ELLIS-PARKIN CEREMONY

The marriage ceremony of Miss Elizabeth Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Ellis of Evanston and Mr. Richard Rex Parkin, son of Mrs. Harry A. Parkin and the late Mr. Parkin took place on Tuesday, December 10th at the home of the bride. The service was read by the Rev. Christoph Keller of Trinity church at a candlelight ceremony at 4:30 in the afternoon. The wedding was a small one with members of both the brides and grooms fam- ilies and a few close friends pres- ent.

Among those who came from out of town for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Lucius M. Seiberling of Akron, Ohio and Mrs. Walter Forks and her son Selyvan of Rockford, Ill. Mr. Seiberling and Mr. Forks were roommates of Mr. Parkin at Yale university.

The bride's sister Marjory was her only attendant and Mr. Henry A. Parkin came from Traverse City, Mich., to be best man for his brother. The bride wore a long full gown of pale blue with a Juliette cap surrounded with seed pearls. Her flowers were white orchids. Miss Ellis wore a full gown of champagne color with gold sequins and heart shaped hat to match.

Mr. Parkin and his bride left for New York where they sailed on Thursday for a wedding trip to Porto Rico. After their return the first of the year they will reside in Highland Park.

Miss Alida Dethleff left this week for West Palm Beach, Fla., to spend the winter with her parents. Miss Dethleff has been living with Mrs. Walter Cope for the past year.

Miss Janet Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lewis, will be hostess at tea Thursday, Dec. 26.

Lucia Lucente, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Lucente of High- wood celebrated her sixteenth birth- day with a formal dinner and dance on Sunday.
