

Ahem...

Romeo Meltz of Highland Park (his sister's name is Juliet) is now playing piano with Leonard Keller's orchestra in Detroit. Formerly, Romeo played with Boyd Raeburn's band. Also has quite a reputation as an arranger.

Donald Budge lives on McDaniels avenue in Highland Park but he's not the famous tennis player.

Readers: Fred Fell is an avid reader of the New York Times during the spare moments when he's not matching a tie to someone's suit or vice versa. Edward I. Smith is a PM reader. Most everyone reads while they eat at Mrs. Tipton's.

Rankings: Art and Paul Olsen have given themselves titles but no one knows which. Over one door leading to the rear room of their shop it says "President" and over the other door on a similar sign it says "Governor."

Tick Tock Cafeteria. That's the name of the little snack restaurant operated by second graders at Elm Place school during the mid-morning recess. They take turns serving tomato juice, pineapple juice, grape juice, and crackers and jelly to schoolmates from other grades. Profitable too, already they've profited enough to buy a Christmas tree for their room.

Wanted: SNOW in large quantities, by the Ski club of Highland Park high school. Just as soon as a man-sized fall gets here "Solly" Thurston's devotees of the sport of spills will be off to Cary, skis freshly waxed, ready for the worst.

Expect 300 Fathers and Sons at Annual Men's Club Banquet

The annual get-together night for proud papas and adoring sons set for Monday night, December 23, is expected to set a new attendance record this year, it was announced by Wilford Newman, program chairman of the Men's Club of North Shore Temple.

There will be dinner for Fathers and Sons at 6:30 in the Recreation Hall of the temple, Lincoln and Vernon avenues in Glencoe. The dinner will be followed by entertainment and music. A novel quiz program, patterned after a famous radio quiz, will pit sons against the fathers.

Boys and their dads will be taken for a sound and color movie ride on the Hawaii Clipper to Honolulu. The main attraction and one expected to be a feature of the evening, is a program of legerdemain and mystery, provided by Professor Tiller, internationally known magician.

Each boy will receive a gift from the Men's Club. Fathers must be accompanied by their sons; boys must be accompanied by their dads. Fathers' and Sons' night is an annual celebration, last year's program having set a record for attendance with 248 present.
