

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Austin were in Chicago Monday to see their son James, who was on his way back to New York after representing the United Press Assn. at the premier of the Santa Fe Trail at Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Dan Grady will be home Friday after a two weeks visit with his uncle in Alden, Kas.

John Creigh will return Monday from his month's training cruise with the Naval Reserve on the U.S.S. Arkansas.

Miss Barbara Patterson is entertaining at an "open house" and buffet supper Sunday.

Mrs. Mildred Haessler and son Eric and daughter Louise will spend next week in Lansing, Mich., where they will attend the "coming out" party of their niece and cousin, Miss Mary Pierce, who is a sophomore at Vassar college.

Miss Sarah Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wright, will entertain at a breakfast party Dec. 27.

R. Duane "Duke" Cope, engineer with the Stinson Aircraft Division of Vultee Aircraft, Inc., Wayne, Mich., will arrive in Highland Park Christmas Eve to spend several days with his family and friends. Duke was recently transferred to Wayne from Vultee's Nashville, Tennessee, plant.

Kathryn Keller, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Christoph Keller, 340 Prospect Ave., is returning Dec. 20 for three weeks vacation from Wells college N.Y. She will attend a joint Christmas tea given by Chicago Wells College club and Evanston-North Shore Wells College club at the home of Mrs. Calvin Selfridge of Winnetka, Monday afternoon, Dec. 30th from 3-5 o'clock.

Henry Payne III, of Charleston, Va., is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Robert Carver this week. Next week the two will join Henry's parents in Charleston for the holidays.

Miss Phoebe Swazey arrives home from Phoenix, Ariz., Monday evening for a weeks visit during Christmas week.

Art Pier will leave Thursday for Fort Lauderdale, Fla., with the Purdue swimmers to attend the National Aquatic Forum. Mrs. Harry M. Pier and Joan will join him there for the holidays.

Marriage licenses have been issued recently to Harry Lunn of Fox River Grove and Joyce Wahlfeil of Highland Park; David F. Duran of Highland Park and Eleanor Carlson of Lake Geneva, Wis.

Dr. and Mrs. Abram Hoffman are expected home today (Thursday) from a six weeks vacation at Miami, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Koepke and daughter Sandra of Normal, Ill., will be here for the holidays with their parents the Joseph Delhayes.

The Alcyon Cleaner employees and their friends enjoyed a third anniversary and Christmas party at their plant on N. Sheridan road Saturday evening. A colored boy and girl floor show from Evanston were one of the features of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold West of S. Greenbay road entertained at four tables of bridge last Saturday evening.

Miss Louise Carlisle of Santa Monica, Calif. will be a house guest of Miss Chandler and Mrs. Jared Johnson during the holidays.

Mr. Fred Hefferon of Flemington, N.J., will visit his relatives, the Joseph Delhayes and Vernon McMahon during the Christmas week.

Mrs. Carrie M. Green former proprietor of the Green Tea Pot in Highland Park, has opened a tea room at 620 East Atlantic Ave., Delray Beach, Fla.

Mrs. H. N. Samuel and son Joel returned Monday evening from a two months sojourn at Miami and St. Augustine, Florida. Miss Betty Mae Howard of Johnstown, Pa., joined her aunt and cousin while in the South and will be their house guest here during the holidays.

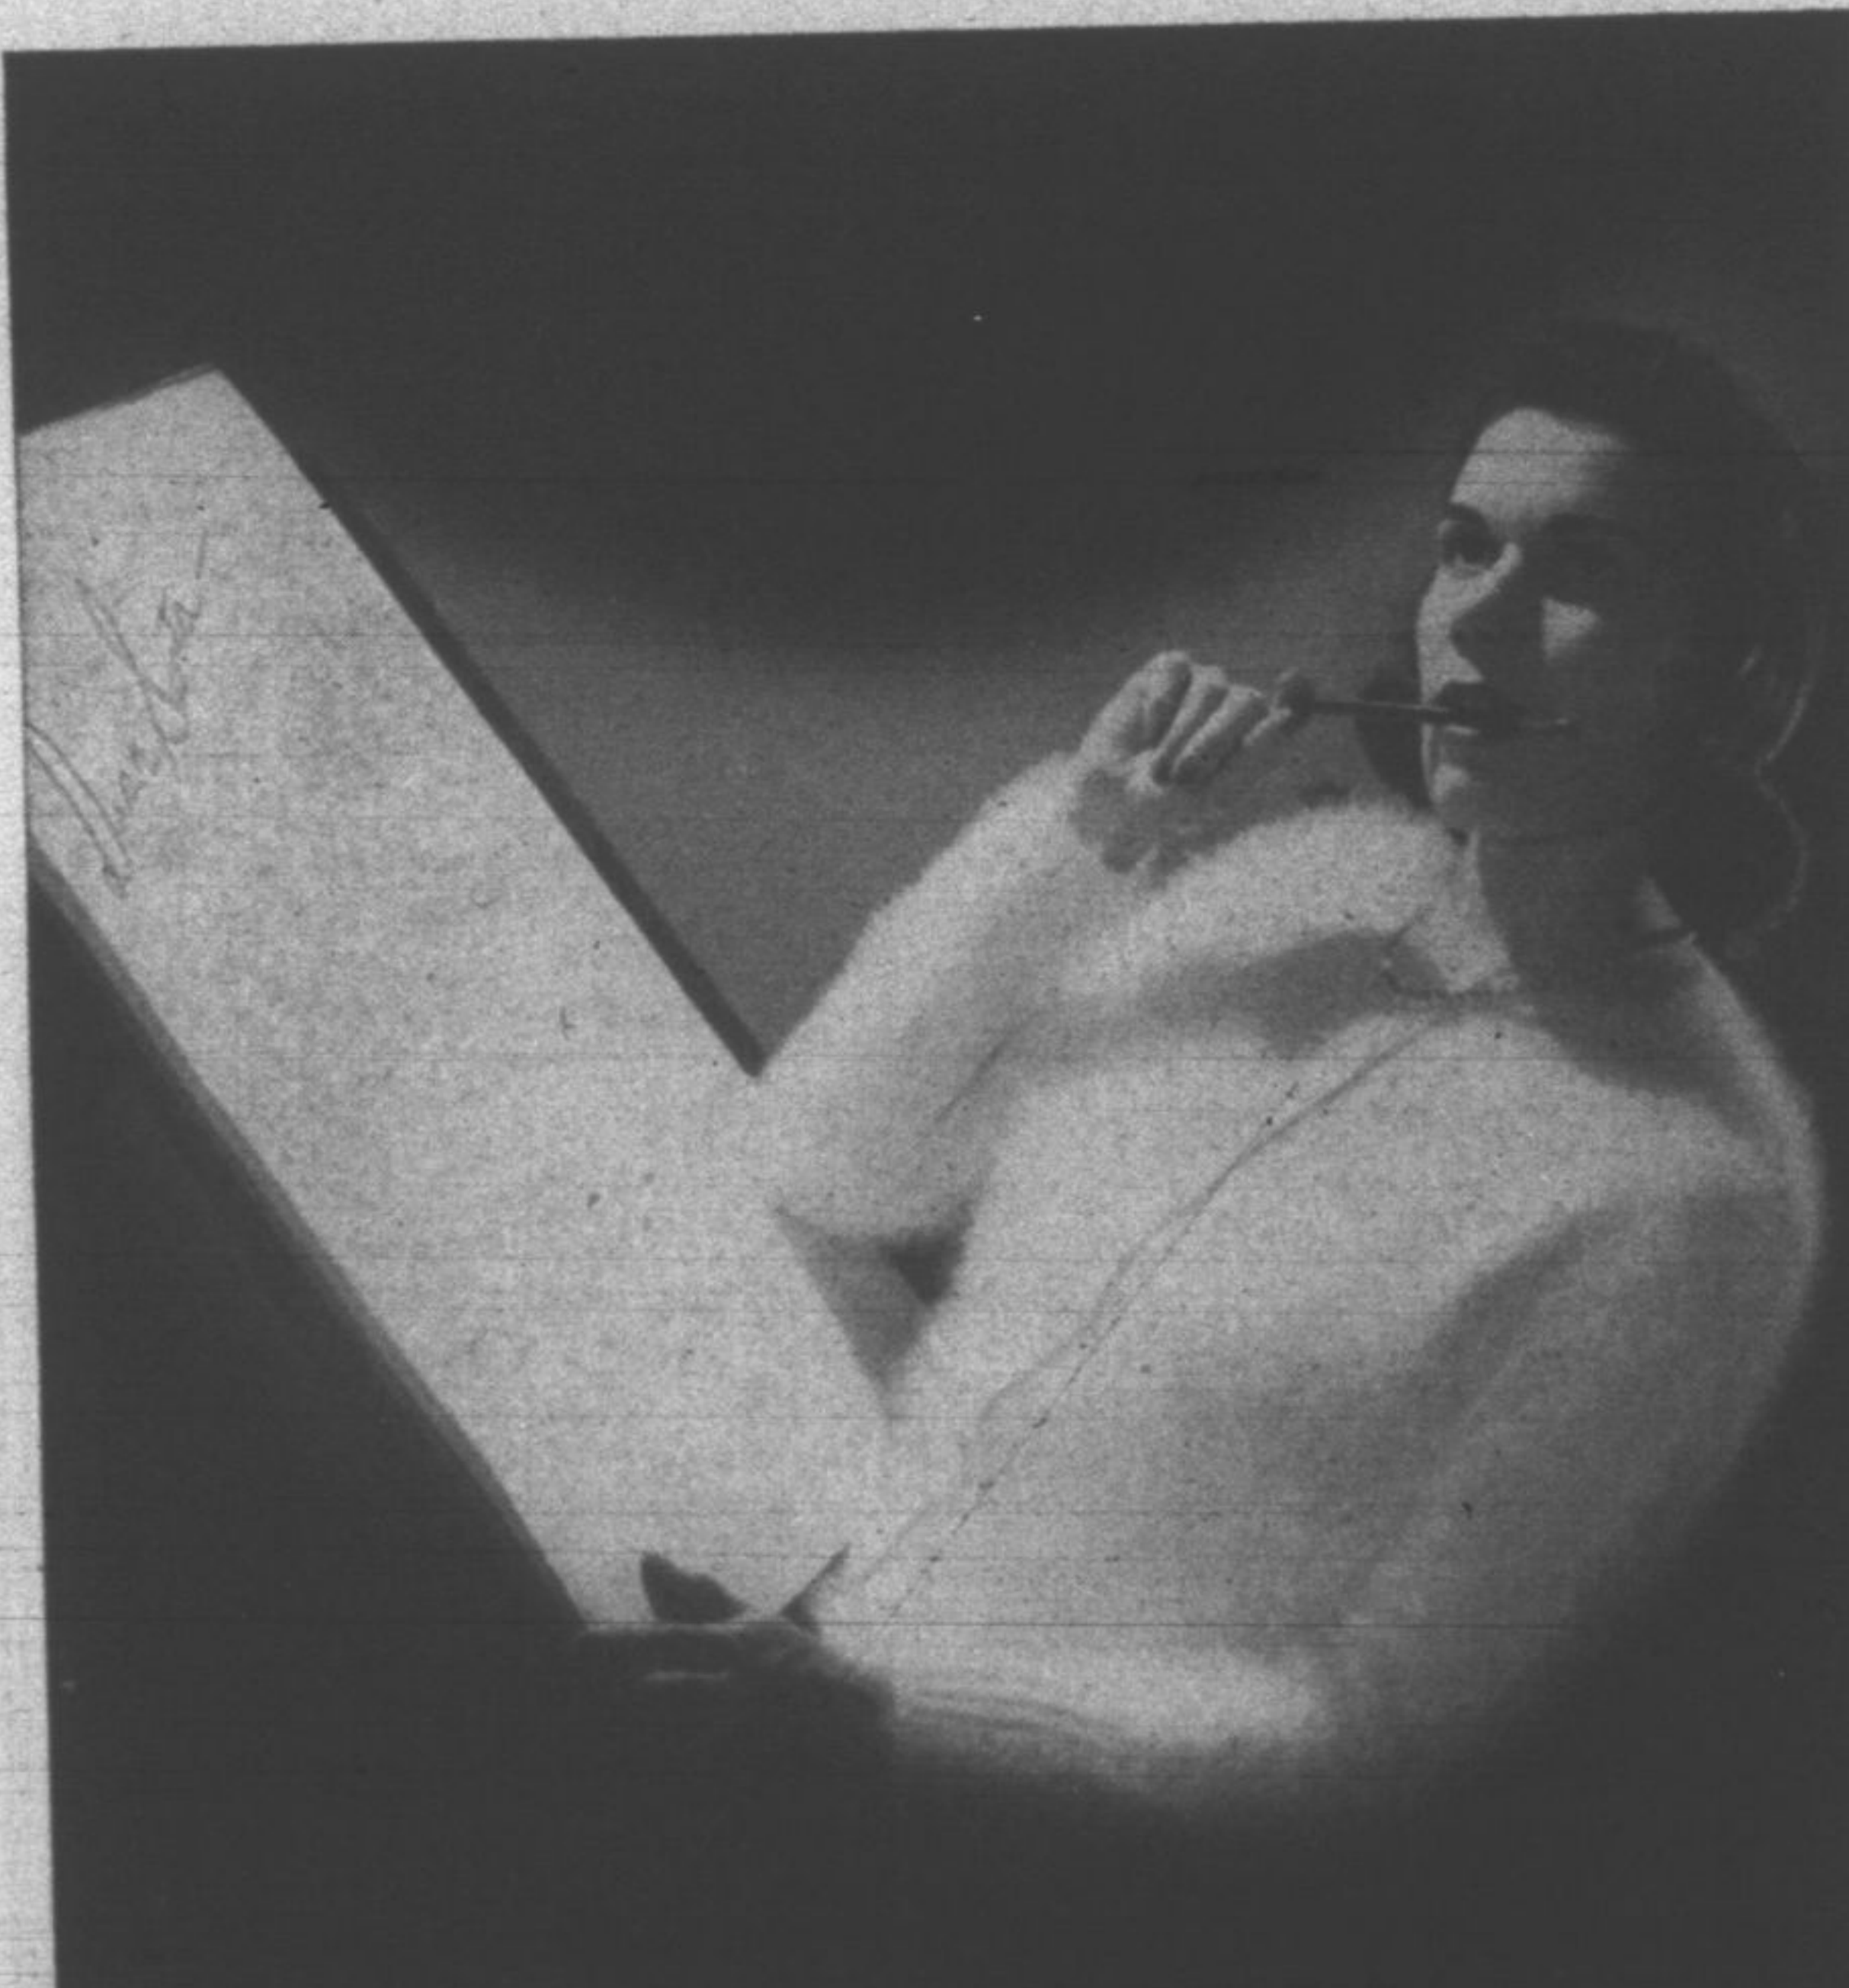

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Bell and daughters Barbara and Elizabeth of Philadelphia will spend the Christmas holidays with the Lewis B. Sinclairs of Dale avenue.

Dorothy Lytle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Lytle, of 2215 Lakeside place, and Gordon Frisbie, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Frisbie Jr., of Lakeside manor, are among the students at Northwestern university who are members of committees planning the 1941 Junior prom to be held the night of February 14 at the Stevens hotel in Chicago. The Junior prom is sponsored by the junior class and is the first formal affair of the second semester.

Frisbie is a junior in the school of commerce and a member of Delta Tau Delta social fraternity. He has been active on the track team, on the staff of the Daily Northwestern, student newspaper, and in intramurals.

Miss Lytle is a junior in the school of speech and a member of Pi Beta Phi, social sorority. Before entering Northwestern university, she attended Skidmore college where she was active in dramatics, on the Student council, in swimming and in fancy skating.

HERMANC MUSRIC'S BEAUTY SALON
Complete Beauty Service
22 S. First Street
Phone Highland Park 5042

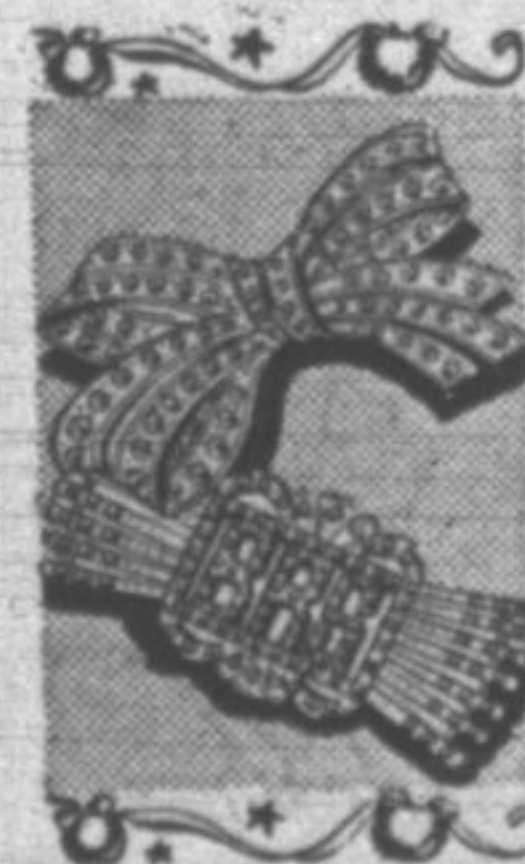

DEAR SANTA:—
I know it leaves fuzz all over Andy's dark clothes, I know it shrinks if it isn't properly washed, I know it makes me look as big as a house, I know it's expensive as sweaters go, but gosh, I'd love to get a REAL angora for Christmas. Pure white angora cardigan, $14.95.

at
MILBURN'S
704 and 714 Church St.
Evanston

Christmas Accessories

A Fine Assortment

- Sweaters
- Skirts
- Jewelry
- Hankies
- Nighties
- Scarfs

Always a choice line of
DRESSES

FAYE BARKLEY

Tel. H. P. 926
5 South St. Johns Avenue

Masons To I New O

Installation of Fay Lodge No. (will take place today) in Mason stalling officers: Wightman, Dist installing office marshal; Albert W. E. Meierhoff, W. Cox, orator.

The officers: master, Dan M. den, Arthur G. F. den, Marvin F. F. Grant; secret chaplain, George deacon, Thomas deason, James for steward, F. Austin Armstro Schneider; tyl

H.P. Garde Hea

The Decem Highland Park held at the Haggerty in Mrs. Herbert addressed the decorations. T organized in 1 bership of 25. bon is presid Cormick, vice B. Pierce, tre Richardson, tary, and Mr gram chairma Last year an organization h the Highland H. P. Public-

Mrs. Harr Form Pa

News of th F. Clow, a fo land Park r Tuesday after Tuesday mor illness at her Calif.

For

KRU
Tel. H