Following the concert, supper will be served in the social rooms of the church. The trio will play additional numbers as a musical interlude, and Phil Johnson will show colored motion pictures. The public is invited to the concert and the informal fellowship which will follow.

175 Couples Attend Annual Holly Hop In Ravinia Dec. 30

Approximately 175 couples attended the third annual Holly Hop, held in the Ravinia Village House Monday night, December 30. The dance, sponsored by the Ravinia Woman's club, boasted the music of the Colonial Club orchestra. An excellent floor show was featured.

Acting as master of ceremonies was our own versatile Bob Ross. Three students of Miss Marion Keeney's School of Dance were very helpful in making the floor show a success. Lois Beckstein and Mr. Allan Fardo gave an intricate interpretation of the rhumba, while Miss Marnie Gedge was exceptionally clever at tap dancing.

Harold Shimmelfeng was very entertaining with an impersonation act. His mimic of President Roosevelt brought many laughs. Two songs were sung by charming Miss Emily Hoaglin, kindergarten teacher at Ravinia school. A series of Hawaiian dances were gracefully interpreted by Mary Nancy Bailey and her sister Margaret, who have studied dancing in Hawaii.

The auditorium was very decorative with Christmas greens lining the walls of the dance floor and halls.

TEN PINS

Before an enthusiastic audience at the Highland Ten Pin Alleys last Saturday evening the crack Central Tire bowling team defeated the Washington Garden five of Highland holders of the high team average in the Major league of that well known city.

Lawrence and Peters were high for the Tire men with nice series of 590 and 586, while Belmonte and Kehrwald shared honors for the Garden five with 560 each.
