Rabbi Shulman Will Analyze 5 Greatest 1940 Books Published

Again, as in past years, Rabbi Charles E. Shulman will devote his December 22 sermon before the North Shore Congregation Israel to an analysis of the five books which he considers among the most significant works published during 1940. The sermon is an annual effort not at book reviewing, but at stimulating interest in the volumes considered.

A novel, a biography, a book on the philosophy of the age, a book on literature and a work dealing exclusively with the Jewish people, are among the selections for the sermon.

Services at the North Shore Congregation Israel which is located at the corner of Lincoln and Vernon avenues in Glencoe, are held every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and visitors are always cordially welcome.

Youth Service Dec. 29 At Glencoe Church

The week from December 23 thru 30 includes many events at the North Shore Congregation Israel, Glencoe, at which the congregation will be able to greet its young people who are home from school during this period.

One of the most eagerly anticipated events is the annual Youth Service. This year Rabbi Shulman will dedicate the December 29 service to the Alumni of the Religious School and the pulpit will be occupied by three post confirmants: Miss Peggy Stein, Mr. James Buhai, and Mr. Dan Seiden.

A college Homecoming Dance is being planned by the active Alumni Club for Sunday, December 29. On December 23 the Men's Club will have its gala Fathers' and Sons' party, and the Sisterhood is planning to entertain its daughters on Monday afternoon, December 30.
