BETTY HOFFMANN MARRIES ROBERT MEYER

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Hoffmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mathias Hoffmann of Waukegan road, Deerfield, and Robert Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Meyer and Arlington Heights, was solemnized on Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the home of the groom's parents in Arlington Heights with the groom's maternal grandfather, the Rev. Mr. Noak, an octogenarian, and former pastor of the Lutheran church in that city, officiating. Only the members of the families of the bride and groom were present for the ceremony and for the dinner which followed.

Miss Mary Ann Hoffmann, eldest sister of the bride, was her maid of honor and Walter Meyer served his brother as best man. The bride wore an afternoon frock of gold silk and a corsage of small chrysanthemums. The young couple went to California, by airplane, stopping at St. Louis, San Francisco and Los Angeles, for a week's honeymoon, and will live in Chicago upon their return. The groom is employed by the American Airlines.

GIRL SCOUTS

Girl Scouts of Deerfield Troop 1 are meeting each Monday at 3:30 p.m. in the Presbyterian church. Mrs. F. W. Nolde and Mrs. Harold Noyes are captains. The six new members to be initiated next Monday afternoon are Helen Ullmann, Helene Meyers, Margaret Lang, Dolores Demgen, Marjorie Marshall and Phyllis Bell. Troop 1 is composed of the younger girls and Troop 11, which meets Monday evenings, is for the older girls.

NATURALIZATION

The children of the eighth grades of the Wilmot, Holy Cross and Deerfield Grammar schools are attending a naturalization hearing and inspection tour of the Lake County Court House today in Waukegan. A bus left the school this morning at 8:30 taking the children with Mrs. George Jacobs, Mrs. Frank Jacobs and Mrs. John Welch as chaperones. Superintendent Lester B. Ball also accompanied the group. Mrs. William Tennermann, who is chairman of the Americanism committee, which sponsors this annual trip for the children, is unable to attend and Mrs. George Jacobs is taking her place on the tour.

WILMOT SCHOOL PARTY

A card party is being sponsored by the Mother's club at the Wilmot school, Deerfield's west side school, on Saturday, Dec. 14, at 8:00 p.m. Mrs. Michael S. Palmer, president, has appointed the following committees: refreshments, Mrs. George Shaw, Mrs. James Mailfald, Mrs. Mary E. McDevitt, Mrs. Robert Alexander, Mrs. John Armstrong, and Mrs. Paul Stine; prizes, Mrs. Victor Carlson, Mrs. Ben Siljestrom and Mrs. Roy Clavey; tickets, Mrs. Harry Thomson, Mrs. Edward Reagan, and Mrs. Palmer. A portable radio is to be the main prize and there will be table prizes and refreshments.

BEAUTY SHOP

Mrs. Alice Aylesworth McGinnis has sold her Deerfield Beauty show to Mrs. Marjorie Frost Rugen and is retiring from business. Miss Rugen has worked for Mrs. McGinnis for the past six and one-half years, first as a part-time beautician, and for the last three years, as a full time operator. Miss Marie Freiman will remain in the shop as Mrs. Rugen's assistant and Miss Bessie Ott will be an additional worker to make the appointments, etc. The shop will remain in its present location on Deerfield road.

ALTAR AND ROSARY

Mrs. Frances Diebert of Fair Oaks avenue will be hostess to members of the Altar and Rosary society of the Holy Cross church on Friday at three o'clock at a tea. There will be a short business meeting with the annual election of officers. Mrs. Alex Willman is president of the society.

The Wilmot Mother's club met Tuesday afternoon at the school. Mrs. Michael S. Palmer, president, introduced the music teacher, Mrs. Mary Ann MacFaddon, who gave a musical program. The members made plans for their benefit card party to be held on Saturday evening, Dec. 14, at the school. Hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. William Diener and Mrs. Paul Stine.

Geraldine Clavey, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clavey, is quarantined at her home on Forest avenue, for scarlet fever.

Mrs. David Inman will entertain the Just Sew club on Tuesday at her home on Beverly place.

Miss Edel Hansen, a special nurse for Mr. A. C. C. Timm at the Highland Park hospital, fell and broke her right arm last Friday. Miss Erickson is Mr. Timm's new nurse.

Mrs. Robert Page will be hostess at a Christmas party for members of the Bethlehem Woman's auxiliary on Thursday, Dec. 26, at her home on Arbor Vitae road.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harder were hosts to fourteen guests at dinner on Sunday evening at their home on Chestnut street. Guests were from Northbrook, Glencoe and Highland Park.

On Wednesday evening the George Harders were hosts at a family dinner. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Whitcomb and two sons of Barrington, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Whitcomb and son, Wallace, Mrs. Minnie Whitcomb and two sons, Irving and Leslie.

Mrs. Frances Diebert attended the celebration of the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lama in Chicago on Saturday evening. During the evening the engagement of their daughter, Dolores, and Walter Peterson, was announced. Miss Lama is a granddaughter of Mrs. John Weber, a former Deerfield resident.

Mrs. R. F. Grohe, Mrs. Ralph Peterson and Mrs. Frances Diebert attended a bridge party on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Joseph Schwall in Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Petersen had as their guests on Sunday eve-
