

For Her Christmas—Uhlemann
Precious Furs

If you are a man—who knows nothing of furs, except their cost and that she looks lovely in them, buy her a Uhlemann Silver Fox coat gleaming frostily with silver . . . a Mink wrap—exquisite tribute to her beauty . . . Sables, dramatically lovely. Your prestige with her will go up—and your bank balance won't go down so very far! If you're a woman—who knows that the best is always cheapest in the long run—tell him to shop for your Christmas at Uhlemann's.

1875 65TH ANNIVERSARY 1940

UHLEMANN FURS

7 WEST MADISON STREET CORNER STATE

Chicago's Oldest Exclusive Furrier

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Roach and Miss Beverly Roach will receive on New Year's Day at their home on Ravine drive. The occasion will be Miss Roach's debut. Miss Roach is a sophomore at Northwestern university.

Mrs. Joseph Schwall entertained her club at dessert bridge Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Hammond and family entertained at a belated Thanksgiving dinner on Sunday. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hammond (Kay Johnson) of Evanston, Mr. and Mrs. James Falkenburg (Dorothy Hammond) and daughter Hartley King of Barrington, Miss Lucie Rumsey of Winnetka, Miss Sylvia Desmond of Winnetka, Geo. McLellan of this city, Miss Gloria Greer of Deerfield and Mr. Whitt Lowe of Corpus Christie, Texas.

Mrs. F. P. Biggs of S. Linden avenue is returning today (Thursday) from a short visit with her mother, Mrs. George Crampton, in Moline, Ill.

Whitney Lowe of Hazel avenue returned to his position in Corpus Christie, Texas, on Tuesday after a two weeks stay here.

A marriage license has been issued recently in Chicago to Otto F. Wenzel of Chicago and Irma Von der Linden of Highland Park.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. David T. Sanders had as their dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Compton. Mr. Compton is Assistant Secretary of the Navy, who was at the Great Lakes Naval Station Monday on an inspection tour.

Mrs. E. F. Gillilan and son Edward have returned to their home in Lincoln, Neb., after spending six weeks with Mrs. Gillilan's mother, Mrs. A. S. Loomis.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brush of Dale avenue will entertain twenty at a dinner and bridge party Saturday evening.

Miss Anna Cawley was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller at tea Sunday. The Millers, former residents of Highland Park, live on the "south side," Chicago.

Miss Robbie Lou Schneider is continuing in the Mathematics department at Northwestern university as assistant in charge of the statistics laboratory. She retains her position as secretary to Professor E. J. Moulton, head of the Mathematics department and editor-in-chief of the American Mathematical Monthly. Recently she was honored by being elected to two offices: president of Lambda chapter of Sigma Delta Epsilon, national honorary fraternity for graduate women in science; and also secretary-treasurer of the Mathematics Club on the campus. In her "spare moments" she is writing her thesis for another master's degree—an M.S. in Mathematics.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Grant of Crescent court are the proud parents of a son, William Fred Grant Jr., born Saturday, Nov. 30, at the Victory Memorial hospital.

Gene Juhrend of Highland Park was awarded his "C" sweater for football in a special assembly Monday morning at Cornell college. Gene, who is a sophomore, played tackle throughout the season.

Mrs. W. D. Mann, of Sheridan road, is a guest for two weeks at Beekman Tower Hotel in New York City.

Three young men of Highland Park are among the 247 students enrolled in the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps at Northwestern university. This year the enrollment is the largest in the history of the unit.

The Highland Park students are: Glen Keats, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Keats. A member of Sigma Nu social fraternity and a senior in the school of commerce, Keats has been active in the Radio club, Waa-Mu shows, intramural events, and on the Junior Prom and Homecoming committees.

Harold Pfister, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pfister, who is a junior in the school of commerce. A member of Sigma Nau social fraternity, he has been active on the Freshman class commission, the Inter-fraternity council, and in Sextant, honorary naval society.

Thomas Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Simpson, who is a sophomore in the college of liberal arts. Also a member of Sigma Nu fraternity, he has participated in varsity football and intramural baseball.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hammond of Evanston spent last week hunting in Warsaw, Ill., while their son Dickie stayed with his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Jared Johnson of S. Sheridan road.

SWANK SET...with collar holder and "Duo-gram" cravat chain... packaged for Graduation gift... $2.50

Garnett's Men's Store

Mrs. George den avenue, ent and bridge We

Mrs. William igan avenue wa ular bridge ch

During the Thanksgiving

W. Blanchard who with Mrs. son, Paul W. I at a Thanksg given at the Blanchard Sr. T 14 guests, incl friends. The included Mrs. J daughter Emm and Mrs. Wm. Marilyn o Rav chard's niece, Sandstrom, of Captain Blanch is Selfridge Mich.

Mr. and Mr left Monday o LaHarpe, Kan.

Mrs. Evaline mother of John died Tuesday cago. Funeral today at 1:30 gan avenue, Ch was one of t Chicago, comi wagon in 1856

Mr. Charles cing at the N hospital in Ch incurred on No vator in the B in Chicago, on senger, fell one to the pit. He leg and bruise when he grasp in trying to av pected home in

Mrs. Gerald Park visited he in-law, Mr. and sen of Hollywo in November.

On Saturda three were a Earl Carroll th the revue.

The Sigma M

Put C Rugs

