

program consisted of the exchange of gifts between the girls.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Swedish Methodist church held their regular meeting at the church last Saturday evening. Following the meeting, the members were entertained by a Christmas program.

Among those helping him celebrate were Eugene Bertachini, Anna Santi, Remo and Joanne Piazzi, Alice Ann Hilton, Madreen Fiocchi, Raymond Fiocchi, Paul Giangiorgi, Raymond Santi, Yvonne Lenoni and Lenore Bernardi.

Mrs. Steve De Bene has as her guest her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson of Iron Mountain, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson have just recently been married.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Biagini had as their week-end guest Mrs. Biagini's sister, Miss Olympia Calli of Cedar Point, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Olympia Fabbri had the honor of being Giovanni Martinelli's guests at last Monday evening's performance of Aida at the Chicago Civic Opera house. On Tuesday the Fabbri's were at the train in Chicago to see Mr. Martinelli off to New York where he will sing this winter with the Metropolitan opera company.

Initiation for the Junior members of the American Legion auxiliary in Highwood scheduled for Wednesday night was postponed until a later date. This was done in order to allow additional new members an opportunity to take part in the services. Plans were completed on Tuesday night for the annual Christmas party for the children, with president Mrs. Fred Lund in charge, ably assisted by her committee of Mrs. Walter Smith, unit activity chairman, and Mrs. Ernest Ayers, refreshment chairman.

Bunco will be played with prizes for the winners, and gifts for everyone. Part of the program will consist of Christmas carols and refreshments.

This meeting marked the end of the Blanket club, and a new club will be started in January.

The Italian Women's Prosperity club will meet Thursday, December 26, for their regular meeting at the Labor Temple. All members are urged to attend, as there will be election of officers.

Valeri Cheroti, daughter of Mrs. Minlyn Cheroti, celebrated her sixth birthday at a party at her home on Sunday afternoon. Refreshments were served at gayly decorated tables in accordance with the Christmas holidays, and at each child's place was a gift from Valerie. Among those who came to help her celebrate were Gay Haessler, Alice Vignocchi, Dolores Pranzini, Denise Irene Lenzi, Jack Poole, and Marilyn and John Ugasti.
