and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Young spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. Young's mother, Mrs. Georgiana Miller, of Bismarke, Ill.

At the meeting last week of the Bellarmine club plans were made to attend the annual retreat held on Sunday in Antioch. Following the short business meeting an informal dance was held.

A group of philanthropic workers held a dance Saturday night at the Labor Temple for a needy family. They were rewarded by the attendance of a large crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Luebke were the guests on Thanksgiving Day of Mr. and Mrs. George O'Connell of Chicago.

The Emanon League, composed of Highwood and Highland Park business girls, met at the YWCA on Tuesday evening for a business meeting.

Mrs. Rudy Notagiaco, social chairman of the Junior Italian Women's Prosperity club, has planned a scavenger hunt to follow the regular business meeting of the club this evening (Thursday). During the meeting election of a sergeant-at-arms will also take place.

The meeting had been postponed a week because it fell on Thanksgiving. Miss Vanda Nannini will have charge of the refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Bethune left last Tuesday for Fort Riley, Kansas, where Mr. Bethune has been transferred.

This Saturday, November 30, the Highwood social service is sponsoring their dance at the Labor Temple. Those on the committee in charge of the affair are: flowers, Miss Sylvia DeBartolo and Miss Mary Santi; tickets, Dominic Pasquesi, Mrs. Fred Lund, Ray Dotti, Daniel Baruffi, and Mrs. Sam Somenzi; kitchen, Joseph Caraffi, Gene Fiochi, and Robert Saielli; check-room, Joseph Ariano; and publicity, Mrs. Rosalie Blum and Mrs. Ray Suzzi. Lenzi's orchestra will furnish the music.

Hugh Johnson and Mr. Elmer Carlson and son Robert spent the weekend duck hunting on the Mississippi river, Galena, Ill.

The Lake County Firemen's association met in Highwood Monday night, with Highwood and Highland Park departments acting as hosts. James Ashworth, superintendent of the Waukegan Waterworks, was the main speaker, discussing "Water supply and the requirements set by the National Board of Fire Underwriters for adequate water supply for municipal fire protection." Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Doland were hosts on Thanksgiving day to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shelton, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Caselli and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wing, all of Highwood.

The Italian Women's Prosperity club met on Tuesday instead of today (Thursday) which is their regular meeting night. Technicolor moving pictures were shown, which lasted an hour. For refreshments served following the movie, Chairman Mrs. Gena DeBartolo chose turkey sandwiches.

Starting Friday at 8 p.m. a dance will be given in the school auditorium by members of the P.T.A. association, the school board and the faculty of the Oak Terrace school. Purpose of the affair is to raise funds for the children's annual Christmas party. Miss Blanche Thomas of the faculty is party chairman and Mrs. Andrew Wysocky is in charge of tickets. All parents of Oak Terrace children and their friends are invited.

One Highwood boy has decided to make his hobby a success. He is Dave Pasquesi of 212 Railway avenue. Dave now has a thousand pencils on display and no two are alike. They are all colors, sizes and shapes, and all carry a message of advertising, funny sayings, or handy information. Mr. Pasquesi's aim now is to get one of those gigantic seven-foot-long pencils used in department store windows for display purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. August Lindstrom held open house on Thanksgiving Day in honor of the christening of their grandson, Rondell John Secundi. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Johanson of the Zion Lutheran church, with Mrs. Eleanor Gibbs and Nello Silvestrini acting as godparents. The baby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Secundi.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Berti of Highwood avenue announce the birth of a boy at the Highland Park hospital on November 21. They have named their little son Robert Lloyd.

A marriage license was applied for in Waukegan by Joseph J. Margelli of Highwood, and Elvira Diefenbach of Highland Park.

Mayor Charles Portilia in a speech Friday night, said that his community probably had more to be thankful for this Thanksgiving than it has had since the boom days of the late 20's. He said "We are making progress municipally and more important, most of us still enjoy good health which is something we usually think about at Thanksgiving time.

May I take this occasion to express to the residents of Highwood and the entire county for that matter, my hope that they not only enjoy a bountiful Thanksgiving but experience a future of well being."

Highwood was well represented in the fourth annual Day of Recollection sponsored by the Lake County Catholic Youth Federation at the Antioch church last Sunday. "Faith, Hope and Charity" was chosen for the theme this year. Vincent Zerafa, incumbent president presided at the affair, while Ambrose Cantagallo, newly-elected president, will take over meetings at the next one, to be held in January at St. James church.

There are four major events sponsored by the federation, spring conference, midsummer dance, Day of Recollection, and a winter banquet to be held in mid-February. His Excellency Bishop Bernard Sheil has been invited to be guest speaker. Another guest of honor will be William Campbell, newly appointed judge of the federal court.

The Joys of Christmas

They will be experienced in a high degree by our Christmas Club Members, numbering 633.

They have standing to their credit, $35,422.00 which will be paid on December 1st, 1940, at the Savings Teller window.

Watch for announcement of 1941 Club.

The First National Bank of Highland Park

Member of

THE FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION