The Highwood Lion's club entertained at a party for approximately 800 school children at the Oak Terrace school Friday evening. The club hopes to make this an annual affair.

The children were shown a full-length Western moving picture, and witnessed a half-hour performance by Nick Tomei, local magician. Santa Claus then made his appearance and distributed candy to all the children.

Due to the fact that their gymnasium will not be ready until January 8 the Highwood Athletic club basketball team would like to engage in traveling games with other Lake county teams. Any Class B team wishing a game may call Bruno Bertucci, 345 Highwood avenue, in Highwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Armando Turchi of Nokomis, Ill. are spending the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Turchi's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rosalini of High street.

Mrs. Ann Malmquist was hostess to her pinochle club Thursday evening at a Christmas party. Prizes in cards were awarded to Mrs. Nora Capitana Mrs. Marie Fantoni, and Mrs. Marie Campagni.

Elmer Fawsett, 310 Railway avenue, suffered severe injuries about the head last week. He was taken to the Highland Park hospital for treatment.

A Christmas party was given at the Labor Temple Sunday evening by the Lake County Laborers' union, Local 152, for the families and its neighbors. A large crowd attended with entertainment consisting of games, Christmas carols, refreshments and gifts.

At the last meeting of the Cuore Arte club in Highwood, a report was given by John Ori, chairman of the New Year's party, on the annual affair given by the club for members and their families. Further plans were completed by the members and the annual election committee was also discussed.

Miss Ethel Svensen of Washington has returned home to spend the holidays with her parents on Waukegan avenue.

Mrs. John Vander Bloomer of 213 North Avenue was hostess to the Yours and Mine Pinochle club on Friday evening at her home for their annual Christmas party. Members holding highest scores were Mrs. David Soderquist Mrs. Roman Bohn, Mrs. George Eiffler and Mrs. Joseph Plomb.

Special guests at the party were Mrs. Stanley Christenson and Mrs. Plomb. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. George Krec, 2119 Elizabeth avenue, Zion. Mrs.

Krec was also presented with a birthday gift from members of the club.

At the city council meeting last Friday Ald. Cowgill moved that $1,000 be transferred from the garbage fund to the general fund in order to pay police salaries amounting to $435.

Placed on file for further discussion was the communication received from Fort Sheridan authorities in regards to the suggested elimination of the Old Elm road grade crossing, so that the army might have a north-south artery such as Skokie road without disrupting Highwood traffic.

The council also received a letter from Fire Chief Arthur Englund of Highwood inviting them to the volunteer fire department's New Year's eve party in the city hall. Ald. Kenry, chairman of the council fire and water committee, submitted the proposal of streamlining the existing fire department to City Attorney Bernard J. Juron for decision as to its legal aspects.

In answer to the request sent to Fort Sheridan to allow Highwood WPA workers at the fort to gain entrance to the fort by any entrance other than the main gate, Fort Sheridan authorities sent notice that due to the present emergency, this request must be regretfully declined.

Alderman Gene Fiochi proposed that Western avenue be improved by repairing the pavement and installing street lights. The council turned this over to the street and alley committee for consideration.

Rotarian Troop 30 Holds Yule Party

Boy Scouts of Rotarian Troop 30 held their annual Christmas party Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the Scout meeting room in Elm Place school. The Tenderfoot Investiture ceremony was held.

Christmas carols were sung and a Christmas basket for a needy family was packed at the party. Sandwiches, ice cream and cake were served.
