BAPTIST-McHENRY WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Julius C. Brenza of Chicago announce the marriage December 7 of their daughter, Jane Ross Baptist, to George McHenry Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. McHenry of Old Elm road. The ceremony took place in the Howes Memorial chapel, in Evanston, with Rev. Luc- cock reading the nuptials.

Mrs. Joseph Buell of Princeton avenue and Carroll McHenry, the groom's brother, were the young couple's attendants. After a three weeks wedding trip to New Orleans and through the south, Mr. Mc- Henry and his bride will make their home in Hinsdale.

Mr. and Mrs. McHenry Sr. en- tertained thirty of the young cou- ple's friends at a dinner party at their home Friday evening. On Sat- urday evening Mr. and Mrs. Bren- za gave a small dinner party for just the two immediate families.

BUSER-BONSON NUPTIALS

Miss Vera F. Buser of Palatine, Ill., became the bride of Elmer E. Bonson of Highland Park at a small wedding ceremony in Deer- field last Saturday evening. The nuptials were read by Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok in Deerfield at 8:30.

Mr. Edward Merrell, an archi- tect and former resident of High- land Park, has been called to Wash- ington by the government for a year's duty in the architectural field. His wife, the former Vic- toria Luther, and children are liv- ing in Evanston.

Mrs. William J. Nelson has been confined to her bed with a chest cold the past week.

Mrs. Robert Umbach of Glenview avenue entertained her Chicago bridge club at luncheon Tuesday.

Mrs. Whitt Schultz of Ridge- wood place entertained at tea Tues- day afternoon.

Dr. W. E. Looby left recently for Carlisle, Pa., for five weeks training before going to Camp

Grant, Rockford, Ill. At Camp Grant he will be an instructor in the medical corps, for a year. Mrs. Looby has gone to Pasadena, Calif., to visit her mother and sister for five weeks then will join her hus- band at Camp Grant.

Mrs. Peter J. Weber is hostess to the Ridgewood Drive bridge club at dessert-bridge today (Thurs- ay).

Mrs. Kenneth B. Lacy was host- ess to the Bannockburn Mothers club at their regular business meet- ing Wednesday. Dessert was serv- ed.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bridges en- tertained at a supper party Sun- day evening. Mr. Bridges showed his guests movies taken on their trip to Colorado last year and Mr. Gordon Leonard showed the movies of his trip up north this fall.

Mr. Connor Creigh is returning to his home Saturday from Vincennes, Indiana.

Bob Childs spent Sunday skiing with a group of friends at Holy Hill, Wis.

Mrs. Joseph Schwall of Clifton avenue suffered a broken arm Mon- day while trying to close her car door which had sprung open, while backing the vehicle out of the gar- age.

Mr. Lew Sarrett Jr., son of Prof. Lew Sarrett of Northwestern uni- versity and Mrs. Sarrett, will re- turn from Princeton university about Dec. 15 to spend the holidays at his home, 1732 S. Greenbay road. Mr. Sarrett, since graduating from Northwestern university in 1939, has
