

Chicago Monticello College Club Gives Tea Dance Dec. 28th

The Chicago Monticello College club is entertaining during the Christmas holidays with a tea dance at the Orrington hotel on Saturday afternoon, December 28, from 4 to 6:30 o'clock. The club is giving the tea dance as a courtesy to the Monticello students that are home for the holidays, their friends, and special guests of the club. Mrs. R. Chester Walling, 1247 21st, Wilmette, is the president of the Chicago Monticello College club. Her board includes: Mrs. Wm. R. Purcell, 110 Glenwood Ave., Glencoe; Mrs. Harry W. Finnell, 2604 Noyes Ave., Evanston. Mrs. Frank Jaquith, 819 Lincoln, Evanston. Mrs. Charles Whittock, 569 Pennsylvania, Glen Ellyn; Mrs. George S. Milnor, 127 Laurel Ave., Wilmette; Mrs. Ralph M. Sommers, 1956 W. 94th St., Chicago; and Mrs. K. E. Shepard, 1214 Lake Shore, Evanston, Ill.

Deerfield Couple Celebrates Golden Wedding Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCraren Jr. of Deerfield road, Highland Park, observed their 50th wedding anniversary at a family gathering on Saturday. Mr. McCraren's father, Thomas McCraren Sr., came to Deerfield township in 1848, purchasing 80 acres west of Highland Park from the government and the deed was signed by President James K. Polk. He purchased more property in that vicinity and had 185 acres. Thomas McCraren Jr. married Elizabeth Elleen Fowler of Montivedo, Minn. They had eight children, Ellen F., John, James, Bernard, Joseph, Betty, Mary and Helen. Betty, Mary and Helen died when they were little. Ellen is now Mrs. John Traut of Ivanhoe, and has been a teacher in Lake county schools for many years. John went west over 20 years ago and has never been heard from. Joseph lives in Deerfield and the other children in Highland Park.

Thomas McCraren Jr. was a fireman on the Fargo division of the C. M. St. Paul R. R. for a number of years. Getting tired of the cold winters of the north he decided to go south and went to Tennessee, and was engineer for many years on the Southern R.R. and then as his father was declining in age he and his family came home over 30 years ago to relieve him of the farm duties and has since lived in the old homestead on Deerfield road where the 50th anniversary was observed. They have six grandchildren.

Business Is Business

She: "Here's your ring back. I cannot marry you for I love someone else."

He: "Who is he?"

She (nervously): "You're not going to kill him?"

He: "No. But I'll try to sell him the ring."

"Y" Clubs To Hold Christmas Party Dec. 13

Two Y.W.C.A. clubs, the "Toppers' Drama Group" and the "Foot-lighters" are giving a Christmas party December 13, at 7:30 p.m. for some of the children from the Dorcas Home. It will be a costume party. There will be some skits by Miss Betty Jane Stewart and Miss Mary Lou Keaster, dancing by some of Agnes Daly's pupils, and singing of Christmas carols. The younger girls made invitations and decorated the Christmas tree at their club meeting. The business girls are furnishing the refreshments and planning the evening's entertainment.

Silver Tea Sunday At Trinity Church

Trinity Guild and Woman's Auxiliary have invited the members of Trinity church to a Silver Tea on Sunday afternoon, December 15. The Guild is hoping that all the parishioners will drop in at the Parish House between 4 and 6 o'clock for a cup of tea and a friendly visit.

Henry T. Wright To Address Lake County Insurance Association

Harry T. Wright, Banockburn, president of the National Life Underwriters association, and member of the Million Dollar Round table group all of whom have sold $1,000,000 worth of life insurance, will be the principal speaker at a meeting of the Lake County Life Insurance association Friday night in Glen Flora country club.

The occasion will be the ninth annual ladies night banquet and will begin at 6:30 p.m. Also present at the meeting will be Charles J. Zimmerman of Chicago, past president of the national organization.

The Waukegan Township high school chorus, lead by George Schumann, will present several songs on the program. Those wishing to attend may procure tickets from John Lentz, 210 Washington St., in Waukegan.
