Milk Truck Driver Forced Off Road

Tuesday morning about 6:34 a.m. Highland Park police were notified by a driver for Cream Crest Dairy, 1000 Skokie Blvd., Niles Center, that he was being molested and forced off the pavement, on the Skokie highway near Highland Park, while making early morning deliveries, by a black sedan in which were riding four men. It is believed that the trouble developed from the fact that the Cream Crest drivers are not union members.

Other violence was also reported along the north shore.

William Kopp Dies In Seattle, Wash.

William Kopp of Seattle, Washington, died Tuesday, December 3, at the age of 65. Death was due to fatal injuries received in a fall Nov. 20.

Mr. Kopp was the son of the late William Kopp of this city. Burial services were held Dec. 7 in Seattle.

LOCAL STORES OPEN EVENINGS

Beginning Saturday evening and continuing through Christmas Eve, all Highland Park retail stores will remain open until 9 p.m. each evening with the exception of Sunday.

Highland Park stores have a very attractive array of merchandise suitable for every member of the family. There are practical and useful gifts as well as those more attractive, sentimental and intimate treasures.

Orderly shelves and counters stocked with clean merchandise, which has not been mawled about, is an inspiration to shoppers.

While shopping leisurely without the hustle and bustle of crowds, lends enjoyment and relieves the strain of "a day in town."

Highland Park merchants want to please you, and are anxious to serve you. They offer bargains equal to those found in other shopping communities. Their employees are familiar with your likes and dislikes, and will offer many suggestions to help you with your holiday problems.
