LEHTO-PIERANTONI NUPTIALS

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lehto of Crystal Falls, Michigan, announce the marriage of their daughter Signe, to Ralph Pierantoni, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Pierantoni of North Ave., on Saturday morning at 11:30 o'clock. Father Ward read the service in the St. James rectory. About 25 guests attended the wedding breakfast that followed.

The bride was attired in a blue afternoon crepe dress, while her attendant, Miss Katherine Orlandini, wore a beige wool dress. Mr. Raymond Gherardini served the groom as best man.

A reception was held in the evening in the Cuore Arte club rooms. Following a short honeymoon, the young couple will make their home in Highwood.

A marriage license was applied for last week by Guido Corsini of Highwood and Mrs. Lena Nardini of Highland Park.

ROSE DISPARRI- EARL REYNOLDS WED

At a pretty service Saturday morning Miss Rose Disparri, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Disparri of Highwood Ave., became the bride of Earl Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reynolds of Verdun, Ill. Father Ward read the nuptial vows at a 10:00 high mass at the St. James church. Following the ceremony a dinner was given for the bridal party and relatives at the Union hotel in Wheeling.

The bride wore the traditional white satin gown with tiara and long veil. She carried a bouquet of roses. Her sister, Mrs. Phyllis Ronchetto acting as matron of honor, wore a blue silk jersey, gown with attached hood and fully pleated bodice. The bridesmaid, Miss Erma DeBartolo and Mrs. Josephine Quarta, were likewise gowned in pink. The attendants all wore tiaras and blushers to match and carried pink roses. Bud Ronchetto served as best man, and Vincent Quarta ushered.

A reception was held in the evening at the Club Lorraine for their many friends and relatives. Following a week's honeymoon trip in southern Illinois, the couple will reside on Highwood Ave.

Fire at the Inman home at 249 North Ave., on Tuesday morning caused over $100 worth of damage. Mrs. Inman discovered the blaze and immediately called the fire department. The fire started from a faulty chimney and spread to the roof. Einar Englund and Reno Giangorgi were cut on the hands while trying to extinguish the blaze, and were given first aid treatment.
