Criticize Pictures at Camera Club

Picture criticisms are to be the feature of the next Highland Park Camera club meeting, on the evening of January 8. At this meeting will be the last opportunity to join the club as a charter member, thus avoiding payments of an initiation fee.

Alteration Plans at Center

Plans to make the old fire station into recreation rooms are now really being made. The contract to provide an opening from the present building into the future game room has already been let, so the room will soon be available.

The executive committee is also discussing the best recreational use for the balance of the station, not used as a game room.
